UNKNOWN CANADIAN SHOULD BE HONORED

Remains Should Be Re-interred in Ottawa, Says Halifax Herald.

Halifax, N.S., Nov. 8.—Discussing the act of the United States in bringing from France the body of an unknown soldier, the Halifax Herald, in a leading editorial says:

"Why should not Canada do what has been done in Great Britain, in France, in Italy and in the United States? Why should not this country endeavor to bring a gleam of hope into the barren lives of those to whom it means so much?"

VILLAGE OF WELLINGTON.

Hunters Go After Deer—The Late Alexander Stewart.

Wellington, Nov. 4.—Jack Shurto and William Boyle took their guns and proceeded to North Hastings to seek deer, but failed to shoot any.

Alexander Tait, with his wife and Arthur McDonald accompanying, motored to Belleville. Arthur McDonald has arrived to take a business course at the O. B. C.

WEDDED AT BROCKVILLE.

Marriage of Donald E. VanLaven and Miss Maribel Gilmore.

Donald E. VanLaven, son of Earl F. VanLaven, and a member of the firm of VanLaven Bros., San Bernardino, California, left this city on Tuesday last, where he has been visiting his cousins, E. Ronald and E. Wray VanLaven, of the firm of VanLaven Bros., Kingston.

Mr. VanLaven left California on Sept. 23rd on an extended trip up the Pacific coast as far as Vancouver; then through the Canadian West, calling at Edmonton, Calgary, Moosejaw and Winnipeg.

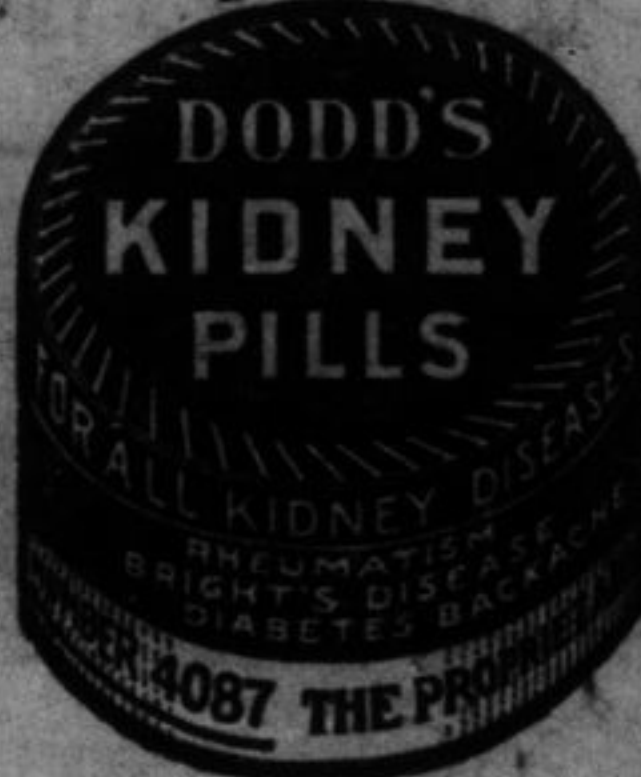

From here he again crossed the border into the state of Michigan, where he stopped at Kalamazoo and Detroit, arriving in Kingston on Oct. 23rd. Leaving Kingston on Nov. 1st, he motored as far as Brockville where he was married to Miss Maribel Gilmore, a very popular Kingston young lady, by the Rev. G. W. McCall, at the Methodist parsonage.

After a luncheon at the Grand Central Hotel there, the party left for their southern home on the 2.45 p.m. train as far as Montreal. The return trip will be made by way of Boston, New York, New Orleans and Los Angeles. The newly-weds intend to stop at Washington, D.C., for a few days where Mr. VanLaven will attend a session of Congress.

Are You Not Taking a Big Chance Parking Your Car at the 'Curb'?

You City Folk—and You-Out-of-Town-People—when you are attending a show, dance or some similar entertainment, would you not enjoy yourselves much more if you knew that your car was being properly taken care of?

Even if you have taken what seems to you to be every possible precaution against loss by theft, by locking the ignition switch or gear-shift lever, the expert auto thief can overcome these difficulties in a few minutes.

DO YOU KNOW THAT AN ABSOLUTELY THEFT-PROOF LOCKING DEVICE HAS YET TO BE DEvised?

When your car is left on the street what protection have you against loss of such articles left in it, such as rugs, wraps or parcels, or any accessory which is easily removed—your Spare Tires for instance.

We have a conveniently located, clean, spacious fire-proof Garage, always open, and our storage rates are so reasonable that every motor car owner should take advantage of them.

A Reminder

This Company rejected over 700 applicants last year for no less than two million dollars of insurance because they waited too long.

This Company would have been only too glad to issue this insurance had these applicants been medically fit. The lesson is apply for insurance when you can get it.
