HIS LAST SUNDAY HERE

Rev. W. T. G. Brown's Farewell Sermons in Sydenham St. Methodist Church.

Rev. W. T. G. Brown, pastor of Sydenham Street Methodist church, who on Sunday completed four years of service and leaves for his new charge at Dominion Methodist church, Ottawa, this week, preached his farewell sermons on Sunday. At both morning and evening service the church was well filled. During the years that Mr. Brown served the Sydenham street congregation he has endeared himself to the hearts of all the people, as well as hundreds of other people, and his departure from the city is a source of sincere regret. During his pastorate the church has made great progress both spiritually and financially. The debt of $12,000 was cleared off, and $18,500 was raised for the Methodist National Forward Movement.

Mrs. Brown, wife of the pastor, has been a great assistance to her husband and has been a moving spirit in the women's organizations of the church. At the Sunday morning service Rev. Mr. Brown made special reference to the new pastor, Rev. R. H. Bell, High Park Avenue Methodist church, Toronto, who will commence his pastorate on Sunday next, as a man strong in body, mind and heart. He asked the congregation to welcome, receive and love him and make him as happy as he had been during his stay in Kingston. Mr. Brown stated that he had been as happy during the past four years as he had during the previous term of service in that church. He also made special reference to what a beautiful city Kingston was to live in and he was sure that the new pastor would receive a warm welcome.

At the morning service the pastor spoke of the loss which the church would suffer by the removal of Dr. Arthur Locke and John Alexander, two faithful members of the choir who were leaving for overseas during the coming week. The pastor preached forceful sermons morning and evening, speaking on the extension of the kingdom of God in the morning and in the evening from Hebrews xii, 1: "Seeing that we also are compassed about with so great a cloud of witnesses let us lay aside every weight and the sin which does so easily beset us." Special anthems were rendered by the choir and also vocal solos by Miss A. Pollard, Miss O. Woodman and Dr. H. S. Angrove. Dr. A. Locke rendered two violin solos.

At St. George's Cathedral. Preaching at St. George's cathedral on Sunday morning, from the text, "The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath," Rev. W. E. Kidd delivered a forceful sermon on the use of this gift of God to his people, as a means of rest and spiritual refreshment necessary to the complex nature of man. Our fathers were brought up to obey the call of their spiritual nature by observing the day set apart by God for his people since the creation, and the preacher believed that the power of our nation to stand and withstand, in the days of conflict, was largely the outcome of the following of the law God had made for the complete development of mankind, and felt the neglecting of the "day which the Lord hath made" would bring its own punishment to future generations, as surely as our fields suffer in harvest from careless tillage.

Arnold Fair sang "I Heard the Voice of Jesus Say," most sweetly during the offertory.

Father James' First Sermon. On Sunday morning, at the nine o'clock mass in St. Mary's cathedral, Rev. Father Martin E. James, the newly-ordained priest, delivered his first sermon to a very large congregation. The young priest is possessed of a rich clear voice, and delivers his sentences in a manner that ensures the rapt attention of his hearers, who were indeed more than pleased to hear this young preacher for the first time in his native city. Again at high mass he preached another sermon to a large congregation, winning golden opinions from all those who had the pleasure of listening to him. Altogether a bright and brilliant future seems to be assured for Father James.

Chalmers Flower Sunday. Yesterday was flower Sunday in Chalmers church, and the Sunday school children were prominent at the morning service. The church gallery occupied the front of the gallery, while a children's choir, fifty strong, occupied the choir loft and sang the hymns and choruses as only childish voices can. The remainder of the children occupied the front of the church. The pulpit and choir loft were banked with beautiful flowers, and the service was inspiring throughout. Rev. Dr. R. J. Wilson officiated, and delivered a short address in the form of a story. Rev. Prof. J. O. Watts assisted in the exercises. A solo was rendered by Ivy Gattermole, with children's chorus, and twenty members of the infant class rendered a very nice liturgical song. There was a large attendance of the congregation, who much enjoyed the children's service.

Flower Day Service. Queen Street Methodist Sunday school held their annual flower day service on Sunday morning. The church was filled with the children and congregation. The decorations were beautiful, composed of evergreen arches, wild and garden flowers, with canaries adding their sweet voices to those of the children. Dr. Nash, the superintendent, had charge. There were four choruses by the school, and recitations by Jack Crawford, Willa Jones, Violet Jackson and George Nash. Duets by Jean and Ruth Hunt, Beatrice King and Dorothy Tullock, also, a number of exercises by the pupils. Robert Allen gave prizes to a number of boys for regular attendance and bringing their bibles. Mrs. Kennedy told a children's story, and the pastor, Rev. W. S. Lennox, said a few words of welcome and performed a baptism. After the session tickets were given out for the annual picnic.

THE MAKING OF A NATION

Address by Prof. R. Q. Jolliffe in Zion Church Sunday Evening.

Prof. R. Q. Jolliffe, Queen's University, was the special preacher at Zion Presbyterian church on Sunday evening and his address, on the "Making of a Nation", was a stirring and eloquent appeal for higher citizenship. He referred to the individual and emphasized the great importance of studying the true value of things that were worth while, that were lasting. Every day men and women are throwing away their souls for money, pleasure, fame—things that only last through the passing moment. The same things was true of the nation. It must choose the great things if it would be truly great, the lasting things if it would be strong and permanent. Great empires of the past went down because they failed to choose the things that make a nation permanent. The speaker applied this truth to Canada, and then went on to compare our position to that of the mother country. Her population was a mixture of different peoples. This fact gave her great strength. So Canada's population included English, Scotch, Irish, other Europeans and Americans. These would some day be all welded into a mighty people. Prof. Jolliffe made a special reference to the French of Quebec and pleaded for a fuller understanding of these people and a more friendly feeling. In conclusion he laid emphasis on the fact that to be enduring Canada must be righteous. We must "do justly, love mercy and walk humbly with our God." Special music was rendered by the choir under the direction of Mrs. Lennox, organist and choir director. Mrs. Prager, soprano, sang beautifully "I Come To Thee," and the choir rendered "Lord of The Isles" very effectively.

McFee, inspector of inland revenue, License Inspector Naphin and Provincial County Constable Ward made a discovery. It was a still, located in a thicket in the township of Kaladar, about eighteen miles northeast of Tweed village. The paraphernalia was complete for the manufacture of intoxicants. A young man named Camille Bushy, who is a returned soldier, was apprehended and was brought to the city and locked up. He is charged with operating the still, and was brought up before Magistrate Mason for a hearing. Cash-and-Carry Cherries. Save ten cents on big baskets and five cents on small baskets of cherries.
