FATHER AND SON BOTH BENEFITED

Toronto Man Tells of His Wonderful Recovery and Says Son Was Also Helped

"I'm telling everybody about this wonderful medicine Tanlac, for it has sides doing me a world of good it's helping my son right along," was the statement made by Thomas Anderson, well-known painter residing at 974 Logan Avenue, Toronto, Ont. "About six years ago a scaffold with three hundred and fifty bricks fell down with me, and I got hurt so bad I had to stay in the hospital for two months and then stay at home eight more weeks before I was able to go back to work. When I did get up and about I was in pretty bad shape and couldn't seem to get right. At times my back hurt so bad I couldn't stand up straight. My appetite would fall me for days at a time. I couldn't sleep, and often went to my work feeling completely tired out, and many days felt so sick all over I just could not stay on the job.

"A friend of mine finally brought me a bottle of Tanlac, and it helped me so much I got another and then another and kept taking it until now I'm eating, sleeping and working as well as I ever could. I just can't say enough for this Tanlac."

Tanlac is sold in Kingston by A. P. Chown and leading druggists everywhere.—Advt.

THE ABANDONED BABY
By CHARLES GRANT MILLER
(Copyright, 1921. All Rights Reserved by United Feature Syndicate.)

Could it be believed that a baby abandoned on a doorstep, in an area, on the street, or elsewhere, has a better chance of surviving the ill of childhood and reaching maturity than the average baby cared for by its own mother?

One would not think it possible that a child turned adrift at birth, left out in the cold and wet, would have, physically, a better prospect of life than the average baby in its mother's arms.

But it is the fact. It is strange, but true.

Figures furnished by the New York Association for the Improvement of the Poor, show that in that city only 11 per cent. of abandoned children die under the age of two, while 13 per cent. of all the children born in the city die under that age.

Why do the children abandoned on doorsteps fare better on the average than those that have their mother's care?

Because the founding is kept in a room where it has sufficient fresh air.

Because it is kept reasonably and evenly warm in winter and cool in summer.

Because it is fed sufficiently, scientifically, and above all, regularly.

These are the simple reasons assigned for the fact that the child which would seem to have the least chance of growing up healthfully really has the best chance.

It is an antique stock joke that none knows so much about raising babies as old maids. Well, the fact is that a corps of unmarried women, especially trained, are teaching the mothers of New York how to feed and otherwise care for their babies, and are thus turning thousands of sickly and fretful infants into healthy and happy ones.

Mother-love is the strongest passion known to humanity; and yet there is striking commentary upon the beautiful development of brotherly love in the fact that a philanthropic institution can and does do better for a child than the average mother can.

SIR JOHN AND LADY SIMON
This snapshot of the distinguished English visitors with Sir James Aikins, lieutenant-governor of Manitoba (on the right) was taken at Winipeg. Sir John has come from Britain for the express purpose of attending the annual meeting of the Canadian Bar Association, at which he will deliver the principal address.

officializing. After the ceremony the bridal couple and their immediate relatives motored to Newburgh to the home of the bride's aunt, where a dainty luncheon was served. The happy couple afterwards left for a trip through New York state. The bride travelled in a suit of brown velour with beaver collar and small brown feather hat. After their return they will reside at the home of the groom, Deseronto Road.

Remains Brought Here.
The remains of the late Mary Lillian Nokes, the six-year-old daughter of Howard Nokes, formerly of Kingston, who met death at Woodstock, as a result of being hit by an automobile, were brought to Kingston early Thursday afternoon and the funeral took place at Cataract cemetery. The Nokes family moved to Woodstock recently from Toronto, and prior to that lived in Kingston. While in Kingston Mr. Nokes was employed as a plumber.

Water Improved.
The city water supply has improved during the past week and the daily tests carried on at Queen's University show comparative freedom from pollution. The medical health officer recommends continued boiling, however, of all water being used for drinking as there is always the possibility at this season of heavy winds driving contaminated water into the currents at the intake. No bacteria dangerous to health have been found for several days.

21st Club to Attend.
The 21st Battalion Club of Kingston is meeting this week to consider, chiefly, details in connection with delegation which will attend the re-union of this unit of the Second Canadian Division in Peterboro on Friday, Sept. 15th. This is the second annual meeting of the 21st Association which was organized at a meeting of over one hundred ex-members in the Russell Hotel, Ottawa, on the anniversary of Armistice night, 1919. The re-union was held here last year when Peterboro was selected for the coming event. It is expected that a goodly number of the local boys will go to Peterboro, where over 100 ex-members of the battalion reside. The trip will likely be made by motor. The mascot "Nan" has been invited. The place for next year's re-union will be decided at the September dinner.

News of the P. W. O. R.
A meeting of the sports committee of the P. W. O. R. was held at the armouries on Tuesday evening, Major J. C. d'Esterre presiding. A programme of events for the regimental picnic, which will be held at Brophy's Point on Labor Day was prepared. The picnic promises to be a very enjoyable outing. The three bands, brass, pipe and bugle, will attend, and a dance has been arranged for in the evening.

Sergeant-Major G. Logan of the R. M.C., has been appointed pipe-major. This band, which was organized last spring, is now in excellent form. Sergeant-Major Logan was for ten years pipe-major in the Camerons, serving in the British Isles, India and South Africa.

The bugle band of the regiment is having weekly practices, under Sergeant Burns of the 21st Battalion. It is rapidly developing into most satisfactory condition.

LET NO CORN SPOIL AN HOUR
Any Corn Can Be Stopped Now, Any Moment, by a Touch

Science has solved the corn problem. One can now stop a corn ache instantly, and shortly remove the whole corn.

The method is gentle, scientific, sure. A famous chemist invented it. A surgical dressing house of world-wide fame produces it.

It is Blue-Jay—the liquid or the plaster. A touch applies it. The pain stops at once. Soon the whole corn, however ancient, loosens and comes out.

It makes harsh treatments unnecessary. It makes paring ridiculous. It makes every corn ache a folly. Your druggist has Blue-Jay. Let it end your corn-trouble.
