Doorn, Oct. 26 .- A veil of gloom appears to have settled on the exroyal household similar to that of the period of the ex-kaiserin's death. The ex-kaiser is about to celebrate the third anniversary of his arrival in Holland with all the memories of Germany's debacle, but this year as a widower.

William Hohenzollern is also much depressed by the anniversary of the ex-kaiserin's birthday. Besides a special service on Sunday there was also a memorial service held at Doorn on Saturday. Simultaneously a service was held at Potsdam which was attended by all the Hohenzollerns in Germany. The ex-kaiser sent an enormous wreath of yellow roses from his garden to be laid on the exkaiserin's grave at Potsdam.

After the service the ex-monarch withdrew to his apartments and would see no one but his daughter, tution, Victoria Louisa.

FOR HON. MR. KING

Ticket-of-Leave Act Operation Has Been Partially

The population of the Portsmouth penitentiary has reached the highest point in more than forty years, the number confined being over 820. It Oct. 28th, afternoon, Stouffville; is stated that this is due to some extent to the suspension of the operations of the Ticket-of-Leave act, passed in 1899 and which was a great reformative force, and also an eifective means by which to keep down the annual expenditure for maintenance.
