THE CITY COUNCIL MEETS IN THE MEMORIAL HALL

Passes Two By-laws and Talks of Work For the Unemployed.

Most of the lights in the city building went out just as the city council was about to convene at eight o'clock Monday evening in special session. It was found that the lights in the new memorial hall were in order, and into this hall Mayor Nickle led the aldermen, and on the platform of this beautiful hall, yet to be dedicated, the city fathers transacted business. The session lasted only twenty minutes.

A bylaw was presented by Ald. Steacy providing for the closing of an unopened street near Kingston Junction, as the land is required for the erection by the Frontenac Floor and Wall Tile Company of a feldspar grinding plant. The street is of no use to the city. The bylaw was duly passed.

Another bylaw was presented by Ald. Angrove to amend a bylaw passed on the 30th of August providing for the paving of Sydenham street from Johnson to West street. The bylaw was made to provide for paving only from Johnson to Earl street.

In reply to Ald. Kent, Ald. Angrove stated that the reason for the change was that the block between Earl and West streets was found to be in good condition and not to need paving.

Ald. Litton objected to eliminating this block from the paving scheme. He thought the original bylaw should be carried out. However the bylaw to limit the paving to Earl street was adopted.

Ald. Angrove suggested that as the market square pavement was now completed, the council should give a public dance on it. He thought the property committee might erect a stand for the orchestra and the parks committee provide the music.

Ald. Fleet asked if the contagious building was to be erected at the General Hospital this year. Mayor Nickle replied that he doubted if the architects could have the plans ready in time. Ald. Kent said that the plans could not be ready until about the first of December. Ald. Litton thought it might be possible to make a start on the foundation before winter, but Ald. Kent did not think this could be done. Stone cutting might be started, however.

Mayor Nickle said that Dr. A. E. Ross and Dr. W. T. Connell were delegated to go to Providence, R.I., and inspect a hospital in that city which was regarded as the very best contagious institution on the American continent. They were to report their findings to the hospital board before the arrangements completed the details of the plans for the local hospital, which would be the very latest thing in an infectious building. The local building would provide for fifty-two beds.

Ald. Kent informed council that the hospital board would be soon calling for tenders for the enlarging of the present Empire wing, which was to be almost doubled in size.

Ald. Stroud directed the attention of the mayor to the fact that tenders were called for about $22,000 worth of roads to be constructed at the Royal Military college, and suggested that an effort should be made to have the work started this fall. The mayor said he had written to Sir Henry Drayton several weeks ago, asking that a proviso be placed in the contract that only Kingston labor should be used on these roads. He would write Sir Henry again about the matter.

The mayor invited the aldermen to attend the ceremony next Saturday morning at eleven o'clock in connection with the presentation by James A. Richardson of the stadium to Queen's university in memory of his brother, the late Capt. George T. Richardson. It was not often that a municipality was presented with a stadium that cost $110,000, and his worship said he knew that Kingston deeply appreciated the generosity of one of its sons in giving Queen's University such a magnificent gift.

Those in attendance were Mayor Nickle and Alds. Angrove, Armstrong, Clow, Corbett, Craig, Driscoll, Fleet, Graham, Kent, Litton, O'Connor, Peters, Phillips, Potter, Robertson, Sargeant, Steacy, Szeud and Smith.

ATHENS IS WELL SUPPLIED

With Vendors of Meat—Athens Sports' Day on October 12th.

Athens, Sept. 30.—Work on the new Merchants Bank is progressing very favorably. The new building, being centrally located, will add much to the appearance of the town.

Ain Brothers, general merchants, are now installed in the Parish store. G. W. Beach has moved his stock of merchandise to the new Parish block. P. Y. Hollingsworth has placed a stock of groceries in his Elgin street store.

Gordon Johnston, who arrived a couple of months ago from Brockville to take charge of the oil and gasoline business, has purchased Mrs. Nellie Steacy's Mill street property.

Mr. Neff, the new agricultural representative, has leased the property vacated by Mr. and Mrs. G. Johnston.

Mrs. M. Bresse has purchased the Reid street property of George W. Brown.

The town is being well supplied with meat. Besides the local dealers there are three vendors from outside points making regular trips certain days each week.

Local duck hunters secured their share of birds, particularly at the opening of the season.

Tommy Clifton Blancher takes over the Athens-Plum Hollow rural mail route.

On the 18th inst., the new organ in Christ church was used for the first time on the occasion of their harvest thanksgiving service.

Rev. S. F. Newton has returned from a six weeks' sojourn in our Canadian west, and last week resumed his duties as pastor of the local Methodist church. During his absence his work was taken very acceptably by Rev. C. J. Curtis of this place.

On Sept. 25th, the local Sunday schools observed Rally Day, and presented programmes in keeping with the occasion. The Epworth League has been re-organized for the winter work.

The Athens school fair on Saturday, Sept. 24th, was one of the season's big events and of especial interest to the juvenile element whose work for several months past loomed large in the public eye. The flowers and vegetables would have made a creditable showing at a large industrial exhibition, while the specimens of penmanship and art, girls' handiwork and boys' handicraft evinced an inherent dexterity in the younger generation.

The cash prizes have been donated by the children toward the purchasing of musical instruments for the local school.

The "movies" have arrived for the winter months and will show in the town hall weekly.

Athens Sports Day has been fixed for October 12th when a big time is expected.

The Ladies' Aid of the Methodist church purpose holding a "National Tea" about the middle of October.

Plans are in progress for the annual W. M. S. district convention to be held in Lansdowne about the third week of October.

Hives and Honey Stolen. Cobourg, Oct. 4.—Petty thieving in this district has taken a new turn. A Baltimore apiarist had two bee hives, bees, honey and all, taken bodily away from his premises, while another in the same locality reports the loss of seventy-five pounds of fine honey stolen from two hives.

About some men the only regular thing is their irregularity.
