Albert Anson Miller, one of Fredericksburg's oldest residents, passed away on Feb. 27th. Deceased was born at Bath, and was the son of the late Peter and Ester Miller. He is the last to pass away of a family of ten. Mr. Miller made his home for the last thirty years with Robert Madden, on the York Road, near Napanee. Mr. Miller was seventy-nine years of age, and was smart till the last. Although he has been blind for nine years, he was always of a cheery disposition and will be greatly missed by all who knew him. Mr. Miller was never married and had been a subscriber of the Whig for over forty years. Andrew, Robert and Ben Miller, of Bath, are nephews.

The police raided a Chinese gambling den at Smith's Falls, arrested six Chinamen and got $92.75 on the table. The customs collections at Brockville for February amounted to $9,850.
