The "Maple Leafs." The favorite fourth division "Maple Leafs" will be the attraction at the Grand Opera House tonight, presenting their new 1521 version of the merry musical revue, "Camouflage."

The "Maple Leafs" are now on their second coast-to-coast tour of the Dominion and are meeting with even greater success this season with their latest offering, which is under the personal direction of Capt. M. W. Plunkett.

Several of the boys have just concluded an engagement as a headline act on Shubert vaudeville in the States and it was Captain Plunkett's original intention of dividing the show into two vaudeville acts for the entire season, but with the "Dumbbells" playing so much of their time across the line, the demand for another soldier show in Canada was so insistent that another trans-continental tour of the "Maple Leafs" was arranged.

Ben Allen, Pat Rafferty, Morley Plunkett, Harry Ashton, Bob Aner, Jack Kelly, Hughie Graham, Ben Pitch and Hughie Williamson, all favorites of last season are still with the Company, which has been further augmented by the addition of a male quartette and several individual acts.—Advt.

Return of Rex Stock Company. When the Rex Stock Company returns tomorrow night they will be seen in a screamingly funny farce called "Billy's Tombstones." It was a favorite bill of the late Sydney Drew, and they say that Rex Snelgrove does some of the cleverest stunts one could possibly imagine during his almost fruitless pursuit of the elusive false teeth. To give you just a hint of the plot I'll tell you that the entire action of the comedy takes place on board the steamship "Florida" en route for Havana.

Billy Hargrave, an ex-hero of the gridiron, lost four perfectly good teeth and has been obliged to resort to false ones. Like most nice young men he has a near-fiancee and she also, is on her way to Cuba with her mamma. The complications which arise from the fact that the fiancee's mamma prefers Sam Eustace as a future son-in-law, and that, contrary to his sister's advice, Billy hesitates to reveal the terrible fact of his "shop teeth" until a moment, when, in the midst of his confession, he is accidentally sent sprawling on the deck and loses his "set" are so amusing that I shall just stop now and leave the rest to your imagination. Rex is a most engaging Billy and Zana Vaughn is a very charming sweetheart.—Advt.

At The Allen. For "The Man of the Forest," which has been made into a picture from Zane Grey's most interesting novel, Ben J. Hampton, the producer, has assembled a truly splendid cast.

When this picture plays at the Allen theatre tomorrow you will see in the leading role beautiful Claire Adams, co-starred in two Ben J. Hampton successes in the past, "Riders of the Dawn" and "The Spenders"; Robert McKim, whom the screen knows so more polished villain, seen in the past in "The Westeners"; "The Dwelling Place of Light," "Riders of the Dawn," "The U. P. Trail" and "The Spenders"; Carl Gantvoort, a recent "find" of Mr. Hampton's, whose big reputation was achieved first upon the musical comedy stage, but whose physical qualifications fit him ideally for the motion picture. Mr. Gantvoort has played opposite such ideals of the footlights as Mitzel, Christine MacDonald and Hazel Dawn. He also played for Henry W. Savage in the original cast of "Madame Butterfly." The balance of the cast is more than adequate, as is always the way in a Ben J. Hampton production. We want you to see this picture.—Advt.

At The Strand. A photoplay that is as full of action as an egg is of meat, is William S. Hart's latest Paramount picture, "O'Malley of the Mounted," which will be shown at the Strand theatre tomorrow. From the opening scenes in Canada when O'Malley is ordered to "get" a man wanted for murder, until the final fade out when he resigns his commission rather than arrest the man whose sister he loves, there is not an instant's drag.

O'Malley has many adventures while on his quest—adventures that stir the blood and quicken the heart. Of course, the customary Hart battle against odds is a feature and it is safe to say that a better fight never was waged. The story was written by Mr. Hart.

Pretty Eva Novak, who supported Wm. Hart in "The Testing Block," is the leading woman, and the rest of the cast is up to the Paramount standard. Few pictures ever shown in Kingston have aroused the interest which is being shown in "O'Malley of the Mounted," for ever since the picture was first announced and then postponed, owing to the extended stay of "The Affairs of Anatol," there has been a steady enquiry as to when the picture would really be shown.

Bill Hart is a real favorite in the Limestone City.—Advt.

Milk Bandits at Work. New York, Nov. 2.—Milk bandits have made their appearance here. A dozen men, riding in three taxi cabs, today held up a delivery wagon in Harlem and escaped with five large cans of milk.

GANANOQUE

Nov. 2.—The fifty-sixth annual convention of the Ontario Religious Education Council opened here yesterday afternoon the meetings being held in St. Andrew's and Grace churches and the town hall. Those who took part included Miss Bertha Lane, Mrs. P. C. Burgess, Miss C. Jackson, Miss Mabel Taggart, Rev. Mansour Doyle, C. F. Piewman, Rev. R. B. Ferris, Rev. W. P. Fletcher, J. A. Jackson, Rev. J. K. Curtis, Rev. Daniel Mick, Rev. C. E. Kidd, A. McGregor, Rev. C. A. Myers. In the evening a mass meeting was held in Grace Methodist church. The chairman was A. McGregor, president, O.R.E.C. The song service was in charge of W. K. LeDrew. An address was given on "Educational Evangelism, Its Agencies" by Rev. C. A. Myers, and one on "The Secret of Sunday School Success" by Dr. W. A. Brown.

