THE Responsibility

There are several reasons why our sight service bears a good reputation. One of them is that we don't depend on others for any part of it. Our work is not planned by others; nor do others carry out our plans. From eye examination to finished glasses it is KEELEY Service. We are vitally interested in the result of our work and to insure success do all of it ourselves.

Closing Down Diamond Mines.
Jagersfontein, South Africa, May 7.—There has been further retrenchment in the diamond mines here and underground work has ceased. It is estimated that the employees will shortly number only sixty Europeans and 800 boys, compared with 900 and 8,000, respectively, before the war. The men who are leaving will receive two months' pay. Many families have already left the town and business is at a standstill.

Told In Twilight

(Notice—Hereafter, the Whig, in common with other papers all over Canada, will make a charge of $1 for inserting an engagement, marriage or reception announcement.)

To get the Whig's society writer, telephone No. 857w., 189 Earl street.

Mrs. R. E. Kent and Mrs. W. H. Mance, gave a very charming luncheon at the Country Club on Friday in honor of Mrs. George K. MacLeod, St. John, N.B. The air, fragrant with the perfume of spring, the trees in their new dress of pale green, and the gloriously bright sunshine, made the little club house by the Rideau a delightful spot. The luncheon table was gaily decked with deep brown and golden tulips from the famous gardens of "Somerset House" and the guests were: Lady Macdonell, Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Douglas Young, Mrs. Constantine, Mrs. James Cappon, Mrs. Iva Martin, Mrs. R. W. Rutherford, Mrs. Norman Leslie, Mrs. Frank Strange, Mrs. Campbell Strang, Mrs. J. T. Whiting, Mrs. F. W. Hill and Miss Mabel Gildersleeve. After luncheon there was bridge with three tables in play.

On Thursday evening in Grant Hall the graduating class of nurses of the Kingston General Hospital will receive their diplomas at the hands of Mrs. Arthur Meighen. The large class will wear their service uniforms of snowy white, with their crisp linen collars and caps, and their skirts the regulation height of seven and a half inches from the ground, giving an air of smartness, truly professional. The graduation of the class of the year is always an event of interest in Kingston, and this year many notable people in town for convocation will be present. On Friday evening the intermediate class of nurses in training will give a dance in honor of the graduating class in the nurses' home.

Mrs. T. Callander, Barrie street, was the hostess of a bridge of three tables on Wednesday, in honor of Mrs. George K. MacLeod, St. John. The rooms were lovely with spikes of pink snap-dragon, and the prize-winners were Mrs. Frank Strange and Mrs. Campbell Strang. The other players were Mrs. MacLeod, Mrs. J. B. Carruthers, Mrs. Iva Martin, Mrs. T. D. R. Hemming, Mrs. Douglas Young, Mrs. R. W. Rutherford, Mrs. John L. Whiting, Mrs. James Cappon, Miss Frances Sullivan and Miss Mary Callander.

Miss Watson, Sydenham Hospital, who left today for her home in Iroquois, was one of the first of the Canadian nursing sisters to go overseas, where she served with distinction in France. She was on the staff of Queen's Hospital in the early days, and has always been beloved by patients and staff, who are glad to know that her home will be in Kingston in the future. She was the recipient of several handsome gifts from the patients and staff.

Miss Edith Rayside, R. R. C., superintendent of the Nursing Sisters of the Dominion, a Queen's graduate who served with distinction in France during the Great War, will be the guest of Principal Ross and the Misses Ross, Alfred street, for Queen's festivities.

Principal and Mrs. Bruce Taylor will entertain at dinner at the Principal's Residence, on Wednesday, for some of the notabilities in town for convocation.

A picnic among the younger set of girls and some of the cadets from the Royal Military College who have just finished writing their examinations, is arranged for this afternoon.

There will be a reunion dinner of Queen's Alumni, which will include the graduates from 1890 to 1894, on Wednesday evening next at the Frontenac Club.

Mrs. W. F. Nickle, Earl street, will entertain at dinner on Wednesday

GIRLS! WHITEN SKIN WITH LEMON JUICE

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin. Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

evening for Mrs. Arthur Meighen, Ottawa, and Miss Helen Reid, Montreal.

