To-morrow's HOROSCOPE By Genevieve Kemble

TUESDAY, OCT. 4. The astrological outlook for this day is not to be read as favorable. There may be business perplexities and worries, possibly caused by treachery or duplicity. New projects may be jeopardized by the risk of money by speculation is warned against. Those in the employment of others should be cautious. Attend strictly to business, with open eyes; and no ill can befall. Those whose birthday it is are urged to be cautious in all their dealings lest they suffer through fraud or treachery. They should not risk their money nor speculate. Those in the employment of others should be careful. A child born on this day should be fitted to meet the obstacles and setbacks of life, as it may have many ups and downs to contend with. It will have natural good judgment, however, to meet these.

COMB SAGE TEA IN FADED OR GRAY HAIR

If Mixed With Sulphur It Darkens So Naturally Nobody Can Tell.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever the hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients, all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair. A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful.
