HELPING CHINESE FUND To Confer About

A Tea and Sale Was an Afternoon Event at "Bishops Court."

At the suggestion of Mrs. E. J. Bidwell, and the kind offer of "Bishop's Court's" spacious rooms, the parochial branches of the Woman's Auxiliary held a tea and sale on Wednesday afternoon in aid of the Chinese famine fund. Long tables laden with home made cakes, buns, preserved fruit, and a dozen of lovely brown, fresh eggs, a gift from "Hope Farm," ran down the large dining room, where Mrs. Bidwell received the guests. In charge of these tables were: Mrs. Norman Fraser, Mrs. A. M. Robinson, Mrs. Edwin Rees, Mrs. R. Genge, Miss Lettice Tandy, Miss Elizabeth Sutherland, Mrs. Florence Hentig and Miss Lena Wilson. The tea table, with its fragrant centre of white hyacinths, was laid in the bishop's study, turned into a tea room for the occasion. Here Mrs. C. F. Finkle, Mrs. Francis King, Mrs. T. W. Savary relieved one another in the arduous task of making tea. Assisting them were: Mrs. W. H. Lyons, Mrs. J. Saunders, Mrs. Thomas Smith, Mrs. Fred Hartick, Mrs. Ludlow, Mrs. McCullagh, Mrs. W. B. Carey, Mrs. Kennard, Miss Constance Cooke, Miss Meekler, Miss Martin, Miss Ethel Chapman, Miss Isobel Baxter, Miss Kathleen Daly, Miss Mary Jones, Miss Isabel Gillespie, Miss Edna Baiden, Miss Beatrice Forsythe, and the Misses Bidwell. At the candy table Mrs. J. Baker and Miss Norma McPedridge sold the sweets and Miss Marion Lewis, treasurer of the W. A., took the entrance fee. A musical programme, arranged by Mrs. W. B. Carey, consisted of piano number "Parentelle" (Moszkowski) by Mrs. A. M. Lyster; "The Witches Dance" (MacDowell) Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson; a duet by Miss Barbara and Miss Peggy Bidwell, "Danse Pastorale" (Chaminade). Miss Carrie Waldron sang "Everywhere" (Oley Speaks) and very kindly responded to the encore. Mrs. Cuthbert Gummer accompanied her and also played several delightful piano numbers, Presto, from Beethoven's sonata in E flat, a Prelude of Chopin's and Greig's Norwegian March. Miss Marion MacArthur sang "Life" (Oley Speaks), and Miss Marjorie Booth, "Smiling Through." Miss Isobel Hughes, accompanied by Miss Pearl Nesbit, sang "Smiles" (Maxwell) and a charming encore. Every parish in the city and neighborhood was represented among the workers and in the crowds of visitors were people from all the congregations in the city ready, as they always are, to help in a good cause. The proceeds amounted to $130.

CONCERT AT THE MOWAT

A Happy Event Given There On Wednesday Evening.

The young people's society of Princess street Methodist church and F. J. Salsbury's orchestra, gave the patients at the Mowat hospital a splendid entertainment Wednesday evening. The Military Y. M. C. A. made the arrangements. Rev. Alexander Gordon acted as chairman. The orchestra opened the programme with a number of selections and then played some popular choruses which the boys sang heartily. In the meantime, a few of the ladies had visited the infirmary, and distributed many good things to eat. The other numbers on the programme were as follows: Solo, Miss G. Peters; reading, Miss L. Mazell; duet, Miss F. Peters and H. Wiskin; solo, Miss Timmerman; duet, Misses F. and G. Peters; solo, Harold Wiskin; solo, Miss M. Filkes. Miss Grace Taft presided at the piano. The concert party were under the direction of Miss E. P. Peters. George Timms, on behalf of the young people's society, thanked the orchestra for assisting in making the concert such a success. The chairman expressed the appreciation of the patients to the young people for providing such an excellent entertainment. Home made candy, cake and coffee were served.

DRUNK FOUND HIS WAY TO POLICE STATION

Came to Talk Business and Was Held for Police Court.

The majority of drunks have to be towed to the police station by police constables, but once in a while an odd tippler finds his way to the station alone. About noon on Thursday, a man about twenty-five years of age, who claims Gananoque as his home, staggered into the police station and stated that he wanted to see the chief. "You're drunk," said one of the officers. "No, sir, I'm not," was the reply. "I just dropped in here to see the chief on a little business." The visitor was ushered in to the chief, but he was so much under the weather he had to be locked up, and as a result his little matter of business will have to stand over until he appears before Magistrate Farrell on Friday morning. The man had thirty cents when searched, and this is just about how he will feel when he comes to his senses. At 3 p.m. he was sound asleep in one of the cells, but no doubt will be ready for roll call Friday morning.

Patrick McDermott, the veteran Wolfe Islander, came over from the island on Thursday morning, with horse and cutter. "Haven't fell in yet," said the zealous Patrick, "and don't intend to either." There is very little likelihood that a bill providing for old age pensions will be introduced in the Ontario legislature at this session.

Train Service

J. M. Campbell, president of the Board of Trade, is negotiating for Kingston-Brockville train service that would bring customers to the city early in the day and enable them to return after doing business the same day. Mr. Fairburn, general passenger agent for the Canadian National Railways, is coming to the city to take up the whole matter, and a conference will take place, at which the business interests of the city will have an opportunity to make their wishes known in the matter. Mr. Campbell will be able to announce the date of the conference later.

Badly Injured By Dynamite Blast

Between twelve and one o'clock on Thursday two men working on the provincial highway at Roblin's hill, Napanee, were blown up in a dynamite blast that was being set off in the cut on the hill. One was named Frank Mills, who had both legs broken, and the other, Albert Lemaistre, was seriously injured about the head and body. They were taken to their homes in Napanee, and Drs. Simpson, Galbraith and Stratton were called. The men were sitting at dinner in a shack close to the cut, when the blast went off, and the stones crashed through the building. It was the practice to set off the blasts during the noon hour and at night.

Set House Afire; Gets Two Years

William Whck, who was arrested two weeks ago, by Chief of Police Barrett, of Napanee, on a charge of arson, came before Judge Madden, in the county court, at Napanee, on Wednesday afternoon, and was sentenced to two years in the Portsmouth penitentiary. He was brought to the penitentiary on Thursday afternoon by Chief Barrett. Whck was placed under arrest, following the burning of a vacant house owned by Thomas J. Russell, in Richmond township. Whck admitted he had been sleeping in the house, started a fire, and when it got beyond his control, he made off.

Highly Appreciated.

D. P. Branigan, manager of the Grand Opera House, received to-day from Hamilton the following telegram: Boston Opera Company gave an excellent performance of "Ruddigore" tonight to one of the biggest houses of the season and everybody was delighted with the singing of this very funny Gilbert and Sullivan opera. They can play return here anytime.