The body of Mrs. George Dustin, who passed away at her home in Clarendon, was forwarded to Gananoque and the funeral was held on Monday afternoon at Willow Bank cemetery. Deceased was a sister of Mrs. John G. Lloyd, and Mrs. W. T. Duesth, Garden street.

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Kelly and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur L. Knight motored to Sunbury on Sunday and spent the day with Mr. and Mrs. William Lynn.

Mrs. William Pratt, King street, motored to Kingston General hospital on Monday with Andrew J. Edwards, and spent a few hours at the bedside of her husband, who recently underwent a serious operation.

A great concourse of distinguished people witnessed the decoration by Gen. Pershing, of the tomb of the unknown soldier in Westminster Abbey with the Congressional Medal of Honor, the highest American war honor. The above photograph shows Gen. Pershing reading the citation just before placing the medal on the tomb.

THE GENERAL HOSPITAL

R. E. Kent Re-Elected Chairman of the Board of Governors.

The monthly meeting of the Board of Governors of the Kingston General Hospital was held in conjunction with the annual meeting on Tuesday evening. The board-room was well filled and a great deal of interest was manifested. After the business of the monthly reports had been disposed of, interesting reports were read from the chairman, the medical superintendent, the superintendent of the training school for nurses, the Women's Aid Society and the Nurses' Alumnae Association. These reports were particularly noteworthy and instructive, and a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to all those who had assisted in making the work of the past year so successful.

Regret was expressed that the superintendent, Dr. Ross, was unable to be present at the meeting, being out of the city on business connected with the hospital. However, his report of the year was read by the secretary, showing a very complete organization and arrangement of the hospital work and mentioning a number of still further improvements which it is proposed to install in the near future. The interest taken in the hospital by the governors as a body is much greater than in former years, and as Dr. Ross stated in his report, he was convinced that a splendid future is before the General Hospital and that its influence would spread more and more throughout the surrounding district.

The nominating committee then brought in their report, which was read by Abraham Shaw. It stated that after going carefully into the matter the committee would recommend that no change be made in the management committee, and eulogized the work of this body during the past year, whose members are R. E. Kent, chairman; F. G. Lockett, vice chairman; A. F. Chown, honorary secretary; R. F. Elliott, William Jackson and Harold Davis. This report was received with approval by the board, and the vote was unanimous in re-electing them. Those present were: R. E. Kent, F. G. Lockett, J. A. Minnes, A. Shaw, J. M. Hughes, W. Anderson, W. M. Litch, H. W. Newman, W. H. Wormwith, A. F. Chown, R. F. Elliott, R. J. Carson, Mayor Nickle, W. A. Bearance, H. Davis, W. J. Fair, D. A. Cays, W. F. Nickle, Walter Cooke, W. J. Binton, R. N. F. MacFarlane and J. H. Birkett.

GREAT BRITAIN FAVORS ARMAMENT REDUCTION

Lord Lee, First British Sea Lord, Makes Statement at New York.

New York, Nov. 2.—British delegates to the conference on limitation of armaments will go to Washington resolved that, short of compromising the safety of the empire or its sea security, they will go to almost any length to meet other great naval powers in a mutual and proportionate effort to relieve the burden of the burden of competitive armament. This declaration was made yesterday by Lord Lee of Fareham, first lord of the British admiralty, and one of the official delegates of his country, who arrived on the Olympic with other delegates to the conference, from Italy, China and Japan. Referring to the world war, Lord Lee said he had been convinced for years that Germany meant mischief, and added that the lessons learned from that war were not confined to those learned from Germany.

"The world," he asserted in a prepared statement, "has learned a wider lesson still—that militarism, wherever situated and however entrenched, is a menace to civilization and must be given notice to quit."

Dan Sullivan, with bad record around Chichester, near Ottawa, was shot dead by Sheriff B. J. Sloan and his son, a deputy.

ARMISTICE DAY ASSEMBLY

Programme for the Day and Special Request of the King.

Armistice Day is being observed again this year on November 11th, and preparations have been made for the celebration of the event by the local military authorities. Brig.-Gen. W. B. M. King, G.O.C., M.D., No. 3, has drafted a programme to be followed by the various units. At 10.25 in the morning troops will assemble at the cricket field and the R.C.H.A. band will play the opening hymn at half-past ten. A short address will be delivered by the Bishop of Ontario, and also by Lt.-General Sir Richard Turner, V.C., K.C.B., K.C.M.G. Other selections will be rendered by the band, time permitting and then a prayer will precede the two minutes silence to be observed from 11.00 to 11.02.

