HOOVER BEING IMMORTALIZED BY TWO WELL-KNOWN WOMEN ARTISTS

Neysa McMein, whose magazine covers are admired throughout the United States is seen at the left making a clever portrait of the man who may be the Republican candidate for U. S. President. At the right Sally Farnham is putting the finishing touches to a life-like bust of Mr. Hoover.

THE RUNAWAY BRIDE

Mrs. Carroll L. Wainwright, formerly Miss Edith Gould, the eighteen year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, of New York and Lakewood, who eloped May 26th with Carroll L. Wainwright, 21 years old, member of a wealthy New York family. This photo was taken at Lakewood at the beautiful New Jersey estate of the Goulds, and also shows the bride's youngest sister, Gloria Gould.

AERIAL VIEW OF THE CAPITAL
A comprehensive view of Washington. The capitol, Congressional Library, Senate and House Office buildings and Union Station are plainly shown.

A NEW OUTDOOR SPORT FOR BERLIN YOUNGSTERS

So scarce and valuable have chickens become in Germany that a family rich and lucky enough to own a hen or two give the birds every care and attention and guard them as closely as a national bank watches its cash. During the daytime the egg-laying pets are taken out for air, exercise and stray crumbs in leash. The photo was taken just outside Berlin.

JOHN PHILIP SOUSA AS A TRAPSHOOTER

The "March King" photographed at the Southern Tournament of the American Trapshooters Association, which took place on the outskirts of Washington. Mr. Sousa made the trip from New York to Washington on horseback—for riding and trapshooting are his hobbies.

LAUNCHING OF SHAMROCK IV

Lipton's challenger for the America's cup, glistening in a brand new coat of green paint and wearing a full dress of pennants, streamers and signal flags slipping gracefully off the ways at City Island, New York, May 26th.

HEADS ENGLISH POLO TEAM TO INVADe AMERICA

Polo abroad is just coming into its own again after the war, and some interesting international matches between America and Great Britain are now being arranged. Here we have Major Hackett, the famous English polo player, and other experts at practice just before a recent match in London. Major Hackett will be in charge of the English team coming to America.

HIGH COST OF FILM STARS

Now comes a new contract for Miss Lillian Gish, in which she will receive "$500,000 a year" for her services when any one of us would face the camera for half that sum. Above is the latest photo of the popular little star, posed with Rolin Roloffs, the noted aviator. Lillian is going up—likewise her salary.

OPEN GOLF CHAMPION OF UNITED STATES

Walter Hagan, open golf champion of the United States, who recently sailed for England, where he will meet her best golfers on their own links in the open golf championship tournament of Great Britain.

MOONSHINE RAIDS IN GEORGIA

Recent moonshine raids in Northern Georgia by U. S. Revenue Officers resulted in the capture of a score or more of moonshiners, who in some cases were caught in the very act of working their "stills." Photo shows a few "stills" and the revenue officers.

CATTLE SHOW IN YPRES, BELGIUM

The cattle show held amid the ruins of Ypres was largely made possible through the generosity of British farmers who have sent thousands of live stock to the devastated war areas. The peasants have thus been enabled to again stock their homesteads. The Duke of Portland represented the Royal Agricultural Society and through him the farmers expressed their gratitude for the help given them. Photo shows a general view of the Ypres Cattle Show—the shattered Cloth Hall forms a majestic background.

BOOKS IN LONELY PLACES

Into the remote sections of many States goes the sturdy little book wagon, carrying the best of reading material to the rural dwellers who are outside the radius of the public library. It is one of the projects strongly promoted by the American Library Association in its "Books For Everybody" movement to extend library service to the 50,000,000 persons inadequately served.

LUXURIES OF THE MODERN BEAUTY

Woman's most effective weapon is her beauty, and the modern woman with that thought well in mind, seeks all manner of ways to make herself more attractive. One of the many ways of preventing wrinkles is by wearing a mask while sleeping. The hands are also encased in heavy gloves and a stiff support is given the chin to prevent its multiplying itself.

A. F. OF L. ESTABLISHES A BROOM FACTORY

The American Federation of Labor has established in Washington a broom factory for blind members of the Federation. Profits from the enterprise are to be used to pension blind workers when they become too old to discharge their duties satisfactorily.
