Died in the West.
Word was received in the city on Monday of the death in Coronation, Alta., on Sunday, of John Dillon, a former highly respected farmer of Pittsburgh. The remains will be brought to Kingston for burial.

Decidedly Mild Winter.
Alex. Taylor arrived in Picton on Saturday from his winter resort, the Main Dicks. Mr. Taylor put in his first winter on the Dicks in 1886. Only once does he remember a winter as mild as this one at the Dicks.

Death of Mrs. Broughton.
A sad death occurred on Tuesday at the Pembroke General Hospital, when Mrs. Robt. Broughton passed away after a comparatively short illness. Some three weeks ago twins were born to her, and afterwards heart trouble developed, which could not be overcome. Mrs. Broughton was, in her twenty-seventh year and was a daughter of the late William Knott and Mrs. Knott, Pembroke.

To Ask $3 A Meeting.
Belleville city fathers think that laboring councillors are worthy of their hire and so purpose to secure remuneration of three dollars for every council meeting and for every committee meeting. A by-law will be submitted.

Took Wrong Medicine.
Miss Harriet Alice Eamer, a former Smith's Falls nurse, employed in an Estevan, Sask., surgery, took Columbian spirits from a bottle which had recently been re-labelled and died on the next day. She saw service overseas as a nurse and was born in Smith's Falls.

The First Grass Fire.
Sure sign of the approaching summer. Chief Armstrong and his men had their first run of the season to a grass fire. Grass on a lot at the corner of Arch and Deacon streets caught fire on Monday afternoon, and a call was sent in to the station, and the firemen soon had the blaze extinguished.

Village Gets $1,300.
The claims of Frankford against the township of Sidney have been satisfactory settled by the village receiving $1,300 as its share of the assets of Sidney township. Frankford became an incorporated village on January 1st last and the new municipality laid claim to a portion of the county machinery and so forth.

City Buys Land for Camp.
The Belleville Boys' Work Board has purchased on the north side of Moira Lake a five acre stretch of property owned by Mr. Danforth. This land has been used for camping by boys in charge of boys work. Secretary Angus Buchanan, Belleville, states that it is expected that 125 boys will camp there this summer.

A Queen's Man To Wed.
Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of one of Pembroke's successful young professional men, Dr. J. B. Galligan, and Miss Carmel George, Montreal, only daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. William George, Eganville. The ceremony will take place in Montreal on Wednesday. Dr. Galligan is a Queen's graduate.

Purchased More Land.
The Roman Catholics of Pembroke have bought the old William Moffat homestead, one of Pembroke's oldest and most substantial dwelling-houses from William Collie. It was built about forty years ago and parallels Trafalgar Road, facing on Front street. It will be used as a presbytery. A new church will be erected on adjacent land as also a separate school and a convent.

Arrived in the City.
Mr. and Mrs. M. Healey and daughter, Isabel, and Mrs. Healey's brother, Garrett Hughson, Toronto, arrived in the city on Sunday from Los Angeles, where they spent the past eleven months. Mr. Healey is a former employee of the Whig and his old associates in the office were glad to welcome him back. He will remain in the city for a couple of weeks renewing old acquaintances.

Will Work Two Weeks.
It has been arranged that the men who are doing the work on the Macdonell sewer will work for two weeks and will then be relieved by another gang of men. For some time the men have been working week about. The Board of Works departments will in the future only have to pay every two weeks and the men will be able to pick up some work during the time that they are idle.

Was Born in Kingston.
Capt. John Alward, who died at Toronto on Saturday, at the home of his daughter, Mrs. J. Marshall, 256 Gladstone avenue, was born in Kingston, and called as a captain on the lakes for many years. He was one of the oldest captains sailing on the lake and for twenty-five years was connected with the Toronto ferry company. Deceased was seventy-eight years of age. Two sons and two daughters survive.

Golden Wedding.
Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Gallinger have just completed fifty years of wedded life, the occasion being fittingly celebrated at their home in Beaconsfield, just outside the western limits of Cornwall. Mr. Gallinger is the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Harmondious Gallinger, Eamers Corners, and Mrs. Gallinger's maiden name was Mary M. Crites, she being a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Henry Crites, at one time of Eamers Corners.

Still in Custody.
The prisoner who was brought down to Kingston from Sandwich for the penitentiary without the necessary papers is still being held at the police station awaiting developments. A member of the Northwest Mounted police arrived in the city with the prisoner on Saturday, but as the constable did not have the necessary papers, the warden would not accept the prisoner, who it appears, was allowed out of prison on parole.

Second Convict: Naw! I don't wanna leave now. They tell me things are awful on the outside. Prohibition, Sunday Blue Laws, Profitteers and Uplifters.

LIGHT TREATMENT INDICATED

Patient: My scalp seems full of electricity and doctor, I'm losing my hair.

Doctor: The bulbs need tightening, madam, and certainly you need a new switch.

NOT LIKELY TO COP THE GOIN

"She's let it be known she's out to marry for money."

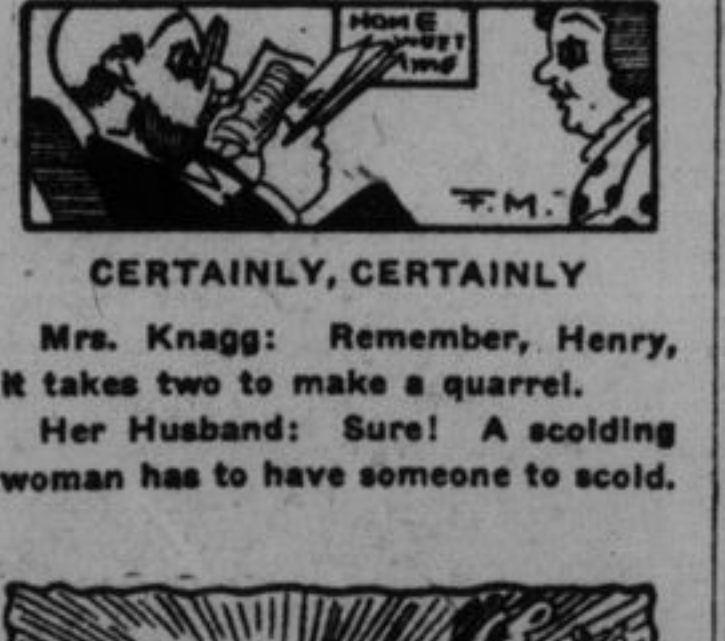

"I shouldn't think such a rumor would gain currency."

WHAT HE THOUGHT

"How do you like my new gown, hubby?"

"It's head and shoulders above any other gown you ever wore."

CERTAINLY, CERTAINLY

Mrs. Knagg: Remember, Henry, it takes two to make a quarrel.

Her Husband: Sure! A scolding woman has to have someone to scold.

POOR THINGS

Candle: There are those silly weths flirting with me again.

ACTED AS GUIDE
