The Salvaging Of Civilization

THE PROBABLE FUTURE OF MANKIND BY H. G. WELLS

I ask the reader to detach himself from these present conflicts of natural political of political parties, and of the class war, as completely as he can, then to play such a part in them regardless of any other consideration as may be most conducive to a wide-thinking, wide-ranging education upon which we can base a new world order.

FOR SALE BY:-

R. Uglow & Co.

Save Your Fyes

is a condition of the eye, which causes severe head aches and eye pains to people who have apparently normal vision, but the vision is only sustained by severe straining of the nerves and muscles, causing pains. Our examination and glasses will correct the defect.

"The House of Better Glasses" Opposite the Post Office

Phone 699 - - - Kingston

BONDS AND DEBENTURES C. S. KIRKPATRICK

36 Clarence Street. Tel, 568w.

Yellow

Green Gold

"Orange Blossom"

Wedding Rings

Marriage Licenses.

Kinnear & d'Esterre

JEWELERS 100 PRINCESS STREET

Automobile Repairing ELLIOTT & WILLIAMSON

Phones: Shop 1039. Res. 1537J.

Thousands reported to be dying

"Gifts That Last"

"SINCE 1840"

The evolution of the Nordheimer Piano covers a period of several generations. A study of that evolution would prove a revelation of leadership in the advancing development of musical crafts-

Remarkable not alone for its rich, sonorous tone, but also for its beautiful design and responsive, sensitive touch; the Nordheimer is a rare combination of all those qualities which make for satisfaction. It has acquired a reputation through the years, that amply justifies its claim to Leader-

Enquire as to the esteem in which the Nordheimer is held in any home where one of these fine instruments has been installed. The enthusiastic response will convince you that highest value is indeed assured by the name-

Nordheimer

R. J. RODGER

132 Princess St.

White Canvas Footwear

We are facing what promises to be a big season for White Canvas Footwear, in view of which we have made the necessary preparation.

White Canvas Footwear in New Cross Straps, One and Two Straps, Pumps and Oxfords

Tennis Shoes and other lines of suitable Footwear for all outdoor Sports and Recreation s.

Allan M. Reid SHOE STORE

THE MAGUIRE APPEAL CASE

(Continued from Page 1.) ducing and harboring, allenation, and criminal conversation, is loss of con-

Mr. Cunningham's Contention. Mr. Cunningham, for the respondent, contends that the gist of the action of criminal conversation is not merely loss of society, affection, comfort and services of the wife, but is the invasion of the plaintiff's exclusive right of intercourse, entitling him to additional compensation for the insult to which he has been submitted by the corruption of his wife, and he relies for this proposition on the cases of Bailey v. King, 27 A.R. 703, at 712 and 714, in appeal 31 S.C.R. 338; and on C.V.D., 8 O.L.R. 308, at 316, in appeal, 12 O.L.R. 24.

The precise point raised here was not, I think, raised in any of these cases, but a perusal of the opinions in these and the Butterworth case will show that there has been much difference of judicial opinion, and that the law is not as clear and well ettled as it might be. In the Bailey case, Moss, J. A., at page 712, says:

"It has long been the law that if a wife is separated from her husband without his consent, and while separate is guilty of adultery, the adulterer is liable to the husband. This is upon the ground that the action does not rest upon the deprivation of the wife's affections, society and services, though this may properly be shown in aggravation of the damages, but upon the injury done to the husband by the defilement of his wife, the invasion of his exclusive right to marital intercourse, and the consequences resulting therefrom." while Armour, C.J.O., at p. 714, says:

away a wife is essentially different versation, and so say you all." from the cause of action for criminal conversation with a wife. The formband and for damages for his tempor- wrong done, on the proper basis? ary loss of consortion, and every day she is procured by her enticer to re- the trial judge seems to me to be in main away from her husband a new accord with the opinions of the learntort is committed by the enticer."

J.O.), reviewed the authorities in- the whole damages might have been

society, comfort and assistance of the | meaning of the verdict, wife, but that it includes also the to which he has been subjected by the corruption of his wife."

Each a New Wrong. The question in the King case was whether or not the Statute of Limitations applied, and the court held that each act of adultery was a new wrong, and afforded a new case of

In the C. v. D. case the court held that although the plaintiff's wife had left him and had been for ten years separated from him, during which time she had obtained a divorce in the United States, which the court held to be invalid, and had married the defendant, yet because the plaintiff had not abandoned her, and had not relinquished his right of consortion, the plaintiff had a good cause of action, but in neither judgment was it, I think, necessary for the decision, or was it expressly decided that the gist of the plaintiff's action was not loss of consortion.

this direction was right.

