DOUBLE VISION LENSES

If you find it necessary to wear Glasses for both distant and near work do not try to worry along with two pairs of Glasses, when for a small extra charge you can have them made up in KRYPTOK INVISIBLE BIFOCALS or Double Vision Lenses, thus doing away with the chance of losing one pair, also of having to change each time you wish to look at anything up close or in the distance.

May we make yours for you ?

WOLFE ISLAND FAIR OVER

Big Attendance on Wednesday —The Horse Race and Baseball Results.

The Wolfe Island fair closed on Wednesday and the day was one of the most successful in the history of island fairs. Tuesday, the opening day, saw an attendance of 400, but on Wednesday there was fully one thousand people on the grounds. The weather was ideal and the attractions were very much enjoyed. The ferry Wolfe Islander made hourly trips throughout the day for accommodation of visitors from the mainland and a large number was present.
Among them was Hon. J. W. Edwards, minister of immigration and colonization, who was keenly interested, and James Henderson, president of the Kingston fair association, Secretary R. J. Bushell and many of the directors.

George Rattray, reeve of Wolfe Island, and secretary-treasurer of the society had general supervision of the work. In addition to the agricultural exhibits, all splendid attractions, the programme mainly consisted of horse races and baseball.
The races were good, and the baseball, a game between Wolfe Island and Three Mile Bay, created great interest.

Among the successful competitors in live stock were: Oscar Fawcett, winner of first prize for pure bred Durham bull; T. Conley, first for Southdown sheep; William Haley, first for Shropshire sheep; E. Savill, Yorkshire pigs; J. Alarie, first on pure bred Percheron stallion; L. Mc-Glynn, first on Amardale two-year-old colt. The full list of prize winners will be available for publication later.

The judges were: J. Armstrong, Maxville, horses; A. A. Colwell, Newcastle, cattle, sheep and pigs; B. N.
Whitney, Kingston, poultry; J. Heaton and C. C. Friendship, fruit, vegetables and grain; Mrs. Knight, Mrs.
Alexander Smith, dairy produce; Mrs.
Richmond, ladies' art and needle work.

The officers of the society are:
President, Dexter Kell; 1st vice-president, George Friend; 2nd vice-president, William Allum; secretary and treasurer, George A. Rattray.

Directors: R. Walker, Ed. Briceland, T. Rodgers, Thomas Moras, Thos. Connelly, Wm. Kemp, Dave Watts, W. McAdoo, Wm. Bullis, Geo.
Woodman, Richard Kesler.

Auditors: W. G. Woodman, Ed.
Brice land.

Committee for races: Oliver Hav-kins, A. Hough, Wm. Haley.

Superintendents: General superintendent, Wm. Haley; horses, Rod.
Walker; cattle, Ed. Brice land; agriculture, Wm. Kemp; poultry, Wm.
McAdoo; sheep and swine, Wm. Allum; dairy produce, Thos. Connelly.

NO NEW LIGHT ON FATE OF AMBROSE SMALL

John Doughty May Never Be Tried on the Kidnapping Charge.

John Doughty will not be taken from Portsmouth to stand his trial for conspiracy to kidnap Ambrose Small at the present sitting of the criminal session at Toronto; it was stated. The chances are that Doughty will never be tried on the charge, unless the authorities can produce some further evidence. The police are still clinging to a chance that they may get some direct information about Mr. Small, either dead or alive.

Since Doughty went to Portsmouth in April to serve his six year sentence for the theft of $105,000 of Mr.
Small's bonds, no further clue or information has come into the hands of the authorities regarding Mr.
Small's whereabouts.

PLAY AT THE GRAND.

"The Skin Game" Was Presented on Wednesday Evening.

"The Skin Game," a tragic-comedy in three acts, was presented at the Grand Opera House on Wednesday evening before a good-sized audience.
The play, which is put on by an English company, is one of the best presented at the Grand in years. The play tells the story of a feud between the Hillcrests and the Horn-blowers, and it ends by startling disclosures about the life of one of the Hornblowers being made. Mr. Horn-blower, a manufacturer, who had obtained considerable wealth, had purchased some property close to the home of the Hillcrests and had threatened to build chimneys. Mrs.
Hillcrest, in her endeavor to stop him building, is able to find out something of the inner life of Mrs.
Hornblower, Jr., before her marriage, and she makes it known, with the result that the buildings are not erected.

Matthew Boulton, who played the role of "Hornblower," is exceptionally good. Audrey Cameron as "Jill," daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hillcrest, is also a clever player.

Hon. Dr. Edwards Confident Of His Re-Election

"I never saw the situation in Frontenac more promising of success," said Hon. Dr. Edwards, when asked what he thought of the political situation. "I have made a trip through the northern part of the county and the people are ready for the fight, in fact, they were never more ready to give me their full support, and it is a cause for great gratification to me. I appreciate the warm support of my friends now, more especially since accepting the obligations that cabinet responsibilities carry. I feel that Frontenac county is more solidly with me than ever before."
