SCIENCE CAN NOW END CORNS
 Don't Troubles Are Out-of-Date.
 Millions Know This Now A famous expert, years ago, solved the whole corn problem.
 The method is Blue-jay—the plaster or the liquid. It stops pain instantly. Soon the whole corn gently loosens and comes out.
 Now folks who pare or pad corns do themselves injustice. So do users of old methods, harsh and crude.
 Blue-jay is modern. It is approved by authorities. It is easy, simple, quick and sure.
 Just apply it and forget it, and watch what becomes of the corn.
 After that, you will never let a corn pain twice.
 Your druggist has Met Death in Peterboro.

 William Arthur, a native of this city, and a steamfitter well known among the fraternity, met his death at Peterboro while working at his trade in the General Electric works there. He fell from a scaffold, striking his head upon the cement floor.

Kindly Help in Dying
 By CHARLES GRANT MILLER
 (Copyright, 1921. All Rights Reserved by United Feature Syndicate.) Advice, it is said, is cheap. But it sometimes is dear when accepted in cases of sickness. This does not refer to the advice of physicians, which, of course, is dear, but to the advice of well-meaning and sincerely sympathetic friends, which often is far dearer still.
 All know how prone people are to advise one who is ill, and to tell what they did and how they attained relief under what they think were exactly similar circumstances.
 It stands to reason that these good people understand neither the ills with which they were afflicted, nor the influences which brought about their cures. But the sick do not reason. In their pain and anxiety they are like young robins that sit with open mouths and swallow whatever is dropped in, whether it be worms or shingle nails.
 And after a long experience with the pills and potions of sympathizing friends, death, if it is not certain, is at least welcome; it seems a sweet relief to sleep under the sod.
 According to Herodotus, this human habit held good many centuries ago. He quotes the following as one of the wisest of Babylonian institutions: "They have no physicians, but when a man is ill they lay him in the public square, and the passerby comes up to him, and if they have ever had his disease themselves, or have known anyone who has suffered from it, they give advice, recommending him to do whatever they found good in their own case, or in the case known to them. And no one is allowed to pass the sick man in silence without asking him what his ailment is."
 But what is the use protesting?
 The habit continues. For we like sympathy when we are sick. And maybe, after all, sympathy is better than nostrums in most of our little ailments.
 Anyway, the neighbor who drops her own household affairs and comes in with sympathy and devotion, seems to have almost divine healing in her loving touch.
 She may know nothing of pathology or therapeutics, but she knows what the sore heart hungers for, and supplies it as none other can.
 She may help us to die in many a case, but on the other hand, if we get well, she has taught us new things worth living for.
 If we escape going to join the angels above, we at least have learned that there are angels on earth.

Mink Wanders Into Hotel.
 A little stranger in the form of a mink wandered into the Randolph hotel Saturday evening and gave the people in the lobby quite a surprise.
 It resembled the efforts of some men to catch it, biting one man several times before it was finally subjected.
 Nobody seems to know where the animal came from.

Quandary.
 She love me—she loves me not,
 What shall I now believe?
 That daisy stuff's only rot;
 "She loves me—she loves me not;"
 But then, when, by dint of plot, I think that I perceive She loves me, she loves me not!
 What shall I now believe?

Barns Are Destroyed.
 The barns and other outbuildings of Percy Chester, located about three miles from Merrickville, were destroyed by fire together with their contents and a number of live stock.
 A barn and contents belonging to Mrs. Bennett, near Swan Station, were burned on the same day. Spontaneous combustion is believed to have been responsible in each case.

Canadian Visitors Cared For.
 The visiting polo players are entertained at the summer homes of the villa colony, Alexandria Bay, N.Y. Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Ogilvie, E.
 E. Ogilvie, Major MacDougall, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Beardmore, Miss Beardmore of Montreal; Mr. and Mrs.
 Allen Case, General Blekford and Cecil Cowan of Toronto are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. Graham Miles.

New Town Hall.
 Contractor White, Belleville, has a gang of men at preparatory work on the basement of the new town hall at Bancroft. The building will be 40 x 70, two storey brick veneer, with a seating capacity of four hundred.
 In the basement will be a council chamber, jail and public library, also furnace and fuel room. The new structure when finished will add greatly to the appearance of the village in general.

Celebrates Ninety-Fourth Birthday.
 Robt Lumley celebrated his ninety-fourth birthday at the home of his son, Thomas, at Doxsee's Corners.
 There were present Mr. and Mrs.
 George Lumley and son, Mr. and Mrs.
 James Hicks and family, Muir Van-Vlaek, Cressy; Charles Smith and daughter Leah, Calgary, and Mrs.
 Thriza Slater, Detroit. The dining room was beautifully decorated with flowers. All present did justice to the delicious dinner provided in such an able manner by the hostess, Mrs. T.
 M. Lumley.

Hiccup Epidemic Prevalent Don't get the habit or hiccup—stop the slightest attack at the beginning. Nothing brings such magical relief as slowly sipping a few drops of Nerviline in sweetened water. For stomach pains, bloating, cramps, diarrhoea, nothing will prove more useful in every home than a 35 cent bottle of good, old Nerviline.

Westport U. F. O. Club.
 On the completion of its first year of business, Westport U. F. O. Club held its first annual meeting in the town hall, Westport, and elected the following officers: President, John McCormick; vice-president, Samuel Pritchard; secretary and treasurer, J. D. Kane; directors, G. F. Shelling-ton, H. H. Hutchings, P. A. McPar-land, E. G. Ewing, M. J. Norwood, Charles Hull, W. R. Knapp and W.
 Sickler.

Loses Life in Lake.
 At The Rock on the lake side, North Marysburgh, on Sunday, a sad drowning accident occurred. Angus T. Minaker was bathing near shore when he stepped into deep water and was drowned before those near by could rescue him. A boat was procured and the body recovered within a few minutes but life was extinct.
 The deceased was twenty-three years of age and married. Besides his wife, who was Miss Leveck, he leaves a young child.

Good Motor Morality.
 The Kingston Whig pleads with motorists who picnic on property near the roadside to leave the place tidy, not defaced with a litter of lunch boxes, plates, oiled paper, egg shells, sardine cans and banana skins.
 Burn up the litter, put out the fire, or carry the refuse away to a dump.
 This is good motor morality says the Toronto Globe. Picnickers should also be careful of fires, and not destroy property. This much is due to good-natured farmers, and also to motorists who may follow.

A Fine Character at Rest.
 The death of Martha A. Blakely, wife of Capt. W. H. Burdick, Picton, removes one well and favorably known in the Gilead neighborhood, where she was born, and where she spent the days of youth and childhood. Of a pleasant, cheerful disposition, she bore long months of illness with the greatest Christian patience and fortitude. The deceased was the eldest daughter of the late Archibald Blakely, Gilead, and beside her husband leaves to mourn one brother, W. D. Blakely, Picton, and one sister, Mrs. S. E. Hanna, Toronto.

DO YOU KNOW HIM?
 Even the Byng Boys will hardly recognize their former leader in the above. It is, however, Lord Byng's very latest picture, specially posed for the Canadian National Exhibition, a few days before he sailed for Canada, for reproduction on a medal commemorating the opening of the 1921 Fair, over which he will preside on Aug. 27.
 Divested of his military attire the new Governor-General looks a very different person to the stern soldier Canadians knew through his war photos.
