Tuesday was a busy day for the women curlers for besides the local bonspiel, which excited much interest, there was a luncheon for the players and tea for the members. The luncheon was in charge of Mrs. H. Ashby, Mrs. H. E. Richardson and Mrs. W. W. Gibson, and the table was gay and spring-like with its golden daffodils and pale yellow candles in silver candlesticks. Those present were Mrs. H. D. Bibby, Mrs. R. N. F. McFarlane, Mrs. I. Hunter, Mrs. W. J. Drysdale, Mrs. H. F. Moores, Mrs. H. C. Welch, Mrs. T. M. Asselstine, Mrs. Green, Mrs. Guilford Reed, Mrs. Q. Graham, Miss A. Birch and Miss M. Lewis. The tea in the afternoon at which the bridge and tea members were present, was in charge of Mrs. R. N. F. McFarlane's rink. Mrs. W. Drysdale and Mrs. W. Gibson made the tea with Mrs. W. Linson, Mrs. G. H. Williamson and Mrs. W. J. B. White as their assistants.

Mrs. Harold Hughes, Gore street, gave a charming birthday party on Monday for Miss Audrey Hughes whose eighth birthday it was. The little people played games, their kind hostess allowing even tag to be played regardless of the dainty furniture of her drawing room. Tea was served at the long dining room table, in its centre the gorgeous birthday cake with its eight red candles, red streamers and larger red candles in silver sticks. As there were forty little guests, small tables were arranged as well. Red and white balloons were scattered among the children, who caught one each. Some of Mrs. Hughes' friends came in to lead the games and to keep the fun going on.

In spite of other attractions the Skating Club meeting at the Royal Military college rink on Monday evening was a very pleasant one. Among those present were Lt. Col. and Mrs. W. H. P. Elkins, Mrs. W. F. Nickle, Dr. and Mrs. James Millar, Major and Mrs. T. Ashmore Kidd, Miss Mamie Anglin, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Aline and Miss Cecily Rutherford, Miss Doris Barclay, Miss Caroline Mitchell, Prof. Prince Goodwin, Dr. McKee, Messrs. A. W. Brown, Hugh Ryan, Douglas Chown and W. A. Mitchell.

Mrs. Amelia Mackee, 14 Plum street, will receive at her home on Thursday, Feb. 3rd, from 3 to 6, in honor of her daughter, Mrs. William Scott, Kojea, and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. John Mackee, Kindersley, Sask.

Mrs. M. R. Davis, Frontenac street, was the hostess of a pleasant tea on Monday afternoon, when Mrs. R. Vashon Rogers poured tea and Mrs. W. T. G. Brown cut the ices, assisted by Mrs. John Hunter and Miss Carrie Milton.

Mrs. T. S. Scott, King street, entertained at dinner on Saturday evening, some more people coming in afterwards for bridge. There were three tables in play, and the souvenir of the game went to Mrs. A. G. Bewick.

Mrs. Benjamin Gordon Robertson will receive for the first time since her marriage, on Friday afternoon, Feb. 4th, at her home, 82 Lower Union street.

Miss Margaret Wafer, R.N., who has been in town for a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. J. Norton Collins, returned to Toronto on Saturday.

Business Is Good With Us Because Our Prices Are Right

To-day's great sale—the first of its kind in the whole of Canada—proved most conclusively that the people of this community have whole hearted faith in the advertisements of this, the Woman's Store of Kingston.

It was indeed most gratifying to see the spontaneous response that was accorded this special sale event. You took us at our word and found that again we had exceeded all records of the past for value-giving.

WE HAVE KEPT FAITH
And the women of this community have shown by their active participation in our special sales that they have faith in us

WE FORCED LOWER DRY GOODS IN EASTERN ONTARIO!

We were the first dry goods house in Eastern Ontario to take the bull by the horns—we were severely criticized by competitors for demoralizing business, but we kept at it giving our customers the benefits of all revisions in prices as they were announced by the manufacturers and wholesaler.

AND NOW on completing our inventory for the past year, we have written off thousands upon thousands of dollars worth of high-priced merchandise—re-priced it to meet the new price conditions for Spring, which we have every confidence in stating are rock-bottom and cannot possibly go lower and indeed if there should be any fluctuation at all, economists tell us, it should be of an upward tendency.

Buy Now--Buy in Confidence

The prices in every department of this store are from 33 1-3 to 60% lower than for last Fall—Staples, Linens, House Furnishings and Dry Goods average 33 1-3% lower; Hosiery, Silks and House Furnishings from 35 to 45% lower; whole all ready-to-wear and Millinery will be from 50 to 60% lower.

Start to-morrow with confidence and do that long deferred shopping, as we assure you, as a reputable business house, that your dollar cannot go farther any time during 1921—than NOW!

KING'S MAIL SERVICE ORDERS GOOD ROADS

Lincoln County Told to Improve Road or Lose Rural Mail.

St. Catharines, Feb. 2.—Lincoln county council is up against an unusual state of affairs. A letter has been received by the council from the Canadian postoffice department stating that the road between Wellandport and St. Ann's is in an impassable state and that unless repaired at once by the county the mail delivery service will be discontinued. This is the first instance in this Niagara district where those means were taken to get road improvement. The council will likely act at once.

Shares in Profits Of Curious Crowds

Niagara Falls, Ont., Feb. 2.—Bobby Leach has pulled off so many dare-devil stunts here that the Gorge Railway and the International Railway, in appreciation of the business they got through him, each presented him with a cheque for $250, or $500 in all. This had particular reference to his parachute drop from an aeroplane in August last. Mr. Leach has recently purchased a hotel over the river.

At Clayton, N.Y., on Jan. 31st, Miss Rena Farrell and Wilfred Johnston, Watertown, N.Y., were mar-
