AN ORDINATION SERVICE, ST. GEORGE'S HARVEST DAY

Was Held on Sunday by the Standard Church General Conference. Rev. Walter Loucks, Ottawa, and Bishop Hamilton, Japan, the Preachers.

The Kingston annual conference and the special general conference of the Standard Church of America, held in Kingston during the past week, were concluded by special services on Sunday, beginning with an ordination service held in Ontario Hall at 10 a.m. All of the services were largely attended by members of the clergy and delegates from distant points. Ontario Hall was pretty well filled at the morning service which was marked by great enthusiasm.

The result of the proceedings is awaited with deep interest by the whole church, on account of the important issues arising out of the death of the founder and leader, the late Bishop R. C. Horner. The sittings have been characterized by a spirit of harmony and optimism. An impressive memorial service was held during the session.

The following candidates were ordained on Sunday morning: G. Fred Armitage, elder, Stittsville; Earl Thompson, deacon, Forestville; Arnold D. Ross, Billing's Bridge; Charles Armstrong, local preacher, Napanee; Bessie Brown, Kingston; Blanche Caldwell, Shannonville; Bertha O'Hara, Madoc.

Rev. G. L. Monahan, Moose Jaw, officiated, assisted by Rev. J. G. Nussey, Chesterville; F. G. Mayhew, Richmond; Rev. W. J. Watchorn, Pembroke; Rev. H. S. Hornby, Calgary; Rev. M. G. Leady, Caananville and Rev. James Smith, Kingston. The singing, which was particularly beautiful, was led by a quartette of sopranoes, Eva James, Toronto; Lois Richardson, Kingston; Carrie Hazard, Madoc; Minx Eastman, Toronto.

Rev. Mr. Monahan gave a most inspiring address on "Prayer and Preaching" previous to the ordination; and his exhortation was punctuated by bursts of emotion, men and women from every part of the congregation being seized by religious fervor. The act of ordination consisted of the laying on of hands by members of the clergy after the candidates had answered the prescribed questions. They were duly received into the ministry and afterwards were embraced by each minister, deacon and elder in turn.

At 2.30 p.m. an open air meeting was held at the corner of Bagot and Princess streets, and at 7.30 p.m. a real old fashioned evangelistic service was held in Ontario Hall and several of the clergy took part. The conversions are reported to be very numerous as a result of these services and it was found that the building at 44 Main street was entirely too small to accommodate the congregation, so Ontario hall had to be used on Sunday.

Rev. J. G. Nussey, Chesterville, was secretary of the General Conference, while Rev. James Smith, pastor of Kingston church, made arrangements for the reception of the large number of visitors. The conference was a great success in every way.

Spent Fifteen Years in China.
Rev. B. McAmmond, who preached in two of the city churches on Sunday, has recently returned from fifteen years spent mainly in West China. His father, who was also a minister, lived for some time in Brockville, where Mr. McAmmond was born. In speaking to the Whig, Mr. McAmmond scouted the idea that missionaries had been persecuted in the Orient, stating that both he and his wife had always been received with extreme kindness in all their travels and work throughout the country, even in the most inland sections where a white face had never been seen before.

Headache

Recurring headaches usually come from an exhaustion of the nervous system, and they do not disappear until the vigor of the nerve cells is restored by such up-building treatment as Dr. Chase's Nerve Food.

Temporary relief by use of powders is often obtained at an enormous expense to the nervous system and the general health.

Get the nerves right and the headaches will not return.
Mrs. W. J. Pearse, Nunn, St. Cobourg, Ont., writes:

"My system became run-down and I suffered greatly with pain in my head. This was so severe that I would have to bind a cloth tightly about my head so that I could get my work done. A friend advised the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food, and after taking the first box I found quite an improvement in my condition. I continued using them until I had taken about seven boxes, and they strengthened and built up my system splendidly, completely relieving the pain in my head."

Flowers, fruits, grain and huge stalks of corn decked the altar, pulpit, clergy and choir stalls of St. George's cathedral on Sunday for the annual Thanksgiving service. The music was especially good. Eyrer's communion service being sung at eleven, Peter Fair taking the solos in splendid voice. The anthem was "Praise the Lord, Oh Jerusalem" (Mauder), of which Peter Fair was soloist.

