FARMERS SEEKING HELP

Applications Made to the Ontario Labor Bureau in Kingston.

"Farmers who live in Frontenac and the surrounding counties are much in need of help," was the statement of the local representative of the Ontario labor employment bureau to the Whig on Wednesday morning. The representative stated that for the past week or so he has been very busy trying to get men to take positions on farms. On Tuesday he was able to get four men who had farm experience to accept.

At the present time the local office has 142 applications from Ontario farmers who are anxious to get help. Of that number about thirty reside in the Kingston area. The farmers who live near Kingston have some advantage in getting men as they can drop into the local office and if there are any men on the waiting list they can get them immediately and take them out to the country. It is stated that the wages paid by Frontenac farmers run from $20 to $45 a month and board.

Western farmers are offering $50 a month to a man who will commence work on April 1st. If the men remain until the end of November they will receive $60 a month.

Farm helpers who accept these positions and have to go by train only have to pay 2½ cents a mile. The Ontario government pays the balance.

SERGT.-MAJOR COLDHAM RETIRES FROM R.M.C.

He Will Take Over the "Sunny Range" Farm Near Sydenham.

Sergt.-Major Fred J. Coldham, instructor engineering department, Royal Military College, retired from the service on Saturday to take up farming. Mr. Coldham has been a highly efficient official and has spent fifteen years in the military service with the Imperial and Canadian governments. He has purchased the "Sunny Range" farm near Sydenham, and recently took over possession. His ingenuity and enthusiasm that he has always carried into his work assures success. He expects, while carrying on general farming, to devote considerable time to poultry raising, a branch he has been devoted to for years with satisfactory results.

NAPOLIS-O'BRIEN NUPTIALS

Took Place in St. James' Chapel on Tuesday Evening.

The marriage of Jean Spencer O'Brien, youngest daughter of Timothy O'Brien, 65 Markland street, and Bernard Richard Napolis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Napolis, Gananoque, was solemnized in St. James' chapel at eight o'clock Tuesday evening. Rev. Father Kearey officiating. The couple were attended by the immediate relatives, and after the ceremony a dainty wedding supper was served at the home of the bride's family. The room and table were beautifully decorated with roses and carnations, and in an adjoining room were exhibited numerous valuable gifts from relatives and friends, among them being a cabinet of silver, the gift of the bride's father.

The bride was attired in a smartly tailored brown tricolette suit with hat to match and carried a bouquet of roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Carmel O'Brien, a sister of the bride, wore a navy blue tricolette suit and a corsage bouquet of pink roses. Edward O'Brien, a brother, was the best man.

The groom's gift to the bride was a necklace of pearls with platinum setting and diamond stud, to the bridesmaid a platinum brooch set with pearls and amethysts, and to the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links.

The happy couple left at midnight for New York city, and after the honeymoon they will take up residence in Port Hope, where Mr. Napolis is an operator for the Grand Trunk Railway.

Arrange For Rally.

At the meeting of the executive of the local union of Christian Endeavor, held at the Y. M. C. A., on Tuesday evening, final arrangements for the rally, to take place in Zion church, were made. Rev. Mr. Scott, a returned missionary from Korea, will speak on that occasion.

It was decided to recommend to the different societies that the local union act under the Kingston Religious Education Council. The union will take in the young people's organized bible classes, and both organizations will work together.

Miss Myrtle Leishman, vice-president, presided at the meeting.

Wanted At Sturgeon Falls.

At the request of the police at Sturgeon Falls, the local police on Wednesday morning, took into custody Norman Hughes, wanted at Sturgeon Falls, to answer to a charge of theft of $250. He is being held at the police station, awaiting the arrival of an officer from that place. Constables Vernon Campbell and Frederick Clark made the arrest.

Pussyfoot Johnston Coming.

Pussyfoot Johnston lost an eye in England, but he won the hearts of the English people by his manliness. The leading London dailies spoke of him as being a splendid sport. He will speak in the Opera House on Friday evening.

A branch of the Catholic Women's League is being organized in Kingston.