This direction would indicate that his home in Brockville. the basis of the plaintiff's loss was consortion, and not invasion of the plaintiff's exclusive rights of injury to his dignity and feelings, and that, I think, is the view expressed by Mc-Cardie, J., in Butterworth v. Butter-

As I read that case, the learned tion involves a loss and damage, but premises have already been started that proof of adultery may not be and no doubt Mr. Sutcliffe will make proof of loss, because it is not an it one of the most attractive spots in action in trespass, but an action of town. trespass on the case, requiring proof of actual loss, and that it is necessary to the proof of actual loss to prove loss or injury to consortion, but he points out-that there are two elements of damage, (1) the actual attend anniversary service. value of the wife to the husband, and (2) proper compensation to the hus-

Trial Judge's Instruction. In the case at bar, the learned trial judge instructed the jury, as follows: "Well, gentlemen, I think perhaps I was a little wrong in the way I put to you the question of the amount of the damages. I rather indicatedor, if I did indicate, I was wrong in so indicating-that you could give damages by way of punishing the defendant. You do not do it for punishment. What is said is that the grounds on which you give damages are, the actual value of the loss of the wife; that is one thing, if you can fix it in money. As I say, it is very difficult to do that. Two, compensation to the husband for the injury to his feelings, the blow to his honor, and the hurt to his family life Those are the things that I said you could not measure in money; at least, I said you could not measure in money the love, services and society of a wife. However, it has been recently stated by a very eminent judge that you may take into consideration the compensation to the husband for the injury to his feelings, the blow to his honor, and the hurt to his family life. How you get at it I do-not know; nobody can tell, but you get at it the best way you can.'

and the jury's verdict reads: "Juror: The jury find in favor of the plaintiff on both counts, fifteen thousand dollars; five thousand dollars for alienating the wife's affections, and for criminal conversation, ten thousand dollars...

"The registrar: Gentlemen of the jury, hearken to your verdict as the court records it. Verdict for the plaintiff with fifteen thousand dollars damages, of which five thousand dollars is for alienation of the affections of the plaintiff's wife, and ten "The cause of action for enticing thousand dollars is for criminal con-"Jurors, Yes."

To my mind, in this case it makes er is brought on the assumption of no difference what the gist of the acthe wife's innocence, for the purpose | tion is. The real question is: Have of procuring her return to her hus- the jury assessed the damages for the

On this point, the instruction of ed judges in both the Canadian and In C.V.D., Meredith, C.J. (now C. | the English authorities, and while cluding the King case, and at page awarded as resulting from the adultery, the whole could not have been "It is apparent from these obser- awarded as resulting from alienation. vations, I think, that the view of To accede to the appellant's contenthe learned President was that the tion would be to assume that the gist of the action of criminal conver- jury awarded damages for the alienasation is not merely the loss of the tion twice. This, I think, is not the

Reading the verdict along with wrong done by the intolerable insult | the charge, I am of the opinion that the Jury intended to award $5,000 for the alienation and necessary loss. of consortion, and $10,000 compensation for the husband for the injury to his feelings, the blow to his marital honor, and the serious hurt to his matrimonial and family life.

I would dismiss the appeal with

Meredith, C. J. O. Maclaren, J. A. We agree. Magee, J. A.

BRAKEMAN INJURED AT OUTER STATION A Brockville Man Fell From an

Engine There. While switching was in progress at Kingston Junction at 12.45 o'clock Friday morning, Robert B. Anderson, Grand Trunk brakeman, 118 Perth street, Brockville, fell from the tender of a locomotive and striking his In the C. v. D. case, the trial judge, shoulder against a rail, fractured his Anglin, J., told the jury that if they shoulder bone. Anderson had cut the came to the conclusion that before engine off eastbound train No. 494 the adulterous intercourse the plain- and had given the signal to proceed tiff had totally and permanently given | ahead. As he was riding on the back up all the advantages to be derived side step of the tender, he slipped from the society of his wife, he was and fell, striking his left shoulder not entitled to recover, and the divis- on the rail and breaking the bone. ional court were of the opinion that Dr. Morrison, Kingston, set the fracture, after which Anderson went to

J. A. Sutcliffe Buys "Firhurst" "Firhurst," the one time beautiful home of the late W. H. Austin and family, Trenton, has changed hands, The portion of the property and residence owned by Lieut.-Col. Bywa er has been sold to J. A. Sutcliffe.

He and family are moving i judge was of the opinion that aliena- this week. Improvements to the

I.O.F. Notice.

