HAD INTERESTING MEETING

Mr. Hill, Musical Director, Addressed Victoria Home and School Club.

A most interesting meeting of the Home and School Club was held in Victoria school Friday afternoon, the president, Mrs. Best, presiding.

Reports from various committees showed the amount of interest being taken in the work. The treasurer reported a balance of $590. A football and baseball outfit is being purchased for the use of the children.

Mrs. H. D. Wightman was elected recording secretary for the coming year.

A letter was read from Mrs. Coleman, Vancouver, which was greatly enjoyed. Mrs. Coleman was the founder of Home and School work in Kingston.

Preparations are being made for a meeting on Canadian authors in November.

Mr. Hill, musical instructor, gave a very instructive talk on his work. He said that he had worked in Greece in 500 B. C. Later when kindergartens were started in America the importance of music was again felt.

The first musical instructor in schools in America was appointed in Boston in 1838. Many other cities followed soon after. Toronto children have been receiving musical instruction for thirty-five years. He said that it was a benefit to children physically, and this fact was being endorsed by musical men. He cited cases where both heart and lung trouble had been helped by the breathing necessary in voice culture and prophesied that twenty-five years hence, preachers, lawyers and politicians would feel the need of voice training. Ontario has the best musical course in the world.

A vote of thanks was moved to Mr. Hill by Mrs. H. Moore, seconded by Miss Spooner.

When Queen's is distributing more L.L.D.'s it might remember our good fellow citizen, John Campbell, who keeps Kingston supplied with electrical power, when the provincial hydro system goes bust, as it so often does. Who about here is performing a greater service for his fellowmen than the same John?

Thank goodness Kingston is free from church squabbles. Toronto certainly has its fill of religious bickerings. The Portsmouth Philosopher, however, thinks it is a healthy sign when congregations have disputes with their clergymen, for he says it shows the people are interested.

The butter sold in the island market will now be out of danger of the germs carried there by those women's organizations which have been using the building for rummage sales. The decree has gone forth that no more such sales are to be held there.

People who go to a certain Presbyterian church are amazed on a rainy evening at seeing a very dear old lady of some ninety odd years enter and take a place in her pew. Her presence at worship is an object lesson to the fair-weather church-goers.

It is indeed truly said that to more men than one might imagine, Sunday means nothing more than the day on which they do not have to go to work.

The Lampman is told that a certain Kingston clergyman was very indignant over a "skirt" dance put on in his church hall at a recent concert. No doubt he was right. A church hall is no place for dance manoeuvres which are at all objectionable, any more than it is the proper place for holding raffles, and games of chance.

Out in Australia the Veterans were right in replacing the Australian flag with the Union Jack. The latter flag is the only proper one to fly on land. This has long ago been officially settled and civic authorities should take heed.

Now the public library board has run foul of the city auditor, the man who keeps the city council, the county council and the utilities commission in the straight and narrow way. The auditor knows his business, however, and the library board will have to be good or it will be bawled out.

—THE TOWN WATCHMAN

It has been suggested that Chief of Police Barrett, who assisted in the capture, keep the cub as a police mascot.

Mount Sinai, Chapter Masonic Lodge, celebrated its fiftieth anniversary with a banquet given in their newly-decorated lodge rooms over the Royal Bank. About two hundred masons and their wives $28.00 overcoats at Tweddell's, and daughters were present. After a bountiful supper, speeches were made and toasts given by O. S. Reddick, Dr. Austin, of Queen's, G. W. Mordey, of Picton, Richard Spencer, of Trenton, G. F. Rutten, E. J. Walters.

Mr. and Mrs. Jules Brazil, of Toronto, provided excellent entertainment.

Mrs. E. I. Boyle entertained a number of her friends at Bridge on Friday afternoon in honor of her guest, Mrs. W. H. Bleeker.

Miss Sadie Purdy leaves on Oct. 23rd for Waukegan, Ill., to enter Victoria Memorial Hospital as nurse-in-training.

Kingston's city clerk is not giving a cook book with every marriage license he issues, as is done in Hamilton, or is he giving a rolling pin to the future missus.

Congratulations to our old friend Christy, who is not only a city father, but has this week qualified as a county father.
