TO-NIGHT IS THE NIGHT THE BURIAL OF A LEADER

For the Big Production of Funeral of the Late George Y. "Dardanella" at the Grand. Chown on Friday Afternoon.

Everything is ready at the Grand Opera House for the presentation to-night and Saturday, matinee and night, of the McGregor Company's international success, "Dardanella," which has been awaited by local theatre-goers with keen interest ever since the original announcement that the big show would appear here. Indications point to a most successful engagement, and the unbroken record of capacity houses, which the popular production has enjoyed since leaving New York, will undoubtedly obtain here to-night.

The local orchestra will be augmented by the special "Dardanella" musicians, thereby insuring a proper rendition of the many famous song hits. In all likelihood the orchestra to-night will be directed by Addison Evans, composer of the famous "Dardanella" score. Mr. Evans happens to be visiting the company at this time and has promised to direct to-night—according to a wire received yesterday by Manager Branigan, of the Grand. "Dardanella" is described as a "Jim-Jam-Jem of a Jazzy Jam-boree." It is a gigantic combination of all styles of musical comedy, "reviews," "follies," "scandals," etc., all blended into the liveliest, happy-go-lucky entertainment ever staged. The same exquisite chorus of youth and beauty arrayed in gorgeous creations and startlingly novel costumes, the same brilliant cast of comedians, singers and dancers and the same colorful production of artistic and beautiful scenery that was seen during its metropolitan engagement will grace the stage of the Grand to-night.—Advt.

The funeral of the late George Y. Chown took place at 2 p.m. Friday from his residence, "Sunnyside," to Cataract cemetery, and although the family desired a private burial it proved to be the most largely attended funeral held in Kingston in a number of years. This was due to the position occupied by the deceased in the social, business and educational life of the community. The casket was banked with beautiful floral tributes from hosts of friends and associates in the different spheres in which the deceased was a prominent figure, and who thus gave expression to the admiration and affectionate regard in which he was held. Every mail since the sad news of his death became public, brought messages of condolence to the bereaved family, mingled with regret at the loss of so distinguished a citizen.

The religious service at the residence was conducted by Rev. W. T. G. Jordan, of Queen's University. It was attended by the family, numerous relatives and friends and representatives of the different faculties and societies of the university. Among those from outside points being Rev. Dr. E. A. Chown, Toronto; Dr. H. H. Chown, Winnipeg; Stanley T. Chown, Renfrew; Rev. A. E. Lavell, Toronto, and Miss Alice Chown, New York.

At the conclusion of the service the cortege proceeded to Cataract cemetery. The pall-bearers were W. F. Nickle, K.C.; Dean Clarke, Dean Skelton, Elmer Davis, A. B. Cunningham, and John Irwin, Montreal. The mourners included the members of the immediate family and a large number of relatives from the city and outside points. In the procession were the members of the administration staff, the staffs of the different faculties of Queen's University, the entire student body, representatives of the city council, Board of Education, Canadian Club, Board of Trade, Frontenac Club, Public Utilities Commission, Frontenac Law Society and other organizations with which the deceased had been actively associated.

The arrangements were under the direction of James Reid, undertaker. Interment took place in the family plot.

RESOLUTION OF CONDOLENCE

Was Passed in Regard To Late G. Y. Chown.

At a special meeting of the Ontario Board of Parole held in Toronto on March 3rd, Hamilton Cassels, K.C., the chairman, presiding, the following resolution was adopted on motion of T. H. Preston, Brantford:

"That the members of the Ontario Board of Parole at this special meeting convened for the purpose, express their sense of the deep loss sustained by them in the death of G. Y. Chown, one of their number. From the moment of his appointment to this board, Mr. Chown became one of the most active, zealous and faithful of its members, ever seeking the improvement of prison conditions in this province and the restoration of offenders against the law to good citizenship. Warm-hearted and generous in his impulses, and frank and open in the expression of his thoughts, he was highly esteemed by the members of this board and the officials of the Ontario reformatories, all of whom greatly deplore that his companionship and valuable advice are no longer to be theirs."

T. H. Preston was in attendance at the funeral to represent the board.
