Frenzy of Excitement.
New York, July 2.—New York and the entire metropolitan area, which reaches out and embraces the now famous "Boyles Thirty Acres" in Jersey City, seethed today with the frenzy of excitement wholly unprecedented in the annals of sport, as the hour rolled slowly on for the fist clash for the world's heavyweight championship between Jack Dempsey, United States title holder, and Georges Carpentier, idol and champion of Europe.

New York's mansions and her gorgeous hotels early began disgorging brilliant parties of men and women, intent on threading in ample time the cluttered automobile highways that lead to Tex Rickard's mammoth arena in Jersey City. Less opulent fans had begun their scramble towards Jersey hours earlier, by ferry, by filivver and train, but even the earliest arrivals this morning found themselves out-generated by an advance guard of about three hundred men and boys who had spent the night in line waiting for first crack at $5.50 unreserved seats.

The day opened with a brief flash of sunshine, but by nine o'clock the sky was overcast and the threat of rain was in the air.

Champion Dempsey, primed and eager, awaited the hour to defend his title in the Jersey City residence to which he had been spirited from his training camp at Atlantic City late yesterday. Carpentier left his quarters at Manhasset by automobile shortly after breakfast for Port Washington, where a yacht awaited to bear him to the fight city.

Carpentier All Ready.

Manhasset, N.Y., July 2.—Arising this morning at the usual hour of six o'clock, Georges Carpentier breakfasted, spent fifteen minutes at setting up exercises, then permitted himself to be amused by his comrades. Descamps had mapped out the day to coincide with the training schedule the challenger has followed for six weeks. Luncheon was scheduled for 11.30 o'clock, then the motorists were to take the party to Fort Washington; on Manhasset Bay to go aboard the sixty-five foot power yacht Lone Star. One of the bunks was fitted up for Georges, and he had planned to sleep an hour while the little craft sped down the sound to Jersey City dock. There a closed car and special guard of six motor cycle policemen awaited the party. Strict orders were given by Manager Descamps to keep everybody out of the challenger's dressing room until he starts for the ring. He said Georges would be ready when the time for the main event arrived.

Four C.P.R. Employees
Retired on July 1st

Four very valuable officers of the Canadian Pacific Railway in Kingston were retired on July 1st. They are P. W. Clark, locomotive foreman, who served forty-two years with the company, John Slemmons locomotive engineer, thirty-five years, Charles S. Davidson, locomotive engineer, thirty-four years, and David Young, conductor, thirty-three years. George Holland, engineer, was retired on January 1st, 1921. He and David Young completed the Kingston and Pembroke into Renfrew and secured from the municipality the bonus of $20,000.

Shipbuilding Wages Lowered
And the Hours Increased

The employees of the Collingwood Shipbuilding Company received word Thursday that on Monday the working hours would be increased from eight to nine hours a day and a fifteen per cent decrease in wages would go into effect. This affects all hands alike. The agreement of the unions with the company expired the end of June, and the men are now open to re-engagement. This change is similar to that put into effect at the plant at Collingwood some time ago.

Mixed Drinks Caused
Sorrow in Police Court

Three holiday celebrants appeared in police court on Saturday morning all pleading guilty of intoxication. David Sullivan, Toronto, got drunk on bay rum, Lawrence Devine on beer, and Gordon Byron on lemon extract and two per cent. The first was remanded until Monday and the latter two were fined $10 and costs or one month. Stanley Eason, charged with vagrancy, was sentenced to three months.

Snook-Hunt Wedding.

A pretty wedding was solemnized by Rev. Mr. Lennon, at Queen street Methodist parsonage, when Arline Gertrude, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Hunt, was united in marriage to Harold Stanley Snook. After the ceremony a dainty lunch was served at the bride's home, after which they left for Detroit, Mich. The bride received many useful presents. The groom's gift to the bride was a sunburst of pearls, which she wore. On their return they intend residing in Kingston.

To Alexandria Bay.

Str. St. Lawrence will make her regular trip to Alexandria Bay, on Sunday, leaving Ferry Dock at 2 p.m. Fare round trip 75c.

Collamer C. Folger, manager of the civic utilities, is attending the Dempsey-Carpentier fight at Jersey City. He is expected to return on Monday.

The following telegram was sent to Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight challenger for the world's title, by the Great War Veterans' Association of Kingston, Saturday morning:
"Georges Carpentier,
"Jersey City, N.J.
"The members of the Kingston branch, Great War Veterans Association, your fellow comrades in the late great war, wish you success and victory in attaining your life-long ambition, and trust that you may return to your native land with the heavyweight boxing championship of the world added to your laurels."
