Told in Twilight

The first dance of the season, held at the Yacht Club, on Wednesday evening, was an earnest of pleasant days to come, when the members spend many happy summer afternoons and evenings in the pretty club house, with its cool verandah and excellent dancing accommodation. This week, the weather was delightful, the music of Trener's orchestra splendid and the turnout of the members large. Refreshments were served upstairs at the dainty supper table, orchid with peonies, lillies and ferns, where Mrs. W. Casey, Mrs. W. R. Givens, Mrs. R. F. Segsworth and Mrs. W. K. Macnee had the arduous task of pouring coffee. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. Ross Livingston, Dr. and Mrs. Ernest Sparks, Prof. and Mrs. Manley Baker, Miss Mabel Gildersleeve, Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Hill, Miss Nora Macnee, Miss Marjorie Williams, Miss Clara Farrell, Miss Mary Jones, Miss Flora Maclean, Miss Bertha and Miss Vivian White, Mrs. James Miller, Miss Doris Barclay, Miss G. McKelvey, Miss Helen and Miss Ruby Driver, Miss Myrtle Hewitt, Miss Doris Donnelly, Miss Beth Small, Miss Helen Meek, Messrs. Arthur Dalton, E. C. Gilversleeve, J. Courtland Elliott, George Kirkpatrick, Lt.-Col. D. Douglas Young, Hew Duff John Murray, Ross and Jack Emery, Orin Carson, George Bedell, Robert Gibson, Albert Carruthers, H. C. Fair, Capt. Lee, Douglas Chown, Cadet Sawyer, W. Casey and W. K. Macnee.

Mr. and Mrs. William Birmingham gave a delightful ball at "Otterburn," on Wednesday evening the first of the many June gatties. Red and white, the Royal Military College colors, were used for decoration in the house, the color scheme being carried out in white flowers and red peonies, and on the spacious grounds and on the wide verandah were Japanese lanterns, shedding their soft light. Red and white candles and red streamers were on the supper table in the dining room. Mrs. Birmingham received and the daughters of the house, Miss Katie and Miss Nora Birmingham, with their visitors, Miss Katherine Connolly and Miss Marjorie Bennett assisted her. The invited guests were Miss Allison Macdonell, Miss Margaret Hemming, Miss Catharine and Miss Isabel Minnes, Miss Doris McKay, Miss Edith Carruthers, Miss H. Tofield, Miss Doris Browne, Miss H. Gardiner, Miss Jean Dargavel, Miss Yvonne Hughes, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Kitty Torrance, Miss Marion Ogilvie, Miss Helen Nicol, Miss Phyllis Spencer, Miss Florence Emery, Miss Laura Kilborn, Misses Aline and Cecily Rutherford, Miss Mary Taylor, Misses Lucy and Gwendolyn Waddell, Miss Barbara Bidwell, Cadets Mackenzie, Graydon, Birmingham, Ballantyne, Hutville, Sturgeon, Hardman, Walker, Gillespie, Keiter, Molson, Macdonald, Crowe, Holt, MacLeod, Parent, Evans, DuMoulin, Sutherland, Loomis, Watson, Murphy, Elliott, Hamilton, Biglow, Alshum, Ferry, Zimmermen, Cooke, Price, Ambrose, Ogilvie and Taylor.

Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Gardiner, who so kindly threw open the hospitable doors of "The Chestnuts" for the clergy and lay delegates of the diocesan synod, on Wednesday afternoon, were rewarded by the many expressions of gratitude for their gracious hospitality and the rooms were filled with merriment for a cup of refreshing tea after the very strenuous work of the day. Mrs. Ben. Tell, Bedford Mills, received with Mrs. Gardiner in the library, which was gay, as was the long drawing room, with pink peonies. The ladies present included the presidents of the various diocesan organizations and the cathedral societies as well as the wives and daughters of the visiting clergy and Mrs. E. J. Bidwell, the wife of the Bishop of the diocese. The tea table in the dining room was centred with a huge punch bowl set in pale pink tulle and filled with lovely pink peonies. Here Mrs. W. Fitzgerald and Mrs. J. W. Jones made tea assisted by the daughter of the house, Miss Harriet Gardiner, Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Jean Dargavel and Miss Phoebe Smith.

Mrs. Norman Leslie entertained at luncheon at the Country Club on Thursday in honor of her niece, Miss Yvonne Hughes, who is visiting here. The other guests included Mrs. W. R. P. Bridger, Mrs. R. J. Lach, Mrs. Howard Inghale, Mrs. W. G. Beeman, Miss Cecily Rutherford, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Allison Macdonell, Miss Harriet Gardiner, Miss Margaret Hemming, Miss Edith Carruthers, Miss Katie Birmingham and Miss Marion Ogilvie.

Mrs. C. E. Taylor entertained in her charming new home on King street for a motor trip to Toronto, taking Miss Nora, Martin and Miss Nora Minnes with them.

LINOLEUM RUGS

Linoleum Rugs Safeguard the Children's Health

The kiddies' playground is the floor—and how important it is to their health to have that playground clean.
Linoleum Rugs make a most sanitary floor covering—no germs can lodge on their clean hard surface—no cracks collect the dust or dirt.
It's so easy to keep them spotless—the use of a damp cloth or mop makes them as clean and fresh as new.
Safeguard your children's health and make your housework lighter this summer by replacing your worn and soiled carpets with clean Linoleum Rugs.
Important—Linoleum Rugs are moderately priced and are now costing less than for several years. Call on your favorite dealer and ask to see his stock; he will gladly show you many pleasing designs.
Look for the strong canvas back when buying, and remember that Linoleum and Linoleum Rugs are made in Canada, and cost less than imported goods.

Easy Washing

You'll hardly believe it—until you try it. Just soak the clothes in the rich, pure, cleansing Rinso suds overnight (or for three hours) and then rinse them thoroughly either in warm or cold water. They will be as clean as though they had been boiled and rubbed.

RINSO
Not a cake soap, or a chip soap, but new and better—fine granules so rich in soap that they loosen the dirt as the clothes soak.
If you have a washing machine—
Soak the clothes overnight in the usual Rinso way. The cleansing suds loosen every bit of dirt. In the morning operate the machine for a few minutes and the clothes are perfectly clean—even the most soiled spots.

GIRLS! BLEACH SKIN WHITE WITH LEMON

Squeeze the juice of two lemons into a bottle containing three ounces of Orchard White, which any drug store will supply for a few cents, shake well, and you have a quarter pint of harmless and delightful lemon bleach. Massage this sweetly fragrant lotion into the face, neck, arms and hands each day, then shortly note the beauty and whiteness of your skin.
Famous stage beauties use this lemon lotion to bleach and bring that soft, clear, rosy-white complexion, also as a freckle, sunburn, and tan bleach because it doesn't irritate.

Freckles

Now is the Time to Get Rid of These Ugly Spots.
Do you know how easy it is to remove those ugly spots that no one will call you freckle-face? Simply get an ounce of Othine, double strength, from your druggist and a few applications should show you how easy it is to rid yourself of freckles and get a beautiful complexion. The sun and winds of March have a strong tendency to bring out freckles, and as a result more Othine is sold in this month. Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine, as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove the freckles.
