FRONTENAC

OLENVALE.
 Feb. 21.—Mrs. Cooper and Mrs. J. Purvis have returned from Trenton, where they visited friends. The Young People's society collected sixty five dollars and fifty cents for the Chinese famine fund in this vicinity. Fenwick Cramer went to St. Catharines last week to attend the funeral of his cousin there. Miss Lake, Inverary, is at H. Campalls; Miss Grace Cramer is home from Kingston; John Hamilton and Percy Butterill, Kingston, visited here recently. Miss Bella Van Order is ill with pneumonia. Mr. and Mrs. Gibson attended the funeral of Mrs. Burt at Wilton.

LATIMER.
 Feb. 21.—The sharp rain and electric storm of Wednesday last have been followed by a colder spell on Saturday last. Ebert Shepherd had an exciting experience. While hauling wood across Collins' Lake his team went through the ice. One horse was drowned and the other was badly injured but is expected to recover. The horse which was lost was the property of E. Herd and the other belonged to Mr. Shepherd. Many from here attended the sale of farm stock and implements of H. Buck. Kepler, W. Lake purchased two cows and a heifer. G. Cranston purchased two fine thorough-bred heifers at the sale of O. Orser, Elginburg, on Thursday. H. Darling has about finished his round of wood-sawing for this season.

MYER'S CAVE.
 Feb. 21.—All are glad to hear that Fred Armitage is improving. He took ill at C. MacGregor's on Monday last and was removed to his home in Napanee on Wednesday. Mrs. John McCausland and Miss V. Let Hinz spent Saturday at Mrs. T. D. Perry's. Peter Bey called on Tuesday on business. Thomas Taylor spent a couple of days here. H. Perry and Byron, Centreville, spent the last week with relatives here. Gilbert Wood and brother, Gilbert, are drawing logs to Perry's Mills, as also is Lenord Delyea. William MacGregor has been on the sick bed for the past week. Mrs. L. Snider, Mrs. K. Meeks and P. Keller attended the quilting at Mrs. T. D. Perry's, on Saturday. R. G. Hamilton, Ardoch, spent the week-end at D. MacGregor's. Charles Dusham, Ardoch, called here Friday en route to Harlowe. Miss Tena MacGregor is now visiting her sister, Mrs. Perry. Martin Neal and Paul Baker are home from Gilmour camp. Mrs. Albert Marshall, Arden, visited her mother, Mrs. Delyea, last week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles MacGregor, motored to Odessa on Saturday, to spend a few days with their daughter, Mrs. C. Menor. Mrs. K. Meeks and Mrs. L. D. Snider called at Mrs. C. MacGregor's Saturday evening. Peter S. Keller spent the week-end at "Sunny Side."

FLORIDA.
 Feb. 22.—Some of the farmers are getting in their supply of ice. Lester Card and family have moved from this neighborhood to their farm near Yarker. S. Westbrooke has moved into the house lately vacated by Mr. Card. There was no school yesterday as the teacher, Miss Toner, was in the city attending the funeral of her aunt, Mrs. William Toner. Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, Odessa, at his brother's, Edward Martin, at his home after spending a couple of weeks with friends at Hinchinbrooke and Verona; Walter Compton at Enoch Snider's; Mr. and Mrs. D. Snook and little son visited at C. W. Jeffrey's; Lottie Martin who has been spending some time in the city, visiting friends, has returned home; Mrs. Garrison at Baxter Redden's; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Stover, Wilton, were Sunday visitors at John Peter's; Mr. and Mrs. Byard Snider's at Baxter Redden's.

LEEDS
MORTON.
 Feb. 21.—A number from here attended the hockey match at Seelie's Bay on Saturday last. A number from here attended the farewell at Eugene Edgar's, Leeds, on Tuesday evening last. The Pine Grove boys came over on Friday and played a friendly game of hockey with the Morton boys. The score was in favor of the home team. George Roantree was busy last week filling his ice house. Mrs. Albert Davis has returned to Brockville after spending a few weeks with her sister, Mrs. H. G. Dean. The Misses Katherine and Helen Kearney attended the funeral of the late Miss Mary Murphy, Elgin, on Wednesday last. The heavy gale on Wednesday did some damage in this locality. Mrs. H. E. Lomin, who has been ill, is improving.

JUNETOWN.
 Feb. 22.—Mr. G. P. Scott and Miss Mary Scott were visitors on Monday at P. Smith's, Escott. Among the jurymen who met at Brockville on Saturday concerning the death of William Wood, were G. P. Scott, and William Hall. Patrons are making splendid progress in collecting material with which to build a fine new cement-block cheese factory. They expect to have it ready for use early in the season, and when finished it will be one of the finest factories in eastern Ontario. W. H. Franklin is engaged with his sawing outfit. Joseph Kirk, who had a leg fractured recently, is much improved. Duncan Warren and family have recovered from measles. Miss Maggie Scott is spending some time with friends on Lake street. Mr. and Mrs. Norris Ferguson and Miss Irene, visited relatives in Brockville on Saturday. Joseph Kirk was quietly married on Feb. 21st to Mrs. Elleda Johnston, Grahamton. Mrs. E. Avery spent the week-end at James Williams', Ballycanoe. Miss Arvilla Avery has returned after completing her course at Kingston business college. Mrs. Newman, Cardinal, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Duncan Warren.

CAMDEN EAST.
 Feb. 23.—Mrs. John Skinner entertained a few of her friends to dinner on Wednesday last. Mrs. L. H. Stover attended the funeral of her cousin, Willis Clark, Enterprize, on Thursday. Mrs. J. W. Skinner left on Thursday to visit her son and daughter at Watertown, N.Y. Mrs. Joseph Amey has returned home after spending the past two weeks with her daughter, Mrs. J. Yeomans, Collins' Bay, Wellington Ferry arrived home on Friday after spending three weeks with his brother at Napanee. James Card met with an accident at the Specialty Paper mill here. He was digging out some frozen pulp and the top of the pile broke loose and came down on him burying him for a time. Fortunately there were no bones broke. Mr. Murphy, Yarker, is sawing wood in this vicinity. We hope the change in the new time is-ble on the C.N.R. will not affect Camden East for our genial caretaker, M. Finch, is doing a good business selling tickets and taking care of express and freight. The puzzling question seems to be is the cheese factory going to run this season? Miss S. Amey, who has been ill, is improving. Rev. (Capt.) Latimer was in the village calling on the sick on Monday.

Prince Edward

BONGARD'S.
 Feb. 21.—The quarterly official board met at the church on Monday. Rev. Mr. Ramsay was invited to remain another year. Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Blackburn motored to Bancroft to visit friends. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Harrison, Picton, were at J. Bongard's on Monday. Clair McCormack has purchased a new Gray Dort car. Miss R. Eaton spent the week-end at her parents' home. D. T. McCormack and wife, Picton, spent a day at C. B. Pierce's. Rev. Mr. Ramsay was a recent caller at J. D. Bongard's. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Slater accompanied by Mrs. Albro Cressy were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Harrison on Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. N. Ackerman, Royal street, spent the week-end with the latter's sisters, Mrs. Pierce, and Mrs. Hicks. A number from here attended the funeral of the late W. J. McCormack in Picton last week. Mr. McCormack resided here all his days until a few years ago, when he removed to Picton, where he was engaged in the implement business.
