Theatrical

To-Night "Three Live Ghosts" "Three Live Ghosts," Max Marcin's production of Frederic S. Isham's uproarious comedy will be seen at the Grand Opera House to-night and Saturday, bargain matinee and night. The story deals with three soldiers-two British and one American who had been listed as dead by the British war office. But instead of being able to return to their old lives two of them had excellent reasons for remaining dead. The third who has no reason for concealing his identity, cannot remember who or what he is, because shell-shock has robbed him of his wits. To add to the trials of the trio, he develops kleptomania, and lands them all in the clutches of Scotland Yard. But it is through him also that all three eventually manage to resume their places in the world of the living. The cast includes Ruby Hallier, Alida Middlecoat, Fred Bean, Harry Vincent, Ben Lyon, Edward Martyn, Eleanor Masters, George Duthie, Agnes Atherton and William Splevins and other well known artists .- Advt.

The Caravans Are Here The Romance of

Modern Shopping

In olden times when people wanted to buy wearing apparel or house-hold goods and certain foodstuffs (like coffee and spices) they had to wait until the caravans came along.

Contrast this with the Romance of Modern Shopping.

To appreciate this Romance to the full, take a walk through the shops of this city. In them you will find rugs from Persia, from Turkestan, from India and from China. Carpets from Canadian looms and from United States and Great Furniture made from Canadian lumber in Canadian factories, as well as articles from United States, France and Great Britain.

You will find linens made from Canadian-grown flax in Canadian mills, as well as linens from

There are calicoes, blankets, sheetings and dress goods made in Canada, United States, Lancashire, Yorkshire, the West of England, Scotland and Ireland.

You will find silks from France, from Italy and from Japan.

You will find ladies' wearing apparel designed and made by the artistic craftsmen and workers in Canada, Great Britain, France and United States.

The same thing is true of the men's wearing apparel and the fine woollens made up in our own factories and in those of Leicester and Nottingham and Halifax, Huddersfield and Wakefield.

You can buy perfumes, soaps, emollients and dentifrices from France and from Arabia, and the same sweet essences blended and made up by skilful Canadian chemists.

You will see fine shoes from twenty or thirty good Canadian makers.

There are hats from Canada United States, Italy, France and Great Britain. Gloves from Switzerland, France, United States and

We all owe a great tribute to the retail merchants of the city (particularly to those who advertise), because they not only venture into the world's markets to buy goods to add to our comfort and enjoyment; they also encourage intercommunity prosperity by their vigorous advertising

YACHT RACE MOTION PICTURES ARE SHOWN

At Allen Theatre and Are Good -Taken in Kingston Harbor.

A private showing of the Motion pictures recently taken by representatives of the Dominion Motion Picture Co., a Kingston concern, of the L.Y.R.A. regatta at the Kingston Macht Club was made at the Allen theatre on Friday morning. William Jackson, Henry Richardson and Dr. F. J. O'Connor, members of the board of directors, were present as well as representatives of the company and the press. The views were exceptionally clear and comprehensive, and included pictures of the yachts, the crews, prominent officials of the races, the spectators on the galleries and wharf of the club, and also views taken during the trip down the river. The pictures will be shown in the city very shortly.

Venice Known in Kingston. The steamer Venice, which was scized in Cleveland on Thursday for an infringement of the American liquor prohibition laws, was wellknown in this port. The last visit was about two weeks ago when a local pilot was taken on board to direct the course of the boat down the river to Montreal. Capt. Curry, of the Venice, states that the eighty cases of contraband liquor were taken on board at Toronto.

SLATHERS OF SOAP.

W. R. McRae Company Handle a Large Consignment. Many citizens, passing by the Golden Lion block yesterday and today, were surprised to see the amount of soap arriving or leaving the warehouses of the W. R. McRae Company's wholesale business. Dray after dray arrived at the doors to be unloaded and much curiosity was aroused. "Someone must be going to have a general cleanup," remarked one curious passerby.

The explanation will soon be out. In preparation for the big soap week from August 27th until September 3rd, the W. R. McRae Company has been laying in a large stock to meet the demands of the retailers served by the firm. A full carload has been put in already and sold almost as soon as it arrived. It is now being 1899 distributed as fast as the firm can blackberries, blueberries, etc. Larg-ter-making competitions will not be usual occurrence even for a large for the efficiency of the selling and George Headon, Selkirk, Man., is distributing staff of the firm.
