THREE SISTERS LAID TO REST

Burial of Mrs. Rice and Bernice and Beatrice Scott At Westport.

Friday the entire village and neighborhood of Westport mourned its beloved dead. The bodies (Mrs. Harold F. Rice and her two sisters, Bernice and Beatrice Scott) of the three victims of the distressing fatality which happened at Collin's Bay last Wednesday afternoon, reached the Scott homestead on the lower mountain by motor truck on Thursday evening. As they lay that night in state in the home hundreds of friends called, and many were the prayers uttered as they filed past the caskets covered with flowers. Elsewhere in the house the family were overwhelmed with grief. The three sisters, Susan, Bernice and Beatrice, had with the rest of the family, always belonged to St. Paul's (Anglican) church, Westport. It was here they attended Sunday school, sang in the choir, and played the organ. In fact all church activities received their untiring support. In sunshine or rain, cold or heat, they hardly ever failed to attend Sunday worship; sometimes walking, at other times driving down and up the steep and dangerous mountain. The funeral service was therefore expected to be held in the dear little village church that they had loved so well. But this was regrettably prevented owing to the exceptional difficulties and the service was therefore arranged for at the home on Friday at 2 o'clock. More than 1,000 people attended, for the Scotts were good neighbors, a family highly respected, and the dead beloved by all who knew them. Under the sighing pines, with a dear blue sky above, in the garden close to the house, the Rev. L. G. O. Walker, rector of St. Paul's church, conducted the beautiful burial service of the church of England, assisted by the Rev. Canon J. W. Jones, Kingston, a former rector and an old friend of the family. The choir beautifully sang "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." The intense strain was broken, and relief came to hundreds in the silent tears shed. Canon Jones gave the address: "I Saul: I 23. Saul and Jonathan were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their deaths they were not divided; also Psalms XXXI, 15: 'My time is in Thy hand'; also I Cor. VII 29: 'Brethren, the time is short.' He substituted for the words Saul and Jonathan the three sisters names 'Susan, Bernice and Beatrice were lovely and pleasant in their lives, and in their deaths they were not divided.' In affectionate language he spoke of the dreadfully tragic event, and of the departed, and God's loving care for His children! "I'll that He blesses is our good "And unblest good is ill. "And all is right that seems most wrong "If it be His blessed will. "My time is in Thy hand" proved that God controlled all, giving each a definite time to live, and a definite work to do, and the preacher urged the mourners to live their days of probation acceptably to God! For the time was short to each and all, but momentous in its opportunities, responsibilities and eternal consequences. Sudden death does not necessarily, and in this case did not, mean unprepared death. The lovely and pleasant Christian lives of the departed were known to all, and their sudden and tragic departure, a warning to prepare to meet our God. "Watch and pray for ye know not when the time is." Be ready. On behalf of the citizens of Kingston as well as the crowd of mourners he conveyed their deepest and loving sympathies and prayers to the sorrow-stricken family; and he invoked the blessing of Divine Grace upon the bereaved family in their hour of deepest need.

After the sermon, again the emotions of strong men and women found relief in tears. The address was one likely never to be forgotten. After the singing of the hymn "O God our help in ages past" the funeral cortege proceeded to the grave in the beautiful new cemetery of the English church near Sand Lake, close by the upper mountain road. Slowly and sadly the procession descended the mountain, the caskets being guarded by a company of the Girl Guides "on guard" over their beloved dead comrades, for Bernice and Beatrice had been members of the corps. Countless cars and rigs made an almost endless procession which reached from the Scott home here down the mountain, through the village to the cemetery beyond, where a great crowd awaited the arrival of the funeral. Only one grave in the sandy loam had been dug for the mortal remains of the three sisters. And here they were placed by loving and tender friends.

We laid them side by side. We laid them down to sleep. But not in hope forlorn; We laid them but to slumber there Till the last glorious morn.

The Girl Guides guarded the open grave and surrounded by almost the entire population, Canon Jones read the requiem "For as much as it hath pleased Almighty God of His great mercy to take unto Himself the souls of our dear sisters here departed we therefore commit their bodies to the ground in sure and certain hope of the resurrection to eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord."

Rev. L. G. O. Walker finished the service, after which the choir sang most beautifully to the relief and comfort of all "Nearer my God to Thee, nearer to Thee." Then with sad hearts comforted by God's loving promises the people went away again to their own homes. At least thrice previously have the people of Westport been shocked by drowning fatalities. Thirty years ago Mr. Bailey, the resident Methodist minister, was drowned, and later young Adams and Robert Atchison, but never the like of the funeral of the three sisters as above recorded.

UNLISTED STOCK MARKET

Conditions Last Week Were Unfavorable for Trading. Toronto, Aug. 28.—A. J. Pattison Jr. & Co. in their report on the unlisted market of last week say that conditions were unfavorable for trading due to an irregular tendency and the continued dull period. As a whole prices with the exception of a few specialties, were slightly higher than for the preceding week. Canadian Woollens Common on rumors of the improved condition of the company moved up to 16 to 17 1-2 while the Preferred continued unchanged at 57 to 62. Gums Prof. was in good demand at 55 with no offerings obtainable in this market. Alberta Pacific Grain Pref. ex-dividend one and three-quarters per cent. remains 78 1-2 bid while the offered price dropped 1 1-2 point to 89 1-2. Ames Holden Tire Common was in demand all week moving up twelve points to 30, several lots of stock changing hands at this figure. Good year Tire Pref. continues to be steadily absorbed — at the close it was quoted 50 1-2 to 52 — a gain of a point for the week. Western Grocers Prof. was weak, falling off to 60 to 64 on moderate selling. Robert Simpson Pref. lost a point to 74 to 77 on few transactions. A good demand continues for Trust and Guarantee at 70 to 75 with but little stock available at the present time. Canadian Oil Common held its recent advance to 55 to 60 without producing any selling. Imperial Oil was inactive after the declaration of the three per cent. dividend. Supt. Ist. Massey Harris eased slightly 68 to 73 though inactive. King Edward Hotel Common moved up sharply to 68 to 72 all offerings being quickly taken. Cocksbutt Plow Preferred at 44 to 49 was in good demand.

REDMOND WAS AWARE

Of Sinn Fein Influence in 1915, Says Labor Leaders. Victoria, B.C., Aug. 29.—Knowing that he could not long prevent the republican Sinn Fein influences from gaining control of Southern Island, the late John Redmond, Nationalist leader, sought in 1915 to meet with Sir Edward Carson, Ulster leader, to find an immediate solution of the Home Rule problem. Sir Edward Carson declined to meet Mr. Redmond, and the Sinn Fein upheaval commenced. This was the revelation which Peter Wright, British Labor leader, authorized the Victoria Times to publish in his name yesterday.
