Mrs. R. J. McKelvey, Bagot street, gave a bright young people's dance on Thursday, for Gilbert McKelvey's boy and girl friends. The house was lovely with ferns and flowers, and the bright supper was served from a polished table in the dining room, centred with a silver basket of daffodils on a lace square. Mrs. McKelvey and Mrs. Henry Wilkinson poured coffee, with Miss MacKinnon, Miss Florence Emery and Miss Gertrude McKelvey as assistants. By a happy coincidence the party fell on Mr. McKelvey's eighty-fourth birthday, and many good wishes and gifts were his. To the pleasure of his grand children and their guests he came down for a short time to look on at the gay scene.

Brig.-General King and Mrs. W. B. Shuttleworth King entertained at luncheon on Wednesday, when their guests were General Sir Archibald Macdonell, General W. B. Leslie, Col. Edwards, Col. Hill, Col. Bywater, Col. Munroe, Col. Reid, Col. Stone, Col. Cloutier, Lt.-Col. MacDowell, Lt. Col. Rierdon, Lt.-Col. Gray.

Mr. Harvey, Lower Union street, gave a bright little "send-off" party on Thursday evening for his nephew, Malcolm Mitchell, Alexandria, who has spent the holidays in town with his sisters, and Clifford Reeves, who is also leaving Kingston. Music and dancing filled in the hours, which were thoroughly enjoyed by the young guests.

Lady Macdonell received at the Commandant's Quarters, Royal Military College, on Thursday, when Mrs. T. E. Merrett, Montreal, received with her, and was welcomed to her old home by many of her friends who came in for a cup of tea in the cosy fire lit drawing-room.

Major and Mrs. Frederick Walsh, announce the engagement of their daughter, Bessie Geraldine, to Gerald Foster Denyes, M.D.C.M., youngest son of the late Sidney Denyes and Mrs. Denyes, Odessa. The marriage to take place the third week in April.

Several small teas and bridge parties have been given this week for Mrs. G. Smith, London, Ont., who has been the guest of Miss Imlach, George street.

Miss Florence Cunningham, Villa St. Clare apartments, gave a small tea for her guest, Mrs. Russell-Browne, on Tuesday.

Mrs. G. A. Graham, Barrie street,

Vocational Training Still Here.

It is learned that military vocational training will not be disturbed here by any changes in the D.E. C.E. The training is under the command of Capt. J. S. Macdonald at the old Collegiate building, where many disabled men are qualified for service in various branches of work that can be performed by them. The Joans department is also to be maintained as well as the employment bureau. The best interests of disabled men are wisely conserved here.
