FRONTENAC

BEDFORD MILLS

June 13.—A number from here attended the circus in Kingston on June 11th. Miss I. Good was a guest at Foster's Locks last Saturday and Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Laurence Botsford, Mrs. Brown and son were guests of friends in Charleston Sunday. Harold Eagle has completed his large boat and has it ready for service on the water. The funeral of the late Walter Waffle on Wednesday last was well attended. The service was held at the house and the burial took place in Westport cemetery. Much sympathy is extended to wife and children.

ARDEN

June 20.—Mrs. B. F. Dettlor is visiting her daughter at Napane. Mrs. Chas. Snider called on Mrs. H. Hannah and Mrs. William McGregor on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Burt Duff, Kitchener, have been spending two weeks at Charles Loyt's. G. Steele and family spent Sunday at Bordenwood. H. Harper and Stanley Hughes spent Friday evening at J. E. Clark's, Bordenwood. Mrs. George Nugent, also Mrs. William Loyt and John Kellar, motored to Oso on Sunday. Mrs. Harold Steele returned home Saturday from Dead Creek, where she had been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. Gurnsey.

SHARBOT LAKE

June 15.—A number of tourists have arrived at their cottages and a great many more are expected. It will be a busy place when the teachers arrive for the summer school. The young people are planning a picnic on one of the islands. Dr. George Fletcher and Dr. Jennie Allen, both graduates of the Chiropractic College, Toronto, spent a few days visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. John Allen. Mr. and Mrs. Burnham have arrived in the village to live. The young people had a farewell party at Mr. Harry Sargent's as the Misses Sargent were leaving to reside in Rochester, N.Y. They report having a good time. The painters are painting several of the homes in the village.

ARDOCH

June 16.—Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Lawrence, Miss Frances and H. Hermer, Canoto, motored through here last week. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Myers and family and the Misses Florence Keeley and Nora Hunt spent Sunday last in Flinton.

J. P. Watkins, the census enumerator, has completed his rounds. Capt. and Mrs. C. W. Seelye, Smithville, N.Y., are visiting at the home of the latter's brother, W. J. Fraser. Mr. and Mrs. M. Weber spent Sunday at J. Gunginger's. J. Derue and T. Love motored to Matawatchan for the last week-end. W. Weber, who attended the circus in Kingston on the 11th, has returned. Miss Annie Tooley has returned to her home in Plevna. A few from here anticipate taking in the picnic at Spaw Road on the 17th.

MURVALE

June 17.—The recent rains have improved the gardens and will also improve the hay a little. The grain will be very good. M. Sproule's horse ran away on Wednesday, and smashed the wagon. Although Mr. Sproule was thrown out, he escaped with a few bruises. Mrs. Kennedy, who is visiting at the home of Mrs. P. Kelly had a very bad attack of acute indigestion but is much improved. The Ladies' Aid met at the home of Mrs. Vancoughnet, on Wednesday afternoon. Max Purdy has improved his tenant house, by building a new porch. Mrs. M. Irish is with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. Murton, Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Davis Murton, Jr., also Miss Bessie, spent Sunday in Sydenham with friends. Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Thompson, also Mrs. George Thompson, Mountain Grove, at C. H. Emmon's. Miss M. Conway at M. Comming's. Miss Mil-sap, Odessa, at Mrs. D. Murton's, Sr. Misses Gladys and Marion Swerbrick at Mrs. B. Purdy's. A number from here attended the Sunday school convention at Glenvale.

LAKE OPINICON

June 15.—Most of the farmers of this vicinity have finished their spring work. The felspar mine at Rock Lake is in operation. Mr. and Mrs. C. Walten have moved in their new cottage. Mr. Spencer's new cottage is completed. They expect to arrive this week to spend the summer. William Guthrie took charge of the morning service here in the absence of Rev. Mr. Duffield. A number from here took in the circus in Kingston last Saturday. Mrs. Roberts and family, Kingston, is spending some time among relatives here. Frank Best and family spent Sunday at F. Smith's, Foster's Lock. Dr. M. Kerr at K. Darling's; J. Darling spent Sunday at Morton.

for there's no teacher like comparison. If our Clothes meet your approval our PRICES will MEET your PURSE. We have provided for this, and we're going to talk plainly. Do you seek a SPECIALIST for your AILMENTS, and an artist for your portrait? Yet forget that a specialist is needed for your Clothes. Do you consider Clothes a MEDIUM to PROTECT you, or do you want STYLE and QUALITY TOO, especially when it doesn't cost you extra? Forget price if you will, forget that Lion Suits are $10.00 to $12.00 less than elsewhere, and let's discuss the Clothes themselves. YOU CAN'T get a ROLL LAPEL from a ROLLING MILL. Our Clothes are well tailored by Canada's foremost tailors, and unless a store can tell you that whatever else it says DOESN'T MATTER. Get this straight, Sir, you're not selling anybody's PERSONALITY but YOUR OWN, and you need Clothes with personality in them. That's what we've got for you. The BEST FABRICS, FAULT-LESS TAILORING—every correct interpretation of fashion that artful designing can EM-BODY, and topping it all PRICES YOU CAN PAY. Now comparison is open to you.

EVERY STOOP IS A STRAIN

No wonder your Trousers are the first to wear out. The most economical man who ever lived used to look over his glasses to save 'em. That's going too far—economy is a great virtue, and hundreds of men get an extra pair of Trousers for the sane and sensible reason that they relieve the wear where the wear comes. It's just common sense, that's all. The extra Trousers habit is one you won't want a cure for if you ever contract it. Ask the chap who has.
