May Affect An Eye.
Dr. George Browne, Picton, met with a painful accident while pumping up a tire at the garage. It is thought the tire being thin caused it to burst. The rubber shot into the doctor's eye, and as yet the doctors are not certain whether the right eye will be restored.

About Hens
A correspondent writes to the Whig asking what are the city by-laws regarding the keeping of poultry within the city limits. Any person, according to the law, is permitted to keep poultry, upon condition that their chickens or other fowl do not become a "nuisance" to neighbors or a menace to the health of people.

eronto and Napanee. After the business of the evening was concluded the Odessa brethren royally entertained the visitors to a very tasty lunch. Bro. Peters, Odessa lodge, was unanimously chosen district deputy grand master for another term.

dressed in a suit of navy serge with hat to match. The groom is a prosperous farmer. Mr. and Mrs. Simpkins left on a trip to Utica, Syracuse and Watertown, N.Y. They will reside at Elginburg.

St. Paul's Burying Ground
Much credit is due Canon W. F.
FitzGerald for the interest he has taken in keeping the burial ground of St. Paul's church so neat. In this old burying ground lie the remains of some of Canada's illustrious dead, including the late Sir Richard Bonnycastle and Archdeacon John Stur-art. The late Capt. John Gaskin performed a fine service in having the churchyard cleaned up some twelve years ago, and the late Col. Henry R. Smith also took an interest in the work and collected money for the purpose among relatives and friends of those long deceased, who are buried in the old plot.

POVERTY A DISEASE.

By CHARLES GRANT MILLER
(Copyright, 1921. All Rights Reserved by United Feature Syndicate.)

A large part of the poverty of the world is disease, the result of centuries of bad living, bad thinking and sinning.
We know that poverty is an abnormal condition because it does not fit any human being's condition or give him happiness. It contradicts the promise and the prophecy of the divine in man.
There is plenty of evidence that abundance of all that is good was man's inheritance and that if he claims it stoutly he will have it.
If it were possible for all the poverty-stricken people in the world to firmly turn their own backs on their dark and discouraging environment and bravely face the light and cheer, and to resolve that they are done with poverty and a slip-shop existence, this very resolution, persistently kept up, would soon revolutionize civilization.
Many think they are doing their level best to get away from poverty, when they are not making one-tenth the effort possible.
The love of ease has wrecked more careers than anything else except dissipation; and laziness and dissipation usually go together.
In a strong character there are certain traits that are irreconcilable with preventable poverty. Self-reliance and manly independence are foundation stones in strong character.
We sometimes find these high qualities in the man who is poor because he is victim of misfortunes and disasters he could not control.
But the man who is poor because he has no courage, no faith in himself, no higher ideal than a hand-to-mouth existence willfully lacks the stuff that progress is made of and is so much less a man. He is voluntarily a quitter, compared with him who, day by day, develops powerful mental and moral fiber in energetic, persistent efforts to gain a competency and make the most of himself.

LUX
Shampoo
is a real luxury

Perfect cleanliness and a refreshing stimulant for the scalp are the best of all means for ensuring hair health. In other words—try a LUX shampoo.

Dissolve a tablespoonful of LUX in a gallon of very hot water, whip into a creamy lather, and then temper with cool water. Rub well into the scalp—you'll enjoy the invigorating, cleansing sensation.
Then rinse thoroughly in fresh tepid water and dry the hair, in the sun if possible, never with strong heat.

Lux is sold at all grocery, departmental stores, etc.

A handy recipe book "The Care of Delicate Clothes" is gladly sent free on request.

in the 102nd Infantry battalion and in 1917 was wounded by shrapnel in the right arm. He was invalided to Warburton to Retain Lease Subject to the approval of the surrogate the two actions brought by Orrin DeWitt against the executors of the Staples estate and against William H. Warburton, to whom the executors made a lease, have been settled. Warburton is assured possession of the Thousand Island House and can stay his five years unless the hotel is sold. Approval of the creditors of the insolvent estate is necessary and will probably be obtained, as some of the funds of the estate are to be paid to DeWitt because of the lease he holds. The settlement was on a basis of about $5,000, it is said, subject to certain contingencies.

Speaks in High Terms Writing in the Presbyterian Witness, a member of the Presbyterian W. M. S. says: "It was with feelings of gladness and satisfaction that we saw the cloak fall upon Mrs. J. D.
Walker, Toronto (a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Robertson, Kingston), who throughout the seven years of the provincial life has been an efficient officer at the president's right hand. Mrs. Walker is well fitted for the duty and privilege that is hers. Scarcely is there a branch of the work in which she has not seen service, not a part of the country that she has not visited in its interests. Add to this her strong personality and gracious manner and Ontario surely has a president parexcellence."

Lake of Bays
Huntsville, Ontario, 146 miles north of Toronto, is the gateway to the Lake of Bays region. This territory is surpassingly beautiful, comprising some of the loveliest water stretches in this country of lakes.
The Grand Trunk trains connect with a flotilla of lake steamboats serving all the territory. Those in search of health will find the purity of air and general surroundings most beneficial, being at an altitude of 1,000 feet above the sea level, there is no hay fever. Perfumed breezes blow across the lakes. You may bathe in cool waters, enjoy a game of golf, take boating excursions and catch fine bass and trout. Speckled trout, salmon trout and black bass are plentiful in these waters, while salmon trout and speckled trout abound in the surrounding lakes. Good hotel accommodations to suit all pockets.

ing you all about it write to J. P.

Sticks with Cheese Board There was a large attendance of salesmen at the Frontenac Cheese Board on Thursday and the quantity of cheese offered was large for the beginning of the season, 537 boxes, all colored. Some of the buyers said that they had intended shipping direct to Montreal throughout the season and selling at the co-operative auction sales, but after three weeks' trial became dissatisfied with the results. One man said: "I was simply trimmed and I am going to stay with the board where I can do business with friends I have always known and who have always treated me squarely. No more co-operative shipments for me." Another salesman was pleased over his satisfactory results on the board this season despite the fact that the market was down. He figured that by taking advantage of the best price offering he just made on one shipment alone $200 more than another salesman who failed to appreciate the conditions and the real value of the opportunities offered by the board.

OWNERS OF STEAMSHIPS DECIDE ON OPEN SHOP

Takes Stand Against Signing Agreements With Any
Union.

New York, May 20.—The executive and wage committee of the American Steamship Owners' association adopted resolutions setting forth that hereafter the organization would have no signed agreements with any sea-going labor union.
The announcement was made by H. H. Raymond, president of the association, shortly after the general strike committee of the Marine Engineers' Beneficial association had left for Washington, presumably to confer there with Secretary of Labor Davis on a proposal for settlement of the nationwide strike.
Mr. Raymond asserted that the action of the owners assured protection in employment and preference in promotion to engineer officers who stood by their ships or who signed anew with the American merchant marine.

The owners still have a contract with the deck officers' organization, lasting until August. Agreement with engineers, firemen and stewards expired May 1, when an attempt to introduce a 15 per cent wage cut brought on the strike.

it in an omelet.

The port of London authority is spending over $2,500 a year on cat's meat for the large army of cats now required to deal with rats and mice.
The authority is the largest cat-owning body in London.

The largest nugget of gold ever found is said to be the "Welcome" nugget, discovered in 1858 at Bakery Hill, Ballarat, Australia. It weighed 2,317 ounces, and was sold for about $53,000.
