WAS CHOSEN PRESIDENT HOLIDAY EVENTS SPOILED

The Honor This Year Comes To a Kingston Pastor.

REV. W. S. LENNON

Rev. W. S. Lennon, R.A., pastor of Queen Street Methodist church, Kingston, was elected president of the Montreal Methodist conference in session at Cornwall. Hearty congratulations will be offered on his part by the conference, 159 votes going to him, 30 to Rev. C. D. Baldwin and 19 to Rev. W. T. G. Brown.

The new president was installed by Rev. Robert Smith, the retiring president, in a brief address, to which the Rev. Mr. Lennon made a suitable reply.

The laymen have a banquet tonight, at which Prof. R. O. Jolliffe, Kingston, will be a speaker.

The last time the conference met in Cornwall was twenty-eight years ago. Two of the older ministers at the conference who remember the other meeting say the conference has not changed as much as might be expected. One is Rev. Wm. Philip, father of Rev. J. H. Philip, Rosemount Church, Ottawa, and another is Rev. A. A. Radley, Ottawa. Dr. Philip has been in the church forty-nine years.

Rev. E. Eardley, coming from the British West Indies to take charge of Douglas Church, Montreal, was accepted as a member of this conference. The vote was a rather close one.

As showing the feeling of the delegates on the subject of such transfers, it was later moved by Rev. Messrs. Lennon and Curtis that when ministers are proposed for transfer into this conference from other conferences the transfer committee be authorized to carry on the necessary correspondence, so that a corresponding transfer out may be effected to equalize the staff available for the stations to be named.

Rev. Dr. S. P. Rose, Montreal, was elected president of the Theological Union, and Rev. A. A. Radley, of Ottawa, secretary-treasurer. Rev. J. R. R. Cooper, Ph.D., was appointed lecturer for next year.

Rev. Reuben Calvert was elected conference reporter.

Rev. E. I. Hart, D.D., Montreal, asked to be superannuated on account of ill-health. The request was granted.

These candidates will be ordained and received into full connection on Sunday. Foster Hilliard, R. D. Mullin, George F. Lalonde and Pasquale De Florio.

The memorial service was for the late Rev. C. S. Deeprope, D.D., Rev. J. C. Antliff, D.D., Rev. John Armstrong and Rev. Thomas Harris, all of whom died in Montreal during the past year.

The annual pastoral address to the conference was read by the retiring president. Reference was made to the world war and the spiritual and economic and social conditions which followed, constituting the problems that called for solution by the church. Religion in the home and a revival in the church were urged. He said, "The need of trained workers in the Sunday schools was mentioned. The Province of Quebec, the president said, had launched out on a doubtful experiment with legislation that temperance people could not approve."

Brief reference was made to church union, the view being expressed that the good of the world and the welfare of the church spiritually should be the object of such union rather than any economic or other motives.

Owing to the Rain—Horse Races Postponed Till Wednesday.

The celebration of June 3rd in Kingston was spoiled by the weather. It began to rain about 6 a.m., and soon there was a steady down-pour. When people rose expecting to take part in or witness the programme of games and horse races at the fair grounds, they hoped for the sun to appear. There was a let-up in the rain about noon but it was not until 3 p.m. that the weather became really fine.

There were many horses at the fair grounds entered for the races, not less than seventeen from one outside place. When it was seen that the track was too heavy and no prospect of the sun appearing in time to dry it up, a meeting of the owners took place in the stables, and at the conclusion, E. J. Metcalfe, secretary of the Thousand Island Short Ship Circuit, announced that it was decided to definitely postpone the races until Wednesday next, the club to provide free oats and hay to all outside horses. The base ball match was postponed until six p.m. at the cricket field.

The out-door events at the Royal Military College were postponed today, but an assault-at-arms was held in the gymnasium during the afternoon and in the evening a smoking concert, when Gen. Gunn presented the prizes and cups won in the different sports during the term.

Today the outdoor sports were held and also the inspection of the cadets, by the visiting boards, in cavalry, infantry, artillery drill and in engineering. The sports were both mounted and on foot.

ART OF RAISING MONEY

A New Method Introduced by the W.C.T.U. on Thursday Last.

