Don't BURN the FOREST

Ontario's Greatest Revenue Producer

OF all Ontario's sources of public revenue as distinct from taxation, her Forests come first. The money received by the Government of Ontario from the sale of forest privileges last year amounted to over $2,700,000. The value of these forest privileges is increasing with the demand for lumber, pulp and other forest products. The maintenance of our chief source of revenue depends, therefore, upon keeping our forests from burning up.

Forest fires mean higher taxes, higher cost of building, higher cost of living generally, as well as dreadful loss of life, loss of homes and devastation of great areas of land.

Save Ontario's Forests They're Yours

Besides providing direct returns to the people of Ontario in wages and public revenue, affording employment for labor, and opportunity for capital, and supplying us with lumber and other products, the Forests of Ontario are vitally important in many other ways.

Ontario's Forests largely account for her healthful, moderate climate, neither unbearably hot nor unbearably cold, nor subject to hurricanes and furious tempests.

Ontario's Forests regulate the flow of her rivers by conserving the moisture of the rain or snow, preventing damage from spring floods and erosion of the soil from hillsides, such as ruined great areas of land in China and other Eastern countries. In Northern Ontario, the low, rounded hills soon show the bare rock after the forest is burned off.

Ontario's wild game and fur largely depend upon the preservation of her forests. The young of game birds and of insectivorous birds which nest in the forest, are destroyed annually by forest fires.

If a watershed is destroyed by forest fire, few of the game fish in the streams will survive.

Fish and game bring tourists to Ontario's forests and prosperity to Ontario's summer resorts. Forest fires drive tourists and their money away.

Forests are assets of health and strength. Forests are an inspiration to clean, wholesome living. Ontario's forests are a refuge from the grind, dust and strain of cities. Help us save Ontario's forests from destruction by fire.

TOBACCO AND HEALTH.

Eminent Surgeon Advises Regularly in Smoking.
 "Smoke the same quantity of tobacco every day" was the advice of Sir James Cantlie, K.B.E., the eminent surgeon, when speaking on "Tobacco and Health" in London recently.

Sir James said that a few days previous to his address he read of a man who when he died was more than 100 years of age and who smoked one ounce of tobacco per day. Probably if that man had cut his allowance down to half an ounce one day and one ounce the next day he would not have lived so long. Smokers should not vary the amount of tobacco day by day.

He had seen men in the rifle competition at Wimbledon shooting whilst they were smoking. Even if they were not actually smoking, they had pipes in their mouths, because they found it steadied their nerves. The man with a pipe between his teeth felt a certain amount of security.

Speaking of the pleasure to be derived from tobacco, Sir James Cantlie said he was sure that it was far more pleasant to be in the company of a smoker than of a man who did not smoke. Life would be much more pleasant if everybody smoked.

Putting on "Pep."
 Wife (to her husband)—"Arthur love, I want you to give John a good scolding to-morrow morning."
 Husband—"What for? I am perfectly satisfied with the fellow."
 Wife—"Well, you see, he has to beat the carpets to-morrow, and he strikes ever so much harder when he's in a bad temper."

Another funny thing is how a girl doesn't need his assistance to get across a street after they are married the way she had to be assisted before they were married.