All Foresters will meet at Calvary church, Bagot and Charles streets, tomorrow evening at 6.45 o'clock to

You can't always tell. Many a man and for the injury to his feelings, who comes from Boston uses bad

TWICE TOLD TALES

News of Kingston

TEN YEARS AGO.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO

Three Kingston men were hurt in he wreck of the G. T. R. International Ltd., at Newcastle, Ont. A purse of gold was presented to Rev. Thomas E. Bourke on the oceasion of his departure from Brock

The census takers have almost finshed their work in Kingston. The Fire committee recommends The First Congregational church him. Mr. Smidt has sold all of his that the new ladder truck be built choir had an enjoyable trip down the interests in Trenton.

by James Laturney at $1,175. The Yacht Club is orranging for day. ome fine races this season. Chief Armstrong has already respected from their homes, leaving testing to read. Note the splendid ceived a coronation souvenir from a notes that they were off to seek their suggestions they carry for the busy Rideau street residents are complaining of poor light down that way.

river in the yacht Wherenow yester-

Two young city lads have disap-

$1.00

CHILDREN'S WHITE CANVAS LACED BOOTS

Real leather soles—a well-made Shoe and a good quality of real White Canvas; worth $2:00 and $2.25.

CLEARING AT .....

•(Sizes 4 to 7½ and 8 to 11)

Abernethy's Shoe Store

Campers and PicknicersSupply

Our stores are well stocked with everything you will need for Eating and Drinking on your outings.

C. H. Pickering

The Unique Grocery and Meat

Market, 490 and 492 Princess Street. Phone 580.

Dr. Bell's Veterinary Wonder 50,000 one dollar ($1.00) bottles Free to horsemen who give the Wonder a fair trial. Guaranteed for Colic, Inflammation of the Lungs, Bowels, Kidneys, Fevers, Distemper etc. Send 25c. for Mailing Package etc. Agents wanted. Write your address plainly.

DR. BELL, V.S., KINGSTON, Out.

Furniture-Freight-Baggage TRANSFER

Phone 1776J S. WHITEMAN 210 QUEEN STREET

Britain sets aside $600,000 for subsidies to civil aviation.

HOME-THIS STORE SPECIALIZES IN HOME OUTFITS For years, we have made a careful study of the requirements of young couples starting out in Housekeeping. We give you the bentfit of our long experience.

THE LEADING UNDERTAKERS

Special For To-night 65c Pair

COLORS:-White, Black, Navy, Grey, Brown and Green. MEN'S SILK HOSE -Sizes 91 to 11.

RONEY'S, Princess St.

Dr. H. A. Stewart Dental Surgeon

Wishes to announce that he has resumed his practice, cor. Wellington and Princess Streets. Phone 2092. Dr. H. A. Stewart

Dr. J. L. Stewart

Barley-Morrison Wedding A pretty wedding took place at the nome of Charles Mills, Bloomfie.1, when Marion Isabel, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Morrison. Trenton, was united in wedlock to Sam Barley, Trenton, son of J. Bar:ey, of C.N.R. The bride who wore a blue tricotine suit and tea roses was given away by her uncle, Mr.

To Settle A Fortune. Prof. and Mrs. Smidt left Trenton Inspector Kidd igports that the Tu-cday for Toronto. From there standard at Victoria school has gone they go to Campbelleville to Mrs. Smidt's brother, to spend the sum-"Heaven,' is the nickname for mer at Crawford's Lake, near Milton Victoria school It rather reflects in | On 12th July Mr. Smidt expects to the rest, whose appellation is left to leave for Alsace, France, to settle an unexpected fortune coming to ronto, wearing a blue suit and roses.

Mills. Mi-s Eva Kingstury, D.se-

attended the bride.

Advertisements Are getting more and more interin wood or steel-to rent or for

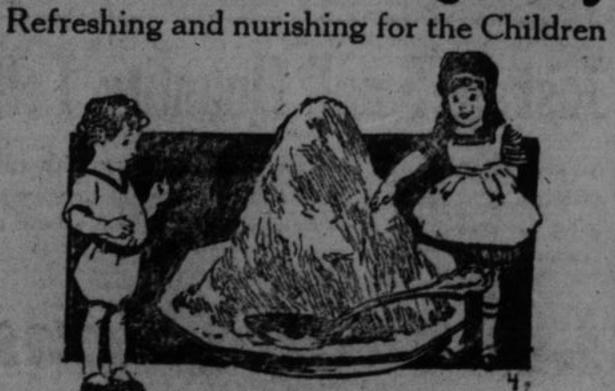

F. B. MeNAMEE

FOR SALE GOOD, CLEAN COAL

Corner Ontario and West Sta-

A. Chadwick & Son New location:

Ice Cream of Quality

MASOUD'S

238 Princess St. Phone 980 Kingston, Ont.