A Mammoth Potato.
The Whig was shown a mammoth potato on Monday, grown on the farm of Charles N. Bott, at Harlowe, in Barrie township. The potato is certainly a beauty and it is safe to say that, if all the farmers had a crop of this variety there would be no danger of a potato famine in this district. Mr. Bott is to be congratulated on his potatoes.

Master Creator of Characters Who Live

HALF A CENTURY has passed since Charles Dickens forever laid aside his pen over the unfinished manuscript of "Edwin Drood." Yet Dickens is enshrined in the hearts of every booklover; his characters live with us in our daily lives; and his works are published, re-published and published again, putting to shame the so-called "best sellers," whose frothy fame is quickly dimmed by the radiance of the Master Creator of Characters Who Live.

More than a quarter of a century ago, L. E. Waterman introduced to lovers of easy, smooth, continuous writing

Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen

To this invention of L. E. Waterman, as to the immortal works of Charles Dickens, the passing years have brought increasing popularity. In character, convenience and efficiency, Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen stands supreme. Ephemeral improvements and vaunted best-sellers but accentuate the lasting superiority and satisfaction of using the Waterman's Ideal. There is a Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen to suit every hand and every individual character of hand-writing. Three types—including self-inker—

Three children blessed their fire side, Robert A., of Centralia, Wash., Allen C., of Schriber, and Ellen at home. Mr. and Mrs. Robt. About seventy guests were present, including Mr. McLean's sister, and Mrs. John McArthur, a sister of the bride, was also present. Curling Rink Was Moved.
The curling rink has been successfully moved to its final position along the road in the college grounds. The rink will be set on cement piers. The preparatory work of tying the building took considerable time but in remarkable time the huge structure was pulled across the space, and the ground for the new Jock Hartie rink is open for the Hamilton Bridge Company to go ahead with the erection of the steel work. They have their crane in the stages of erection now. The crane will have two seventy foot booms. The steel for the rink is arriving in the city and the erection will start on Monday next, and it is thought that in three weeks time the steel will all be in place. As soon as the supports are put up at the Arch street end, the wood workers can get ahead for it is in that section that all the dressing rooms are situated. The wood work will be started the end of next week. Prof. Lindsay Malcolm who designed the structure, is overseeing the work.

Married at Glen Walter, Ont.
St. Lawrence Lodge, Glen Walter, Ont., the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Craig, was the scene of a very pretty wedding on Monday afternoon, when the second daughter, Mary Beatrice, was united in marriage to John Charles Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Grant, Westmount. The ceremony, performed by Rev. Hugh Munro, took place in the parlor under an arch of evergreens and autumn leaves. The bride, given away by her father, wore a gown of white tulle and ruffled silk trimmed with seed pearls and beaded rope girle, tulle veil and wreath of orange blossoms and carried a shower bouquet of Ophelia roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Helen Craig, B.A., wore a dress of pearl grey meteor crepe trimmed with fringe, and grey crepe de chine hat trimmed with pink flowers, and carried a bouquet of pink American beauty roses. Edgar Brown of Cornwall was best man. After the ceremony delicious refreshments were served. The house was tastefully decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Grant left on the 4.50 train for New York, the bride travelling in a suit of brown Bolivia cloth trimmed with Beaver and purple touque trimmed with orchid and wore a corsage bouquet of violets. On their return they will reside at 530 Northcliffe Avenue, Westmount. A large number of friends were present at the station to shower the young couple with confetti and every good wish for a long, happy and prosperous wedded life. The groom's gift to the bride was a platinum bar pin set with diamonds; to the bridesmaid, a silver vanity case, and to the best man, a pearl tie pin.

From the agony columns of the London Times: "Demobilized captain makes hand-embroidered crepe de chine blouses, 25 shillings. Exclusive designs." A major who knitted jumpers advertised in the same column.
