John Wills, a native of New Boyne, was buried there on Saturday last. About fifty years ago he was engaged in the harness business in Frankville. Later he moved to the west and had resided for some years in Winnipeg, where he conducted a real estate business. He never was married.

The new consolidated school, Malorytown, is now ready for the painters.
 A lot of folks imagine that a reporter can say what he thinks. But they have another thing coming.

Theatrical

At The Strand.
 Bertram Burleigh, who plays the leading role in Hugh Ford's Paramount production of "The Great Day," which will be shown at the Strand theatre, is an athlete and boxer as his performance in that picture proves. Confronted by four thugs in the cafe of the Guardian Angel in Paris, all of them clever boxers, he knocks them down with the same cleverness that Bill Hart or Douglas Fairbanks exhibit in their pictures. Director Ford insisted upon realism in the fight and blow for blow with all the weight of the men behind them, were delivered in the scrimmage. One of the fighters was Prof. Bill Curzon, boxing instructor of the Middlesex Hussars and the Honorable Artillery Company.

Miss Mignon Telgmann, the well-known conductor of the Strand orchestra, received a great ovation last evening after having rendered "Cavatina."—Advt.

At The Allen.
 Constance and Norma Talmadge made their debut in public as singers at the big "Actors' Fund Benefit Performance, given at the Poinciana hotel, Palm Beach, Fla., recently under the direction of Daniel Frohman.

The Talmadge sisters spent a month at Palm Beach, Norma enjoying a vacation and Constance making extorsions for "The Love Expert," the new First National photoplay, written by John Emerson and Anita Loos, which will be shown at the Allen theatre, to-day.

Fulfilling their promise to Mr. Frohman to take part in the Florida Sextette number they not only sang popular songs, but also did a couple of dance numbers.

It was a new triumph for the Talmadge sisters, who demonstrated that their versatile talents were not confined solely to the silent drama.

Constance was at her best in the dance numbers, while Norma excelled with her voice.

"It was lots of fun," commented Constance, "and it made the taking of scenes for 'The Love Expert' a great deal easier. This was one instance where the combination of business with pleasure worked out in a most satisfactory way. After taking part in the benefit show I felt more like working before the camera. It seems to give me more pep."—Advt.

MAN CLAIMS SALVAGE ON A STOLEN BOAT

A Knotty Case For Kingston's Legal Marine Experts to Settle.

To have your boat stolen and after a lengthy search to find it in possession of another who refused to give it up unless he was paid salvage, was the misfortune of a man named Donaldson, who was seeking legal advice on Friday. He said that he left his boat secured to a wharf with an iron chain and it could not break loose. When he went to get it that was gone, and he was positive that it was stolen. Finally after much search, he located it, but the man who had it claimed that he found it adrift and refused to give it up until he was paid salvage. Magistrate Bradshaw, to whom Mr. Donaldson applied, referred him to the Kingston lawyers, all of whom, he said, were distinguished in marine laws.

Tribute to Kingston Press In Address at Grant Hall

In his address to Grant hall on Thursday night, in introducing Sir Campbell Stuart, Canon W. F. Fitzgerald paid a warm tribute to the press, and gave particular praise to the two Kingston newspapers, stating that he had read just as good editorials in these two newspapers as he had ever read in the London Daily Mail.

SPORTING NEWS

Two Sunday School Games.
 Two good games were staged in the Sunday School baseball league at Victoria Park on Thursday evening. In the first game, a senior fixture between Young Hebrews and St. Luke's, the Young Hebrews emerged victorious, the final score standing 19 to 11 in their favor. V. McCullough umpired, with Mr. Pound as base umpire.

The second game was a girl's fixture with St. James' and Princess Street Methodist nines engaging in combat. After a close struggle, St. James' girls emerged victors with a score of 25 to 23. This was one of the best girls' games this year.

It is surprising what an interest is taken in baseball in the city. At these two Sunday School League games in Victoria Park last evening there was almost as good an attendance as one would find at the senior games at the cricket field. Baseball certainly has a strong hold on Kingston.

IS CANADA BEING MADE A DUMPING GROUND

For Thousands of Soldiers Physically Defective?—Statement is Doubted.

Ottawa, May 20.—In the commons yesterday afternoon, Hon. Charles Murphy directed attention to a reported speech by Dr. Paige at the public health convention in Toronto to the effect that thousands of soldiers, physically defective, were being given a clean bill of health, and let out of England so that Canada might be made a dumping ground for them.

"Has the government any knowledge of this, and what steps are being taken?" queried Mr. Murphy.
 Mr. Calder doubted if such a statement had been made by Dr. Paige. "If such a condition did exist," he added, "I think my attention would have been called to it, and this was not done. I will take the first opportunity of inquiring."

BASEBALL AT SYDENHAM

High School Team Defeats the Kingston C.P.R. Players.

Sydenham, May 19.—An exhibition baseball game was staged here on Thursday afternoon, when the Napanee team met the local seniors. The game proved fairly fast and interesting, considering the small amount of practice both teams had had. For the first half of the game neither side scored a run, but after that Sydenham began to get their bearings, and tallied five scores before the game ended. Napanee also began to bat a little better, and two runs were marked up to their credit. Thus the score reads, with the local nine winners. Koen went the route for the home team, and had a little the edge over Locke, who was on the mound for Napanee.

Wednesday afternoon saw an exhibition game between the C.P.R. baseball team from Kingston and the high school nine. When the scoring ended, it stood 15 to 10 for the collegiate boys, who are fast developing. The C.P.R. bunch tried hard to win, but their opponents batted the ball, often for extra bases and brought in the runs. Stafford and Young did the pitching for the local boys, while Titrow and Watts twirled for the others.

Mrs. C. J. McPherson, Ottawa, returned on Wednesday after visiting
