OBITUARY

The Late Mrs. MacDougall.
Death occurred in this city on Friday, Jan. 21st, of Mrs. Catharine Augusta MacDougall, at the advanced age of ninety-one years. She had been an invalid for the past six years, so the end was not unexpected. She is survived by one son, Major-General Charles MacDougall, C.M.G., Hamilton, Bermuda, and by one daughter, Mrs. Alexander Kirkpatrick, with whom she resided. There are five grandchildren, Major Keith MacDougall, Halifax, N.S.; A. M. Kirkpatrick, Windsor, Ont.; George Kirkpatrick, Toronto; Mrs. Cecil Adams, Chatham, England, and Mrs. J. C. Murchie, of this city.

The Passing of Mrs. Baker.
Mrs. Eliza Baker, whose maiden name was Williams, the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James Williams was born at East Lake, Prince Edward county, on Oct. 20th, 1829. She came of U. E. Loyalist stock, her great-grandfather, Capt. Henry Young, having gone to Prince Edward County in 1783, an advance guard, as it were, of the U. E. Loyalists that came in 1784. Capt. Young was about the first white man to settle in this county.
Mrs. Baker was educated at the Picton seminary and afterward taught school in the county. She married at the age of twenty-six, and for two years lived in the township of Rawdon. They she with her husband moved into Brighton township, where Mr. Baker died. Since then Mrs. Baker has made her home with her son in Murray township in Mount Zion neighborhood.

On Jan. 15th, 1921, Mrs. Eliza Baker passed to the glad beyond, at the advanced age of ninety-two. The funeral service was conducted at the home of her son, W. A. Baker, by Rev. Mr. Bick, Methodist minister, and Mr. Rogers of the Friends' church, and interment took place in the Friends' burying ground at Woolter, Jan. 17th.

Mrs. Baker in early life was a Methodist, but at marriage became a Quaker and afterward attended the services of the Friends' church. She was of a happy, bright, unselfish disposition and revealed her Christian life in daily Christian conduct.

Mrs. Baker leaves to mourn their loss, two sons and a daughter, Joseph P., New York; W. A., in Murray, and Mrs. G. S. Sharpe, Belleville; one son James E., predeceased her.

AGENTS DINED TOGETHER
Good Time With the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Co.

The agents of the Kingston district of the Manufacturers' Life Insurance Company were tendered a complimentary banquet at the British American Hotel, Thursday evening, by the branch manager, M. G. Johnston. The office was represented by J. H. Lithgow, actuary of the company, L. A. Spalding, superintendent for Ontario, and Alf. Kinch, secretary of The Hundred and Two Hundred Thousand Dollar Clubs, formerly cashier of the Kingston agency. The evening was one long to be remembered by those present, as many interesting and helpful speeches were given. Herbert O. Hodge added to the pleasure of the evening by rendering several comic songs, accompanying himself on the banjo; also telling a few good stories, and by some clever and interesting ventriloquism. Gladstone E. Wood gave several entertaining monologue sketches, enjoyed by all present.

The agents present were: G. A. Dixon, Winchester; J. J. Bradley, Smith's Falls; R. M. Shirreff, Brockville; L. K. Blanchard, Brockville; J. W. Marcellus, Iroquois; E. C. Heffron, Lanark; H. Creighton, Napanee; D. R. Purdy, Trenton; E. R. DeLong, Belleville; M. Storms, Picton; F. W. Read, Sydenham; Wm. Guthrie, Perth Road; T. I. Winter, Newburgh; R. N. Gunter, Coe Hill; G. W. Kistick, F. L. Jackson, W. C. Hutcheson, and C. P. Trotter, Kingston.

GAVE SPLENDID CONCERT
A Happy Event Was Held at Calvary Church.

The concert held in Calvary church, on Monday evening, was a very happy event. It was given under the auspices of the Busy Bees, and was most successful. The money realized will be given for the purchase of a lantern. The programme was given entirely by the children, and included piano duets, recitations, choruses and action songs; under the able direction of Jennette Bickham and Elizabeth Guild. Every number was given with fine effect and was received with warm applause. The children carried out their parts in an excellent manner, and well deserved all the praise bestowed upon them. The pastor, Rev. Mr. Brown, acted as chairman, and during the course of the evening entertained the children with stories.

Bath Road Remarks.
A Bath Road correspondent writes:

"Our eyes were gladdened one day last week when we saw a large flock of sheep going up Princess street towards country pastures, but when we learned they were all to be slaughtered during this month, we concluded a fall in the cost of living was not so near as many suppose."

"It is to be hoped our council will favor this part of the city with an occasional, if unnecessary, visit with the new automobile to be purchased for the police force, so we can see how it runs."

United States Deports The Soviet Ambassador

New York, Jan. 22.—Nearly two years of effort by Ludwig C. A. K. Martens to gain recognition by the United States government as ambassador of the Russian Soviet government ended today with his departure for Gothenburg, Sweden on board the steamship Stockholm. It was the final execution of an order from the department of labor for his deportation as an undesirable alien. Hundreds of personal friends of Martens and of his "ambassadorial" retinue of forty-two, crowded the decks to say farewell.

SUBMARINE SANK WITH ALL THE CREW

London, Jan. 22.—The British submarine, K-5, Commander John A. Gaines, was lost with all hands on Thursday at the approaches to the English channel, the Admiralty announced this afternoon. The complement of the submarine was not given, but the vessel of this "fleet" class would carry approximately six officers and fifty men.

The disaster, the Admiralty announcement states, occurred a hundred miles off Lands End. The submarine had a full complement of officers and men aboard. The cause of the disaster is not known. The K class of submarines is the latest type of British submersible vessels, being 338 feet long with a surface speed of twenty-four knots, and a speed submerged of nine knots. They carry eight torpedo tubes, one four-inch gun, and one three-inch gun.

Russian Premier Ill.
Copenhagen, Jan. 22.—Nikolai Lenine, Bolshevik premier of Russia, is ill and has been ordered to take a long rest, says a special dispatch from Helsingfors, which has been received here. Rumors that Lenine has been suffering from illness have been current for some weeks.