Mrs. Havelock Price, Sydenham street, entertained at tea on Friday for Mrs. S. H. Clarke, Entrance, Albt. who is the guest of her parents, the Warden and Mrs. J. C. Ponsford.

Queen's Conversations on Tuesday evening, and Queen's Alumnae tea on Wednesday afternoon, will be two of the large social events of Queen's week.

Mrs. Arthur Meighen will come from Ottawa next week and will be the guest of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Nickle, Earl street, for several days. Mrs. W. M. Goodwin and her little son sail for Scotland today and will return to Canada in September.

Mrs. Henry Weir and Miss Lena Weir, who have spent a year and a half in England, have returned to town and are settled in their apartment on King street. Mrs. Guelph Mayor, Toronto, is visiting them at present.

Col. Birdsall, who spent the week-end in town at "Somerset House," has returned to Birdsall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Mowat, Ottawa, will be with the Misses Mowat, Johnson street, for the events of next week at Queen's. Mr. Mowat is one of the trustees.

Stuart Rayside, Bank of Nova Scotia, Montreal, will come to Kingston for the reunion of the old Queen's graduates.

Mr. and Mrs. George Lappage, who have been the guests of Mrs. Roy Menzies, Alfred street, for a few days, returned to Toronto on Friday.

Dr. Farley, Trenton, will be with Dr. and Mrs. W. T. Connell, Arch street, for Queen's week.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Stirk left for Moose Jaw on Friday, taking Mrs. Egerton Van Luven with them for a visit.

William Henderson, J. W. C. Moore, London, Ont., and W. J. F. Hendrie, Hamilton, who were in town this week, were at the Chateau Belvidere.

Mrs. J. M. Machar, William street, will leave for Niagara Falls shortly to spend a month.

Mr. Heep, Winnipeg, will be a Queen's graduate in town next week. Miss Katherine Drummond, who has spent the winter in Bermuda, returned to town this week and is with Mrs. J. Drummond, Albert street.

Principal W. L. Grant, Upper Canada College, will be in town for the events of Queen's next week, and will be with Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Macdonnell, University avenue.

Mrs. Bert Pense and Miss Margaret Pense, will not return from Toronto until next week.

Hugh Bryan, M.A., principal of Renfrew Collegiate Institute, will be one of Queen's distinguished graduates in town next week.

Miss Mollie Cartwright came down from Ottawa on Friday and will spend the week-end with Miss Cartwright, at 37 Union street. On Monday they will both go out to "The Maples," for the summer.

Dr. L. T. Stevens, Clifton, Ill., will come to Kingston for Queen's reunion on Wednesday, bringing nine other graduates of the college on old Ontario's strand, with him.

Rev. J. Potter, Montreal, will be with Mrs. William Jackson, Upper William street, for convocation.

Col. Genet, Col. Orde, Capt. Melville and Capt. Churchwood, who were in town this week at the Chateau Belvidere, have returned to Ottawa.

Miss Jessie Polson came up from Montreal today, to visit her sister, Mrs. Harold Davis, King street.

Miss Edith Leeder and Mrs. Frances Robinson, Kingston Victorian nurses, are in Ottawa attending the annual convention of the Victorian Order.

Miss Luella Conboy, Oso, who underwent an operation in the General Hospital, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. George Dart, 251 Division street, for a few days.

Miss Daisy Dart, nurse-in-training in the Fort Hope General Hospital, will be the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Dart, Division street, during the next week.

Miss Genevieve Horton, nurse-in-training at the General Hospital, went to Brockville for the week-end. Lt.-Col. D. Douglas Young is in New York.

Mrs. E. R. Van Luven, Alfred street, will go to Toronto on Sunday for a short visit.

Mrs. Alexander Mackie arrived in town from Pasadena, Cal., on Thursday, and is en pension at 44 Clergy street.

Dr. Janet Weir, Hartford, Conn., will be the guest of Mrs. J. S. R. McCann, Wellington street, for Queen's festivities next week.

Dr. Moffatt, Utica, N.Y., will be a Queen's graduate in town for the big reunion.
