If You Need Glasses

And don't wear them, the chances are you never feel quite right.

Sometimes you use your eyes a little more than usual at close work, and you suffer with headaches, and eye pains, maybe nervousness and indigestion.

These symptoms ought to induce you to have your eyes looked after.

You ought to see us at once about it.

Then you will likely get rid of these disagreeable symptoms for good and all.

KINGSTON MOVIE SCENES.

Were Shown at the Strand on Friday Afternoon.

The trial film of scenes in the limestone city taken some weeks ago by the Dominion Motion Picture Company was shown at the Strand Theatre at the close of the matinee performance on Friday afternoon.

The first picture is a beautiful film of Kingston from Fort Henry, and it includes the R.M.C. This is followed by a close-up view of the city hall, Mayor Nickle, city officials and the clerical staff, Abernethy's shoe store with Bert and Vallee standing at the entrance; Kingston General Hospital, and house surgeons; Victoria School, Principal J. G. Ettinger and the children taking their departure, also the staff of teachers; Royal Military College buildings, Major Gen. Sir A. C. Macdonell, commandant, and Major Greenwood, adjutant; Steacy's Limited, giving a very fine view of the store's admirable display front; Kingston fire department, Chief Armstrong and staff with equipment ready for a run. The court house and a great throng of children at the cricket field, with the pictures of many individual girl and boy students, and Policeman Mullinger, close the group.

AN ENTERTAINMENT HELD

By the First Baptist Church Ladies on Friday.

The Ladies Aid of the First Baptist church held a successful entertainment in their spacious lecture hall on Friday. Miss Sharpe took the admission fee and Mrs. Lee Flair, the president, Mrs. James Leslie, Mrs. Parsons and Mrs. H. Hughson were the reception committee.

In the evening a splendid concert was given. The Sunday school orchestra played several numbers. Miss Martha Hughson sang with a violin obligato by H. Salisbury, and piano accompaniment by Miss Isabel Leslie.
