Ponies Defeat St. Regis 5-3; Best Game This Year As Yet

—In the best game seen here so far this year, St. Regis nine of Deferiet, N.Y., went down to defeat before Joe Daly's bats before a large crowd at the cricket field Friday evening, with score 5 to 3. The visitors were on the grounds and ready to start fifteen minutes before the appointed hour, much to the joy and approval of the fans.

Klinghofer, who defeated Ponies in Deferiet a few Sundays ago, was again on the mound for St. Regis and had the locals guessing for a long time until they finally began to find him, beginning in the last of the fifth.

Johnny Evans Nipped a Few.

Even then he did not lose hold very much. He is some twirler all right.

Derry heaved for the Ponies and did it well. His support was steady throughout. Derry did not start out to do anything sensational but pitched a steady game.

Jack Evans nipped quite a few at the plate and the fielding and throwing done by Ponies is evidenced by the fact that out of eleven hits taken from Derry only three runners crossed the plate.

Several unusual incidents marked the game. In the first inning Bruce Thompson went out on the Park avenue sidewalk and picked off Van Slyke's fly. In the second Twigg nabbed a hot liner from Klinghofer which was expected to knock him over. In the last of the same inning Klinghofer made a pretty jump for Little Bits.

Cherry was again the leading batter for Ponies on Friday.

There has been no reduction in the price of ice-cream cones.

"Gee, if I was pitchin' to Cap. Thompson he'd have us scared before I started," says one of the kids around Ponies' bats.

"We'll go after the game tomorrow and beat the heads off these birds." — One of the visiting players.

"Fair and Warmer" evidently believes in the back-to-the-land proposition. From September till May is some disappearance for a well-known race-horse.

A Cordial Invitation To Disease

This is an apt description of Constipation. It's an unnatural condition to begin with—but it's dangerous because it leads to indigestion, fills the system with poisons, brings on anaemia. You don't need a purgative, you don't want to weaken the system by a harsh gripping medicine—what you need is mild, natural stimulant to the bowels. You get just what you need in Dr. Hamilton's Pills, which tone up the liver, restore the bowels to perfect action and—positively—end constipation. You'll feel tip top after regulating your system with Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Good for young and old—a real family medicine. 25c. all dealers, or The Catarthozone Co., Montreal.

Cherry's rap at the ball. Coyne made a pretty running catch on Reid's fly deep into left centre in the fifth.

In the first of the eighth, with Van Slyke on second and Chase on first, Derry balked, advancing both runners a step. It has been some time since the balk play has been seen here.

Twigg batting first in the last of the seventh, worked Klinghofer for five fouls before he grounded to Reid.

Ponies secured all their runs in the fifth on a dink with Saunders, Bill Evans, McNeill and Jack Evans crossing the plate, Bill Evans doing the trick twice.

In the last of the fifth, after the bases were fairly well loaded and one run in, Klinghofer complained about the condition of one of the balls.

However, George Sullivan has seen a lot of them and he could not find anything the matter with it so it remained in the game.

In the first of the ninth, Ruller also found something wrong with the decisions on his batting but George had heard the story before and he was ordered to play ball. Those boys should not talk so disrespectfully to Mr. Sullivan. It's dangerous as well as unavailing.

The teams:
Deferiet—Reid, 2b; Ruller, ss; Brouty, 3b; Van Slyke, cf; Chase, 1b; Clifford, c; Jenkins, 1b; Payton, rf; Klinghofer, p
Ponies—Twigg, 3b; Thompson, rf; Daly, 1b; Cherry, cf; Saunders, 2b; W. Evans, ss; Coyne and McNeill, lf; J. Evans, c; Derry, p; Gallagher, x.
X—Batter for Coyne in the fifth.
The Scoring: R H E
Deferiet 00100020—3 11 2
Ponies 00002200x—5 8 2

Ralph de Palma is still figuring in the speed books. Broke another record at Indianapolis the other day.

Toronto University has a lacrosse team and McGill a cricket aggregation but neither of them have "African golf" players like the boys from Queen's.

The quarters are getting more scarce every baseball match. Loosen up there fellows and the guy with a job and no home should give double to help out the rest.

In the Davis Cup matches at Hendon England, Spain and England are having a close run. The Spaniards can certainly play tennis.

Ruth is lengthening his lead in the home run race between himself and Kelly. The contest now stands 13 to 8 in his favor, but Kelly may do something sensational before the year is out.

It is rumored in tennis circles that some of the best French players slated for the contest in New York on July 23rd have refused to come because prohibition will interfere with their training on account of the lack of the wine to which they are accustomed.

Americans Out Now.

With the defeat of F. J. Wright, of Boston, by Bernard Darwin, of Woking, on Thursday, the American chances for lifting the British Amateur Golf Championship have disappeared. The Americans started in with a flourish and carried all before them, only to go by the board, one by one, and some of the most famous of them at the hands of comparatively unknown British golfers. British idols of the golfing world were also shut out, and the next set of heroes will have different names.

In the politician's new bonnet you will find the same old bee.

PRINCE AS A POLO PLAYER

He Showed Up in Fine Form in a Practice Match.

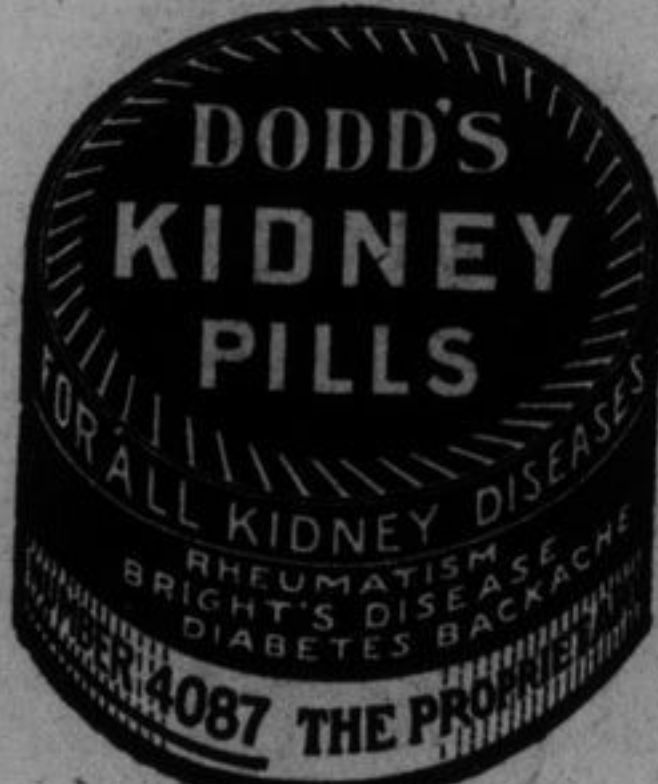

Polo players practicing at Hurlingham, England, for the coming international matches, recently watched the Prince of Wales swinging a mallet with no mean effect. Judging from letters received here the future king might develop into an internationalist if he were to devote sufficient time to practice atop a pony.

At present, although he is considered a novice, he is a good polo player. He is handicapped in one stroke in the same class as Prince Henry, his brother. That he has the pluck and endurance, however, is shown by the fact that in a recent game the Prince of Wales played four periods and enjoyed to the utmost the rough scrimmages and hard riding.

In spite of the unfair rules laid down by Johnny Kilbane, feather-weight boxing champion, Cleveland, the little English iron man, Jacks, stayed ten rounds with him, though Kilbane secured a newspaper decision. Jacks met Frankie Fleming in Toronto last night.
