Responsibility

There are several reasons why our sight service bears a good reputation. One of them is that we don't depend on others for any part of it. Our work is not planned by others; nor do others carry out our plans. From eye examination to finished glasses it is KEELEY Service.

We are vitally interested in the result of our work and to insure success do all of it ourselves.

Miss Ada Cook, Rideau street, gave a tea and linen shower on Monday for Miss Flora Abernethy, one of next week's brides. A big basket of roses tied with blue tulle centred the tea table, where Mrs. A. T. Hughes and Miss Bessie Abernethy poured tea and coffee, with Miss Bertie Cook and Miss Lillian Butlin as their assistants. A basket all blue streamers and confetti, was placed before the bride-elect and found to contain many articles of dainty linen with as many expressions of love and good wishes.

Miss Warde and Miss Caroline Finkle, Earl street, entertained at tea, on Saturday, for Miss Flora Abernethy, a July bride. Mrs. C. H. Finkle made the tea in the flower-decked rooms, and afterwards the bride-to-be was led into the garden, where a basket containing many articles for use in her kitchen was found.

Miss Ruby Driver, George street, was one of the young hostesses who entertained for Miss Flora Abernethy, giving a charming shower and tea in her honor, when much merriment was attached to the finding of mysterious parcels, tucked away behind pictures and bric-a-brac, to which colored streamers led the bride-elect.

Mrs. James Rigney, George street, entertained at bridge on Tuesday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. Arthur Macnee, Vancouver. Seven tables were in play and tea was made by Mrs. P. G. C. Campbell at the table with its lovely flowers, while Miss Frances Sullivan cut the ices.

Mrs. F. W. Hill, West street, asked a few people to come in at the tea hour on Monday, to meet Miss Martin, Cayuga, who is the guest of Mrs. Donald MacPhail.
