Government Calls For Showdown on the Grand Trunk Situation.

Ottawa, April 5 .- Believing that the dilatory tactics of the Grand Trunk Railway Company in producing information asked for by the Grand Trunk arbitration board had the end in view of prolonging the present management of the railway, the government is asking a showdown.

The president of the road, Howard G. Kelley, has been in Ottawa, and an extensive correspondence has taken Counsel for James A. Stillman, New place with regard to these delays.