Canon Walter Loucks, rector of All Saints, Winnipeg, was the preacher, and began a striking sermon by speaking of the inter-dependence of the dwellers of the cities and of the country places, saying it was especially fitting that the churches in the larger centres should be decorated with fruits of the earth, to remind them that the food of the world came from the fields tilled by the sons of the soil. To one coming from the western grain fields, now bearing their golden harvest, God's love and God's power are outstanding facts. In the west, the promise of the springtime was wonderful, but rain and devastating storms had destroyed the labors of whole sections of the farming community. God is a Father whose chastening hand is felt by his children, but it has been found that if the wheat crop of one community fails, another land has prospered and the world's supply is assured. The only thing that will bring stability to the world is the following of the principals taught by Christ, the fields are white with harvest and the laborers are few. Bible students will find the law of sowing and reaping followed so inexorably in the natural world, laid down in God's word as the law of the spiritual world. "As a man sows, so also will he reap." Speaking to the younger people, the preacher said, "The harvest of wild oats is a horrible harvest, but it has to be garnered." An in the matter of giving, "He that soweth sparingly shall reap sparingly." You may deceive yourself, you may deceive your fellow men, but you cannot deceive God. All that we have comes from God; if men and women realized that and gave of their substance as He had blessed them, the day of special appeals would be at an end.

At even-song a beautiful musical service was again sung by the male choir, C. B. S. Harvey and Arnold Fair being the soloists in Stainer's anthem, "Ye shall dwell in the land," never better sung in the cathedral. Peter Fair sang the favorite, "In the Garden," by request. The preacher was the Right Rev. Dr. Hamilton, bishop of the Canadian diocese of mid-Japan, who told his hearers of the wonderful opportunity for the spread of Christ's gospel in the Island Empire of the East, where sixty years ago the doors were closed against Christianity, and to-day there are 200,000 Christian Japanese.

THE UNLISTED MARKET.

The Whole Business was Very Dull Last Week.

Toronto, Oct. 3.—In the report on the unlisted market of last week A. J. Pattison, Jr., & Co., say that as a whole business was exceedingly dull, though the market remained comparatively firm. Price changes with but few exceptions were only fractional. A fair indication of the lack of stock in the market was clearly demonstrated during the week when Southern Canada Power Common was bid up seven points to 27 with only a limited amount of stock changing hands on this rise. Imperial Oil was considerably firmer at 87 to 93 with little stock changing hands in a wide market. Canadian Westinghouse gained a point to 98 to 101 without bringing any stock into the market and leaving several buying orders unfilled at the big price. Goodyear Tire Preferred was in demand at the middle of the week being quoted 51 to 53. Dominion Power and Transmission Common was freely offered at 25 but no bids appeared at any price. Canadian Woolfens Preferred registered an advance to 60 to 63 while the Common was quoted at 20 to 24. Rlordan issues continued quiet and unchanged. Whalen Common changed hands at 4 and was quoted at the close 4 to 4 1/2. It was impossible during the week to obtain a bid on Whalen debentures though offerings occurred quite freely at about 42. Gunns Preferred continues in good demand at 57 to 58 1-2 with but little stock appearing in the market at these prices. Offerings of Robert Simpson Preferred at 75 1-2 were not absorbed. Murray Kay Preferred was repeatedly asked for at 55 but no offerings were obtainable under 60. Massey Harris continues unchanged at 65 to 72 with but a small amount of stock changing hands at these figures.

Young Lady Roughly Handled.

A young lady, while proceeding through the city park to the General hospital shortly after 6.30 o'clock Sunday evening, was attacked by a young man, who jumped out on her. Her assailant treated her very roughly and then made off. The young lady arrived at the hospital in a highly nervous condition. This is the second attack made in that section during the past two weeks.

Another Rain Storm.

Kingston had another heavy rain storm on Sunday. All morning and until late in the afternoon the weather was ideal. The storm came up late in the afternoon, and many citizens who were out enjoying a walk got caught in it. The storm continued in the evening, and church attendance suffered as a result.