The period of silence will be followed by "The Last Post," blown by R.C.H.A. trumpeters, and the benediction. The following troops will take part: Gentlemen Cadets, R.M.C.; Royal Canadian Horse Artillery Brigade; No. 3 Heavy Company, R.C.G.A.; Headquarters Staff, M.D. No. 3, including Departmental Corps.

These units of the active militia have also been asked to take part: 4th Hussars; 32nd Field Battery; Queen's Contingent, C.O.T.C.; 5th Field Co., Canadian Engineers; the P.W.O.R.; "A" Co., 4th Brigade Machine Gun Corps; First Field Ambulance; No. 3 Co., C.A.S.C.; Returned Soldiers' Organizations; Naval Brigade; K.C.I. Cadets; Patriotic Societies and School Children. Special attention is called to the request of His Majesty King George that two minutes of absolute silence and immobility be observed from 11.00 to 11.02. It is not a tribute to rank, flag, country, or creed, but a mark of respect and admiration for those men who died in the service of their country during the war. Motor cars, wagons, trains, boats and pedestrians are requested to stop at 11.00 and remain absolutely motionless until 11.02, in order to help in this empire-wide demonstration of respect for the dead.

In Military Circles. The officers and N.C.O.'s of the 4th Hussars held a meeting in the armours on Tuesday evening, during which many matters of interest to the regiment were discussed at length. The new recreation room to be opened in the former central registry at the armouries is considered a great benefit to the N.C.O.'s and men of the Hussars as well as other units in the city, and it will do much to bring the men together during the winter, besides tending towards fellowship between the different units. The headquarters staff has under consideration the inauguration of monthly luncheons for the active officers of the garrison, at which prominent speakers will be present. This will bring together the younger officers especially and allow them to get acquainted with those of other units. A provisional school of cavalry will probably be opened in the near future, at which some of the officers and N.C.O.'s will qualify for their present rank or promotion.

Come and Look Them Over. 200 baskets Kelfer Pears going at 55c, Thursday, at Carnovsky's. The general committee of Grand Trunk employees have rejected the so-called tentative agreement as to the wages on the Grand Trunk signed at Montreal last week. J. M. Campbell has been re-elected to the executive committee of the Canadian Deep Waterways and Power Association. The cover of a new deck chair for boats can be removed quickly to serve as a life preserver or sleeping mattress. Dr. R. J. Husband, dentist, Burlington, collapsed while attending a patient and dies in a few hours. Chief P. S. Inspector Clarence B. Edwards, London, former city clerk, dies at age of fifty-nine. Professional boxing is opposed by Ottawa clergymen. Hungary is to proclaim deposition of all Hapsburgs.

SPORTING NEWS

Rugby To-day. Half time: R.M.C. 6; McGill H. 1.

C. G. Shannon Golf Champion. The final match of 36 holes in the club championship tournament produced an interesting contest between C. G. Shannon and Dr. L. J. Austin, resulting in a win for the former by four up (and three to play). The weather was excellent for golf, but the condition of the course so late in the season makes low scoring impossible. Mr. Shannon secured an early lead by accurate work at the short holes and finished the morning round with a substantial lead of six holes. Resuming in the afternoon, Dr. Austin started with a four, and taking four of the first six holes, reduced his opponent's lead to two. Mr. Shannon made a fine recovery with four and three for the seventh and eighth respectively, but lost the ninth. This left him three up with nine to go. Mr. Shannon won the tenth and having the next five holes, won the match and the club championship on the fifteenth green.

Although the scoring was nothing remarkable as a whole, there were occasional flashes of fine play. Mr. Shannon had a three at the eighth, 370 yards, and Dr. Austin a very unusual three at the fourteenth, 450 yards. The winners score was rather better than three for the thirty-three holes played.

ANOTHER NEGRO CHAMPION.

Earle Johnstone Wins National A. A. V. Ten-Mile Run. Earle Johnstone, of Pittsburg, who Sunday won the national A. A. V. ten-mile run, is the second negro athlete to become a national title holder this year. Ned Gordin, the Harvard negro athlete, recently won the national decathlon championship.

Italy Pays Reverence To Her Unknown Dead

Rome, Nov. 2.—Solemn reverence by king and peasant was paid to Italy's unknown symbol of her five hundred thousand dead when the body arrived here this morning and was transported on a gun carriage to the church of Santa Maria degli Angeli, where it will lie in state until Friday, when it will be laid in the altar of the country under the Victor Emmanuel monument. The king and the royal family were the chief mourners.

Vessels Stormbound.

Reports from marine men show that there was a large number of vessels stormbound on Tuesday. The heavy gale that swept over the lake was reported sufficiently in advance to enable navigators to make shelter or remain in port. No casualties were reported on Wednesday, but several vessels are over-due owing to having remained in shelter during the storm.
