1876 R. Martin, 176, St. Andrews. TO SAFEGUARD THE PUBLIC

Pickpockets and Other Crooks Will Be Under Close Watch During the Fight.

Plans for safeguarding the public 1882 R. Ferguson, 171, St. Anat the Dempsey-Carpentier fight in Jersey City on July 2nd were perfected yesterday at a conference between Mayor Frank Hague, Commissioner John Bentley of the Department of Public Safety, Police Chief Richard T. Battersby and Fire Chief Roger Boyle. Six hundred policemen will be in the arena and one of their duties will be to see that seats are not occupied by persons who do not own them. Ushers will exclude from each section persons who do not have the proper ticket stub. Every usher will have policemen ready to help him.

Several hundred police and fire department reinforcements from neighboring cities will be on hand to help the Jersey City policemen and firemen. Vacation periods were arranged so that no policeman or fireman would be on vacation from July 1st to 5th inclusive.

Mayor Hague said that every posformal, they were calculated to put 1903 Harry Vardon, 300, Prestwick sible means would be taken to pro-250 detectives will be present from other cities to assist Jersey City's 1906 James Braid, 300, Muirfield. 100 or more plain clothes men.
