"For over three years, I was confined to bed with Rheumatism. I treated with doctors, and tried nearly everything without benefit. Finally, I tried 'Fruit-a-lives'. Before I had used half a box I saw improvement; the pain was easier and the swelling started to go down. I continued taking this fruit medicine, improving all the time, and now I can walk about two miles and do light chores about the place."

He was in his seventy-ninth year and was born in Picton. He learned the printing trade in the office of the Picton Times in the fifties and afterwards worked for a time at his trade in Albany. Returning to Picton, he went into the baking business which he followed until he was appointed jailer for Prince Edward county. This position he held for thirty-five years, resigning shortly after the Whitney government came into power. Leaving this public position with a record for efficiency, he embarked in the grocery business in which he continued until last fall when he sold his business and retired. His wife, Katharine Harris, died about twelve years ago. The surviving members of his family are Mrs. P. S. McLean, W. E. Patterson, Jr., and Frank Patterson, all of Picton.
