Save Your Eyes

Indigestion

It is not generally known that a large percentage of the trouble is caused directly from the eyes. An eye strain will rob the nerves of the digestive organs of their full ability to function causing apparent indigestion. We can tell if it is your eyes causing or not.

GIFT FOR PASTOR'S WIFE

Mrs. W. T. G. Brown Remembered by the Ladies' Bible Class.

The members of the senior ladies' bible class of Sydenham street Methodist Bible school, gathered on Thursday evening and made a presentation to Mrs. W. T. G. Brown in the form of a sterling silver card case. Miss Hattie Wilton read an address of appreciation while Mrs. Saunders made the presentation.

During the evening a number of toasts were given. Rev. W. T. G. Brown proposed the toast "Queen Mary" and Mrs. R. S. Graham responded. The toast "Our Guest" was proposed by Mrs. Lyon and Mrs. Brown responded. During the course of her remarks she thanked the members of the class.

The toast "Our Pastor" was proposed by E. P. Jenkins and responded to by Mr. Brown.

The toast "The President of Our Friendly Circle" who so ably filled her position was proposed by Mrs. Connell and Mrs. Saunders, responded. Miss Hattie Chown gave a reading and Mrs. Prager and Mrs. Hawkey sang.

It was twenty years ago Thursday since Queen Mary passed through Kingston. On that occasion William Bowen, baker, made an angel cake for the royal visitor. Last evening to mark the occasion the same baker made a similar cake for the Sydenham street church event.

EVANGELISTIC ADDRESSES

Mr. Emblen Concludes Services in Bethel on Sunday.

Evangelist James Emblen gave another helpful message in Bethel church on Thursday evening, and based his remarks on the story of the potter, as recorded in the book of Jeremiah.

"We are created in the image of God," said Mr. Emblen, "but Satan comes along and puts his sin mark upon us and the vessel is marred. We are under the impress of the enemy heel, and we can blame ourselves for we too often lay ourselves low to the enemy. There are three things that mar the vessel and hinder God. The first is the clay containing some foreign substance, and sin is such if we but place ourselves in the hands of the Divine potter he will mold and shape our lives for us. Second hindrance is stiff clay and self will is such. If we are self-willed God finds it hard to mold a life when that one will not surrender the will to God. Third hindrance is unyieldedness and the more we fail to yield the harder we make it to yield. Every time you say no to God the harder you make it to say yes. God can take our sin-marred lives and make a new vessel if we but yield ourselves to Him.

Friday evening Mr. Emblen will tell his life story and will conclude his special services on Sunday evening.

SCOTS VICTORIOUS

St. Andrew's Defeats Queen Thursday, 8 to 7.

In the junior series of the Sunday school baseball St. Andrew's won out over Queen street Methodist at Victoria park last night with a score of 8 to 7. The game was unusually good and the same close scores and active competition would be in good place among the seniors. There is a rumor around that Queen may protest this game as the age of one of the St. Andrew's players is under question. As yet the rumor has not been confirmed. The teams:

St. Andrew's—Strange, Gourlay, Borland, Saunders, Lennox, Grimason, Boyd, H. Gourlay and Barrett.
Queen—Christmas, Kings, Bearance, Allen, Graham, Bruce, Ryan, Williams and Warren.
Umpire—George Pound.

The Diamond Queen.

The opening scenes of this adventure serial are laid in and near New York city. Later the scene shifts to the diamond country of Africa and its surrounding jungle land. The melodramatic incidents themselves, as well as the intermediate stretches of the story, are better than common. Don't fail to see the first episode of this eighteen week serial, which will be shown at the King Edward theatre, tonight and Saturday, 27th and 28th.—Adv.

STAGE DRIVER FOUND DEAD AT HIS HOME

George Hartwell Passed Away Suddenly at Westport on Thursday.

George Hartwell, about fifty years of age, was found dead in his home, at Westport on Thursday morning. According to information received here he lived alone. Heart trouble is given as the cause of his death.

Mr. Hartwell had been engaged for many years in driving the stage from Westport, to Godfrey, three days a week, and was employed by William Mitchell. When he did not turn up to take out the stage on Thursday morning, an investigation was made, and Mr. Hartwell was found dead at his home. He was unmarried, widely known, and very highly respected.

PEOPLE ARE CONVINCED VERONA WAS SET AFIRE

Two Provincial Detectives Are Still Working on the Case.

Many people living in Verona are more than ever convinced that the cause of the Verona fire was by no means an accident. On Thursday, when a representative of the Whig was in that village, he learned from the people that they were sure the place was set on fire. Since the time the construction took place, two provincial detectives visited the place and made a very close investigation as to the cause of the fire which almost swept the village away.

Although it is only eight days since the fire the people whose property was burned are getting right down to business at rebuilding, and intend to make their village look better than ever. Ernest Amsy, who was the heaviest loser by the fire, is rushing his construction work along in great style. He stated that he expected to have his building erected in thirty days' time. It will be three storeys, 66 feet long and 36 feet, 8 inches in width, and will be sheeted with brick.

The people living in that section of the country have come forward and are doing everything in their power to help those who lost homes and places of business. It is stated that some of the men at work on the reconstruction are giving their services without remuneration. On Thursday about twelve farmers were busy drawing sand.

Quite an Annoyance

One of life's little trials is occurring nightly on Sydenham street, between Princess and Queen streets, where motorists park their cars while they attend the movies. The residents claim that after the shows are over the owners walk downtown for refreshments, arriving back about midnight. The uproar in starting the cars is being complained of by nearby residents, who have even had insult added to injury by being asked to keep their eyes on the cars of unknown motorists.

TO DECORATE THE GRAVES

The 21st Battalion Club Will Carry Out Function on Sunday.

At a meeting of the 21st Battalion Club, held in the sergeants' mess of the P.W.O.R. at the armoueries on Thursday evening, it was decided to carry out the decoration of the graves of deceased comrades in the cemeteries on Sunday afternoon next. The members of the club will assemble at St. Andrew's church corner, at two o'clock and motor first to St. Mary's cemetery, where one comrade has been buried. Captain (the Rev. Father) Nicholson has been requested to conduct a service. The party will then proceed to Cataract cemetery, where the remains of seven comrades have been interred. A service will be conducted there by Major (the Rev.) W. E. Kidd at the soldiers' plot, after which the individual graves will be decorated with flowers.

The relatives of the deceased soldiers have been asked to attend, and relatives and friends of present members of the local club of the battalion will be present. Comrade J. G. Murray, physical training instructor at Sydenham hospital, is the chairman of the committee in charge of all arrangements.