The members of the W. C. T. U. thought of an original way to raise money for the very excellent work of the Travellers' Aid, which was to send invitations to teas held on Thursday in various parts of the city in the form of tiny aprons in the pockets of which were instructions to measure your waist line "not too tightly," and to put as many pennies as the inches marked upon the tape line into the little pocket. Mrs. W. T. G. Brown, William street, had many of those thus invited in her tastefully decorated rooms, where she received with Mrs. W. Muirhead and Miss H. L. Chown. Miss F. Chown and Miss DeWitt took the aprons at the entrance, and after they were robbed of the contents of their pockets they were sold. In the tea room, where pennies and a bridal wreath were the flowers used for decoration. Mrs. Frank Anglin, Mrs. Fred Chown, Mrs. D. A. Shaw and Mrs. Oliver Chown took turns in presiding over the silver tea service, with Mrs. Harvey Chown, Mrs. Elmer Smith, Mrs. W. M. Campbell, Miss Deacon and Miss O. Chown as the tea assistants. One of the pleasures of the afternoon was a chat with Mrs. Brown and a peep at the lovely gifts recently received from the W.M.S.

Mrs. S. F. V. Campbell, Albert street, was another hostess who opened her house in this good cause. Here Mrs. James Leslie was at the door and Mrs. F. W. Coates took the aprons. Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. J. W. Waddell and Mrs. Fraser received the guests in the charming rooms, decked with flowers, roses, bridal wreath and a great jar of yellow iris. During the afternoon Miss Lorraine Leslie, Miss Nora Ellsbeck and Miss Lily Saunders played popular music. The tea room was exceptionally attractive with ferns, the tea table being centred with a big silver bowl of golden June lilies and bridal wreath, and pale gold and white columbine filled the small silver vases, with the table of polished walnut as a background. Mrs. I. G. Bogart, Mrs. Henry E. Day, Mrs. A. E. Knapp and Mrs. Matthew Davis poured tea. Miss Phyllis Coates, Miss Lily Saunders, Miss Elsie Gardiner, Miss Bertha Bassan and Miss Vera Van Luven assisted them to disburse the delicious home-made refreshments. Mrs. Gardiner and Mrs. Harold Day were among the ladies who helped to make this pleasant affair the success it was.

Mrs. George McCallum, Brock street, was still another hostess to whom the small aprons were brought, and receiving with her were Mrs. W. S. Lennon, Mrs. G. A. Bateman and Mrs. W. W. Chown. Miss Ruth Skinner and Miss Lucie McCallum admitted the visitors, who deposited their well-laden aprons in a basket in readiness. The rooms were gay with sprays, and at the dainty tea table, with its centre of pink and white flowers in a large silver basket, with more in small silver vases. The silver tea equipage was presided over by two ladies in turn, Mrs. Lyons, Miss Elmer Lake, Mrs. La Flair and Mrs. W. S. Lennon, assisted by Mrs. J. Fair, Mrs. Malcolm Macdonald, Mrs. L. Williams and Mrs. W. H. Warren.

The plan of the W. C. T. U. was most successful, $185 being raised, and the people who know most of Mrs. Charles Wright's work as travellers' aid, are indeed glad of the result of the undertakings.

On June 1st St. Columbus' Cathedral, Pembroke, was the scene of a fashionable wedding. Marie, youngest daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Eugene Bedard, and Pierre Beaubien, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Beaubien, Outremont, Montreal.

They were "Stung"

A sale of uncalled for parcels was held at the customs examining warehouse this week, and bidders secured some strange things. Some of the ladies, who insisted upon buying packages whose contents they could not guess, were badly stung, when on opening their purchases they found them to contain cakes and other eatables that had been sent to Canadian soldiers overseas three or four years ago and returned. The contents were only fit for the incinerator.

A Much Prized Spade

George Nicol, of this city, has in his possession the nickel-plated spade that was used by the Marquis and the Marchioness of Lorne in 1879 when they planted two trees in front of the Arts building at Queen's university and the marchioness laid the corner stone. The trees were supplied by Mr. Nicol's father and were secured at Catarauqui. The spade was given to the donor of the trees.
