Quiet-Honorary Degrees Are Conferred.

Grant Hall was well filled Wednesday afternoon for the proceedings of Convocation Honorary were conferred and the recipients of these degrees made short addresses. Ideal weather prevailed for this big event of the year in college circles and the scene in this magnificent hall was a beautiful one. The lady graduates wore handsome bouquets of flowers, Quite a large number of out-of-town people were present. The proceedings of convocation were very quiet-in fact so quiet from the stuents' standpoint, that it brought forth a comment from Principal Tay lor, in the closing address of the afternoon, when in a jocular way, he informed the visitors that they must not go away with the idea that the tudents were as well behaved on all ccasions as this.

· College yells, which have made Grant hall ring on former occasions. did not punctuate the "doings," but at the close the students broke forth and made up for lost time.

Rev. Dr. Herridge, Ottawa, conducted the opening devotional exercises, and Principal Taylor, who presided and conferred the degrees stated that he regretted very much announce that Chancellor E. Beatty had found it impossible to be present. He called upon Vice-Principal Dr. Watson, to present the can- TWO YOUTHS MISSING didates for honorary degrees.

In presenting Miss Helen Reid, Montreal, for the degree of Doctor Police Asked to Look For Lads of Laws, Prof. Watson paid a warm tribute to the work Miss Reid carried on for the Canadian Patriotic Fund, and also told of the part she had played in other lines of work.

Following the conferring of the degree, Principal Taylor called upon Dr. Reid to make an address,

The latter said she appreciated very much the honor which had been conferred on her. It no doubt had been given her on account of the service she had rendered during the war. The speaker said that the war had left a lesson for all, and she referred to the loss in the great conflict of, so many nation builders. The speaker also referred to the work in which she had been engaged along children's welfare, and public health work. In connection with public health, she made an outstanding remark, to the effect that during nineteen months the United States had been in the war, they lost 65,000 men but during the same period the country had lost 450,000 babies under five years of age, because the children could not get proper food and ceived the degree of Doctor of Laws from the university and in accepting the honor, he spoke of the many brilliant men sent out by Queen's. In receiving the honor he did not take it as a tribute to himself, but rather as a tribute to the cause he was working for.

Dr. James Cappon, the veteran member of the college staff, who retired some time ago, was to have been honored with the degree of Doctor of Laws, but he is out of the ity, and the degree will be conferred later on, probably at the convocation to be held in the fall

The degree of Master of Science was conferred on James J. Denny, Nipissing Mine, Cobalt, a native of Kingston, educated in the schools of this city, and a graduate of Queen' University. He was tendered an ovation by the audience, and in accept ing the honor, paid warm tribute to Queen's and for the part the university had played in his early training. He also took occasion to refer to the splendid work accomplished by Prof. Nicol and Prof. Miller under whom he studied.

Before the proceedings were brought to a close, Principal Taylor had a few words to say to the graduates, wishing them "God speed." He said he did not wish for them as "easy road," but he wished for all of them plenty of good hard work.

"But the university wishes you well," said Principal Taylor. "And I hope that in a few years from now you will come back and hold a reunion and raise the roof."
