The Satisfaction of Safety

Your Valuables are never really safe outside a Safety Deposit Box. Theft and fire are not the only dangers. There is always the possibility of losing or misplacing Papers, Jewels or Plate. A Safety Deposit Box in this Bank affords protection for your valuables; and the yearly rental is very reasonable.

Make the Most of Your Investments

When planning an investment, it is advisable to obtain the one which affords the maximum of security, the most convenient facilities for collecting interest, and the highest yield consistent with the two.

Such an investment is to be found in Canadian Government and Municipal Bonds, which, at existing prices, provide interest returns ranging from 6.10% to 7%.

Write for a list of these bonds.

RIDEAU LAKE.
 Feb. 9.—Although the sleighing is poor few have yet resorted to wheels. The farmers are hauling and sawing wood. A quantity of sand and gravel is also being drawn in preparation for road work. John Scanlan is still in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston, suffering from an eye injury. Ignatius Donaghy left on Monday to resume his studies in Toronto. Mrs. J. O'Meara and Miss Cassidy, Yarker, spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. Donaghy. Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Koen and daughter spent the week-end at J. J. Donaghy's. Mr. and Mrs. Francis Egan were recent visitors at the home of J. J. Donaghy.

LYNDHURST.
 Feb. 9.—Mrs. S. Rathall has returned from the hospital on Brockville very much improved after her operation. Mrs. C. Galloway has returned home after her operation. The residents of Lyndhurst have begun to move. W. Neal has moved up to his new home to-day. Ford Cheetham has bought the place where he has had his barber shop. Lyndhurst home talent put on a good play here on Friday and again on Monday. The play is "Much Ado About Billy." They had a full house both nights. A car load of young people came over here for the play. They got in a bad mix-up. The car ran in the ditch and turned bottom up. No person was hurt, but the car was badly smashed. The top, one wheel, the windshield, and the fenders were broken.

TAMWORTH.
 Feb. 10.—Mr. and Mrs. McGee, Saskatoon, are visiting friends in town. Pat Hopkins, while motoring near Asselstine's hill, noticed a very large deer. It crossed the road in front of him. Following the service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday a vote was taken on the question of uniting with the Methodists. The vote stood 19 to 9 in favor of union. The second vote taken was unanimous in favor of union. Mrs. McGee has returned home from Toronto. The I.O.O.F. banquet Wednesday evening was a great success. Enterprise lodge turned out in large numbers.

nis, to her home at Toronto. He is going to Kingston before he returns home. George Jackson, Sr., North Bay, is renewing acquaintance around here. He has sold his farm here to Zara Snider, who intends moving on it in the spring. Everton Fluke and A. L. Beber are drawing goods from Lavant-station for R. W. Corbett. Stanley Grigg and G. W. Jackson are drawing pulp-wood to Lackie Creek. A. H. Gregg is taking pulp-wood to the Coultin Creek.

DOINGS AT ATHENS.

Some Property Changes in the Village are Noted.

Athens, Feb. 11.—Lewis Stevens has purchased the parish property, adjoining the public school, Wellington street, and is taking possession at once. Robert Kearney, Isaac street, has purchased Stephen Knowlton's farm, Delta road. Mrs. M. Rappell has leased Mrs. A. Johnston's Church street property. A. R. Brown is making improvements in the interior of his recently acquired property, corner of Main and Reid streets. A garage purchased from C. Grey, has been moved to the premises.

During the absence of Dr. C. B. Lillie and Mrs. Lillie in Florida for the next couple of months, their apartments are being occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Francis Sheldon. Philip Yates has sold his farm at Hard Island to Leander Chapman, Jones's Falls, who takes possession the first of next month. Mr. and Mrs. Yates have leased the Taylor house, Wiltsie street, east, and will move into town about the first of March.

A sale of household effects of the late Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Taylor took place on the 2nd, inst. These old and respected residents passed away within a few weeks of each other. Dave Kavanagh has been appointed manager of the Farmers' Co-operative Club. John Milvena has been selected to fill the vacancy in the council. Frank Blanche has been re-appointed village officer.

On the evening of the 1st, inst., the Eckhardt's gave their popular musical entertainment in the local town hall. The I.O.O.F. gave an "At Home" in the hall on Monday evening 7th inst. The special services being conducted jointly by pastor Newton and Nichols are being continued this week. On Sabbath last, eighteen men motored from Westport to attend. On the Sabbath previous, sixteen men from the same village were in attendance.

The W.A. of Christ church held a social evening recently at the rectory. Lantern slides, views of Japan, were exhibited by Rev. V. O. Boyle and J. E. Burchell, B.A.

It is reported that special services will soon be held in the township hall under the direction of the Pentecostal mission.

A SUPPER AT SYDENHAM.

Saw Mill receives a Large Quantity of Logs.
 Sydenham, Feb. 10.—At Wesley hall on Wednesday evening, the quarterly Ladies' Aid supper was served to a large number. Supper began at six o'clock. Four tables were set, and all these were occupied twice, and some a third time. Following the repast came a short but enjoyable programme, including a chorus, vocal solos and duets, piano solo, a play by some high school pupils, and a little community singing. The sum realized was in excess of any amount received at similar, previous gatherings.

Miss A. Johnson, Boston, formerly well-known in this district, has been spending a few days with Miss E. Lawson.

Another successful euchre and dance was carried out by the ladies of St. Patrick's church, Railton, last Monday evening.

Mrs. A. Alkenbrack returned on Tuesday from attending the funeral of her father-in-law, the late Cornelius Alkenbrack, near Napanee. Hugh Barclay was taken to the General hospital, Kingston, on Monday last, an X-ray examination, made on Wednesday night, revealed an abscess on the brain. His recovery is being hoped for by all.

F. W. Read left for his home in Westboro on Tuesday where he will remain until spring. A few Queen's students spent Wednesday at home, as there were no classes that day. Thomas Redmond has just finished tearing down the building behind the water-tank at the station. Some of the material he will use in erecting a house on the Harrowsmith road. A large quantity of logs is being received at the saw-mill from the farmers to be sawn into timber.

Saw He Got Time.
 A woman about to board an Avenue Road trolley on Sunday, asked the conductor: "Does this car go to King street?" "No, madam," replied the conductor. "That's funny," remarked the woman. "Yes, madam, but I haven't got time to laugh," retorted the conductor, pulling his bell rope. The next day the superintendent of the line called the conductor before him and asked: "What was it you said to that woman yesterday, when she said it was funny your car did not go to King street?" The conductor grinned, and replied, "I said yes, it was funny, but I was late and did not have time to laugh." "Take three days off without pay and laugh," replied the superintendent.

Among the new locks to prevent automobile theft is one that operates a valve in an intake manifold. New Zealand has 85,000 telephones in use, an average of one to every sixteen inhabitants. An inventor has patented a portable compressed air tank for inflating automobile tires. A distillery for the production of alcohol from sotal, a native plant, has been built in Mexico. The telescoping joints of a new metal lead pencil can be drawn out until it forms a foot rule.
