CAMPBELL BROS.

FAREWELL AND WELCOME AT ONE RECEPTION

Sydenham Street Church's Good-bye to Rev. and Mrs. W. T. G. Brown.

The congregation of Sydenham Street Methodist church bade farewell to Rev. W. T. G. Brown and Mrs. Brown, and welcomed their new pastor, Rev. R. H. Bell, at a gathering held in the Sunday school hall Tuesday evening, when about three hundred were present. Many and sincere were the expressions of regret expressed during the course of the evening at the removal of Mr. Brown, who during his four-year pastorate, has endeared himself to the Sydenham street congregation.

Elmer Davis was chairman for the occasion, and called on J. M. Hughes, who in a few remarks expressed the regret of the congregation that their pastor was leaving, and asked the departing minister to accept as a mark of the affection and the esteem in which he was held, a gold watch, suitably engraved, as a gift from the board of the church. Mr. Brown, taken completely by surprise, very feelingly expressed his appreciation of the kindness and generosity of the people. He stated that he was thankful for his associations in Kingston, for his pastorate here had been the happiest a man could have. To Rev. Mr. Bell he remarked that the congregation he was leaving was one that could love their pastor, and on coming to this city, Mr. Bell was coming to one of the loveliest spots in Ontario.

A. Shaw introduced the Rev. R. H. Bell, who, on rising, said that his heart was deeply touched with the reception he had received and although he did not know any of the people he had pleasant anticipation at coming to this city. He asked the people to help him make it possible to do his best, as he wanted to be faithful to his charge. He would endeavor to bring a message of God to the people, bringing them something that they would receive with joy and would send them back to their daily tasks with new vision, power, strength and assurance of faith. In conclusion, Mr. Bell said that he would try to be himself and a faithful minister.

During the evening Dr. A. Locke gave a violin solo and Miss O. Woodman and Dr. H. S. Angrove rendered vocal solos. At the close of the programme refreshments were served by the ladies, and an opportunity was given the members of the congregation of shaking the hands of the two pastors, the one in regretful farewell and the other in warm welcome.

Coulter-Jackson Wedding.

A very pretty wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Jackson, when their only daughter, Reta Mae, was united in marriage to Robert Wellesley, second son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Robert Coulter, Maribank. Rev. J. G. Robeson, Enterprise, performed the ceremony. Promptly to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march, played by Miss Rosa Davey, Enterprise, the bride, who looked charming in a gown of white satin with silver lace and veil of filmy net caught with orange blossoms and carrying a bouquet of pink and white carnations and maiden hair fern, entered the parlor leaning on the arm of her father and took her place beneath an arch of evergreens and roses. She also wore the groom's gift, an onyx ring set with pearls. Miss Florence Coulter, Tweed, sister of the groom, acted as bridesmaid and wore a dress of white georgette crepe and carried a bouquet of pink and white carnations with maiden hair fern. Fred Bell, Enterprise, very ably supported the groom. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a gold brooch set with pearls, and the groomsmen, gold cuff links, and to the pianist a pearl necklace. After the ceremony a sumptuous wedding dinner was served after which the happy couple amid showers of rice and confetti motored to Yarker and left on the 4.30 train for Toronto and other points. The bride travelled in a suit of navy blue serge with hat and veil to match. The many useful and costly gifts received showed the high esteem in which the young couple are held. On their return they will reside near Moscow.
