The presence of His Excellency, Lord Byng of Vimy, drew even a larger number of people than usual to the aquatic sports at the Royal Military College on Tuesday afternoon, and the piers were crowded with on-lookers. His Excellency, the Governor-General, arrived at the staff enclosure with its red and white decorations, accompanied by Major General Sir Archibald Macdonell, his two aides, Major Willis O'Connor and Capt. Jolliffe. Several of the officers of the R. M. C. The P. W. O. R. band played during the afternoon. The races were followed with interest and a company of jesters in motley array created much fun, the ballet dancer in rose, with a very flirtatious manner, and the exceeding large baby being leading favorites. These turned out to be the competitors in the barrel race and bestowed their treacherous steeds with courage, the ballet dancer leading. The police cart of the "Barrieffield constabulary," with its warning sign: "Go slow and you'll see the city; go fast and you'll see the jail," appeared with flapping door and rickety wheels; two policemen drove this vehicle and contended manfully with bandits who arrived in a car. The cadets excelled themselves in their various stunts and kept their guests in roars of laughter. The tea served from a marquee on the lawn was very welcome, as the easterly wind was a bit chilly and then the last race between the war canoes finished splendidly and the younger people went over to Sir Arthur Currie Hall to dance for several hours. Among those present were Brig-General King and Mrs. W. B. Shuttleworth King, Col. and Mrs. H. J. Dawson, Col. and Mrs. Horace Lawson, Col. and Mrs. Greenwood, the Bishop of Ontario and Mrs. E. J. Footprints in Greenland. The length of time that footprints will remain fresh-looking in the soil on the coast of Greenland is remarkable. On Littleton Island, near Smith's Sound, members of the Peary Relief Expedition found footprints of a reindeer which seemed but a few hours old. Yet other signs discovered shortly after proved indisputably that the animal which left the marks had not been on the island for many weeks.

Hope is a fine thing, but it takes a devil of a lot of work to realize on it.

Women Men Admire

Men admire a pretty face, a good figure, but most of all the happy, healthy, contented woman, as beauty fades and the figure will change. Women who are troubled with backache, headaches, those dreadful dragging sensations, and nervous irritability, cannot hope to be popular, and advancement in either home, business or social life is impossible. The cause of these troubles, however, yields quickly to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, as it is a natural restorative for such conditions, and dispels effectually all those distressing symptoms.
