On Friday the Cornwall tennis club sent a contingent to Kingston to play a match with the Country Club team. The Cornwall players were Mr. and Mrs. F. J. Hall, Miss Ross, Dr. H. J. Mack, Messrs. J. H. Martin and R. Danis. The Kingston team was Col. and Mrs. J. H. Foulkes, Col. D. Douglas Young and Mrs. Howard Penhale, Col. Dunbar and Col. P. G. C. Campbell. Kingston won the mixed doubles and two out of four of the men's doubles. Tea was a pleasant interlude when Miss Hora made tea and Mrs. P. G. C. Campbell poured coffee at the table with its lovely centre of cosmos. Among those present were: Col. and Mrs. Bevan Dunbar, Col. and Mrs. J. Austin Scroggie, Mrs. Halloway Waddell, Col. and Mrs. Victor Anderson, Mrs. Heber Lafferty, Col. and Mrs. F. W. Hill, Capt. and Mrs. G. S. Bowerbank, Major and Mrs. Garnet Greer, Prof. and Mrs. Frank Day, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Grant, Mrs. J. Carl Marchie, Mrs. E. T. Forth, Miss Mable Gilder-sleeve, Miss Loretta Swift, Miss Mildred Jones, Miss Aileen Rogers, Miss Helen Strange, Miss Louise Hill and Miss Jesse Torrance.

Mrs. W. H. Sparling, Winchester, is the guest of Mrs. W. Cockburn, 140 Bagot street. Miss Pauline Sparling is also in the city, the guest of Mrs. Wilson, George street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Wills, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Kalebough, Kanata City, Mo.; Mrs. Amanda McCormick, Miss Edna McCormick, Miss Leah Brozman, Detroit; Mrs. J. F. Wiggins, and Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Cattanoach, Watertown, N.Y., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Leakey, Wolfe Island.

Mrs. J. R. Henderson, Ottawa, and Miss Middleton, Toronto, came from Ottawa on Saturday to spend a few days in the city and are at the "Y." Johnson street.

Miss Annie Gill, Cornwall, has returned home after spending a month with friends in Kingston and Brockville.

G. D. Valteau, Kingston, motored up and spent last Wednesday afternoon with his sister, Mrs. J. W. Hall, Morven.

Mrs. Amanda Mills, Kingston, is the guest of her brother, Robert Rose, West Point.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Scott, Kingston, have been spending a couple of weeks with Prince Edward county friends.

Mrs. W. Shane and Miss Lizzie Saul, of Kingston, have been in Camden East for a few days visiting friends.

Mrs. Letzie, St. Louis, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sutherland and Master Arthur Sutherland spent this week with Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Sutherland, "Camp St. Louis," Stella Point.

Miss Currie, Trenton, is the guest of Mrs. Earle, Stella.

Miss Eleanor Holland, Montreal, is visiting her parents on Johnson street.

Miss Marion Wheeler, University Avenue, who motored to Buffalo, N. Y., with her cousins, Mr. and Mrs. N. Hammond, is leaving there for Toronto to-day.

T. L. MacDonald, Halifax, N. S., is visiting his aunt, Mrs. J. M. Lanos, Union street.

Dr. and Mrs. F. J. O'Connor entertained a number of the Hotel Dieu nurses-in-training at their summer cottage, Dead Man's Bay, on Thursday night.

Mrs. Beynon and daughter, Marie, who have been visiting the former's aunt, Mrs. William Nicholls, Clarence Street, for the past two weeks, left Saturday afternoon for their home in Toronto.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Bowen, and daughter, Washington, D.C., are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. William Bowen, Brock street. Mr. Bowen was formerly professor of mineralogy in Queen's University.

Dr. Edward Williamson, Hobart college, Geneva, N. Y., who has been spending the past six weeks in Kingston, left Saturday afternoon for London, Ont., to spend a few days with his sister, Mrs. E. H. Young.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen are visiting friends in Cape Vincent, N. Y.

Miss Ethel McLaughlin, Watertown, N.Y., has returned home after visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Olsen, Earl street.

Miss Peggy Brownlee has returned home from visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Burke, Ottawa, Ont.

Mrs. Rupert Aylesworth, Cataract and two children, Lorne and Phyllis, also Mrs. Charles Randall, and Miss Dorcas Randall, Kingston, have returned from a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall, Stella, Amherst Island.

Joseph Lincoln, Boston, the celebrated American author, is camping near Battersea.

MADAME SARAH BERNHARDT. "The Divine Sarah" has sent a personal message to her admirers in Canada and the United States, denying reports that she is ill.

Has Left For France. J. Courtland Elliott, B.A., recently with the University of Saskatchewan, Saskatoon, and who has been with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Elliott, Barrie street, during the summer, left to-day for Paris, France, to begin work under a scholarship granted by the government of Saskatchewan. He will sail on Aug. 26th on the S.S. Melita for Liverpool, in the meantime visiting in Arras, Ottawa and Montreal. He will devote his time to law and economics in the great University of Paris. Every summer for seven years Courtland has been on the Whig's staff and his associates and many friends in his native city hope for him the highest success. They know he will make good as he has in many other positions.

The remains of William Stanlake, who passed away in Toronto, arrived in the city Friday night and were taken in charge by J. Cornelius, undertaker. The late Mr. Stanlake was forty-five years of age, a carpenter by trade and has been failing for some time. He is survived by a wife and one son, Charles.

Lachlan McKinnon, a member of the local Y.M.C.A., made a swim to Cedar Island Friday afternoon. He took off from the shipyard and made the distance in about sixty minutes. It is expected that Magistrate Farrell will be on the bench at the police court next week. A number of cases are awaiting his return.
