BASEBALL CLUBS CHANGE MANAGERS

Seven Out of Sixteen Major League Organizations Under New Leadership.

Seven of the sixteen clubs in the major baseball leagues, three in the National and four in the American, will take the field for the 1921 campaign under the leadership of new managers. The beginning of nearly every baseball season finds one or two "new managers, but it is a long time since there has been such a general shakedown among the field generals of the major league clubs.

With all the changes of leaders that have been made from year to year there are two managers who stand out prominently in the history of baseball because of their long service with their respective clubs—Connie Mack of the Philadelphia Athletics, and John J. McGraw of the New York Giants. Mack has led the Athletics since they entered the American League in 1901, and has won six pennants and three world's championships. McGraw became manager of the Giants in 1902 and like Mack, has won the world's championship only once.

One of the most notable changes among the managers for the coming season is the appointment of Ty Cobb to lead the Detroit Tigers as the successor of Hughie Jennings. The latter quit the Tigers after 14 years, during which he won three pennants, to become assistant to Manager McGraw of the Giants. What Cobb will do as a major league manager will be closely watched by the fans throughout the country. As a player he has won about every honor the game affords with the exception of playing on a world's championship team, and has been proclaimed by all one of the greatest players in the history of baseball, and by some the greatest.

While Ty is not the Cobb of a few years ago he still is a great player and it remains to be seen what effect, if any, the duties of manager will have upon his playing. Like Tris Speaker, manager of the world's champion Cleveland team, Cobb will continue to play centre field, and he and Speaker will be the only players.

ing managers in the major leagues. They also are said to be the highest paid active players in the game, each drawing salaries both as players and managers. In addition Speaker is said to have received an interest in the Cleveland club for winning the first pennant and world's championship for the city.

FRANCE FINDS MONEY FOR RACING PURPOSES

Despite the desperate financial situation in France and the insistent demands for huge German reparations to tide the nation over the crisis, the purses for the racing season commencing at the Auteuil race course will total 7,342,755 francs (normally about $1,468,551), as compared with 5,000,000 francs last year and less than 4,000,000 in 1914.

Approximately 1,200,000,000 pari-mutuels last year, thousands of race-goers being unable to bet because of the lack of booths. This year scores of additional booths have been installed at all race courses, and a new and speedier system of figuring the dividends to be paid has been devised. War profiteers are organizing stables at Malsons, Laflotte and Chantilly, and are offering fabulous salaries to English trainers and jockeys to come to France.

There is considerable agitation in the chamber of deputies for the establishment of pari-mutual booths in Paris and other large cities, so that betters may wager there instead of with the book-makers, thus permitting the state to obtain a ten per cent. tax.

Automobile touring companies, organized to carry tourists to the battlefields, but finding no passengers, announce a cheap service to the race courses.

FAIR BRITISH GOLFERS CHALLENGE U.S. LADIES

The news that American women are coming here to play for the British women's golf championship at Turnberry, Ayr, in Scotland, in May has aroused great interest among English and Scotch women players. The visit was discussed by the committee of the Women's United Services Golf Association in London, and they decided to challenge the American women to a match during their visit.

With so many open competitions being played in England previous to the championship at Turnberry, the American players will get plenty of first-class practice, and a meeting between them and the best of Great Britain's players will prove one of the chief attractions of the season. In view of the visit of so many American amateurs this year several of the leading English clubs, like Sunningdale and Walton Heath, are discussing the question of trying to arrange a team match in which the best of English amateurs will meet the Americans in singles and foursomes.

MAY CALL TRY OFF

Lacrosse Tour of Shamrocks Still Very Uncertain.

Although there is five thousand dollars in the bank at Montreal deposited by Con Jones, Vancouver, to cover the expenses of a Shamrock lacrosse team going to the Pacific Coast for May, the trip is not by any means certain. Meetings of the lacrosse club to finally settle the matter have been postponed day to day, but some decision is to be reached this week. The uncertainty is due, it is said, to the disastrous failure of a boxing tournament which was expected to have made a lot of money for the team.

No Date Arranged.

Until such time that a winner in the back group composed of Harrowsmith, Sydenham and Verona is declared the trustees of the county hockey league will not set a date for the final game. Verona and Sydenham play the game which was ordered to be replayed on Thursday and should Sydenham win they will meet Wolfe Island in the finals. Verona has a chance of tying up the league.

Joyceville Wanted Game.

The management of the Joyceville hockey team asked the Regiopolis hockey team to play an exhibition game at Joyceville on Tuesday afternoon but on account of Regiopolis going to Wolfe Island the game will have to be played at a later date.

Manager Robinson has cut the Dodger squad down to 31 men, all of whom will leave for New Orleans on March 7. Thirteen pitchers and four catchers are on the list.

FOUR EASTERN ALLAN CUP CHALLENGES

H. J. Sterling, Winnipeg, president of the Canadian Amateur Hockey Association, has advised W. A. Hewitt, secretary for the Allan Cup from the eastern associations have been received from the Ontario Hockey Association, the Intercollegiate Hockey Association, the Intercollegiate Hockey Association, the Intercollegiate Hockey Association. President Sterling has given Mr. Hewitt authority to arrange for the elimination games covering the teams from those associations. He asks that there shall be no unnecessary delay in producing the winner to go to Winnipeg for the finals as early as possible for the present time everything points to an early spring in the West, and he is very anxious to see the final games played on keen ice.

Will Not Materialize.

It seems to be pretty well established that the match between Jack Dempsey and Jess Willard, which was postponed some time ago until labor day, will not materialize. For reasons best known to himself, Dempsey does not want to meet the man from whom he wrested the heavyweight championship. This attitude on the part of the title holder lends additional strength to the belief that Dempsey is not exactly the Titan which he appeared to be after he stopped Willard at Toledo, and that Dempsey is not possessed of great confidence in his ability to repeat over the Kansan. Whatever the reason, those who look for the fight to take place are going to be disappointed.

The Southern League has decided not to increase its player limit, retaining its last year's rule of 15 men, six of whom must be men who have never played in as high as Class A.
