CONCERT AT MOWAT AND A PRESENTATION

A. Hallet Given a Gold Watch by the Hospital Patients.

What was considered by many as the finest concert ever heard was held outdoors at the Mowat hospital Monday evening. The occasion marked the departure for England of A. Hallet, one of the patients, and chairman of the entertainment committee. Flugs were strung among the trees on the lawn, and when the lights were turned on the grounds presented a very pretty appearance indeed. The concert was arranged by the Military Y. M. C. A. which also provided three taxis required, in addition to conveyance sent from the hospital, to transport the artists.

Geoffrey O'Hara was the first number on the programme, and with song and story delighted the boys for half an hour. Miss Phyllis Devlin sang two beautiful songs in charming manner and excellent voice. Miss R. V. Goodfellow made a hit with a number of comic songs and parodies. Miss Mann, a noted contralto singer from New York, rendered two solos which were a treat.

At this stage an intermission was called, and the presentation made to Mr. Hallet. In a neatly worded address the patients of the hospital voiced their appreciation of the services of Mr. Hallet and as a token of their esteem presented him with a handsome gold watch. Mr. Hallet replied, that while he regretted leaving his old comrades he was thankful to be in such a condition of health as to be discharged from the hospital. He also spoke highly of the care given him by the nursing and medical staff and warmly praised the work of George Young of the Y. M. C. A. in providing entertainments for the hospital patients.

F. J. Salebury's orchestra rendered a number of selections after which Jack Elder, in Highland costume, sang two solos which were enthusiastically received. Dr. J. Mackie, gifted violinist, rendered a medley of Scotch airs and was called back again and again. Mrs. E. Treher sang two songs in a very sweet voice. A sketch from the 'Kermes' entitled the 'Strollers' was a unique part of the programme.

Dr. B. Hopkins acted as chairman and Miss Frances Devlin and Miss B. Rogers as accompanists. Through the kindness of the orchestra, a very enjoyable dance was held in the recreation room. Ice cream and a delightful punch was served.

PORTSMOUTH TAX RATE FIXED BY COUNCIL

County rate, 8 mills; public school, 17 mills; village rate, 14 mills; separate school, 14 mills. This makes a rate of 39 mills for public school supporters and a rate of 36 mills for separate school supporters, or 1 1/2 mills more than last year. The increase is due to the increase in the school rate.

GOING FOR A RECORD.

Sale Running at Speedy Gait For Long Time.

When it comes to taking first money with the rest of the field far behind, the sale at the Victory shoe store is showing some form. Here in town many of the merchants stage big bargain sales and turn over great business, but this particular sale seems about to make a record. It started on Saturday, July 20th, and had been travelling right along ever since until it is now a habit.

The truth of the matter is that, because of the really fine bargains people have found in this store, they are sticking to it and coming back again. The buyers are keeping the sale going because they know a good thing when they see it, and furthermore they appreciate very much the quick and efficient service at the Victory.

The classification of the shoes on the shelves, tables and racks is a revelation. From the front of the store to the back the shoes are graded in price and quality. One glance shows you a wide variety to pick from, each bearing the price in large letters so that you may see a good sample display of the entire stock without trouble.

The Victory shoe store has been advertising exclusively in the Whig. "Oh, well, no wonder the sale is a big success," says the Wise Guy.

FALL FASHIONS

Are Lovelier Than Ever and Prices Lower

Our showing of delightful new apparel for Fall possesses far more charm and individuality this season than ever before. The added assurance of fine quality, good workmanship and moderate prices makes Laidlaw's a satisfactory store in which to shop.

COATS

It can be truthfully said that Coats were never so perfectly charming as this Fall. There is so much variety, so many novelty touches that they are the very soul of youthfulness. Coats seem to be ignoring regular Coat rules completely. Fur is absolutely necessary and lavish in its usage. Fabrics are of gorgeous, deep pile, richly colored. Long Tuxedo fronts are stylish.

SUITS

A most attractive showing in all the new fabrics, richly and handsomely embroidered in rarely beautiful designs. Wraps that speak the first word in fashion and the last word in value-giving. Suits are very smart, with conservative Skirts, but Coats that make up for this in sumptuous fur embroidery or braid trim. The new, wide, Jenny sleeve with wide arm size is popular.

LOVELY NEW FALL FROCKS

Just hosts of Novelty Fall Frocks have arrived, and are awaiting your inspection and approval. These delightful modes are so amazingly youthful in line and so beautiful in fabric and colorings—Canton Crepe, Crepe Meteor, Crepe de Chene, Taffeta, and Charmeuse Satin—in all the new color tints.

A WORD PICTURE OF OUR

seems impossible. There is so much variety we shall leave the balance to your imagination, and to your pleasure when you come to the store.
