PALMISTRY. COME AND HAVE YOUR HAND READ well written, clear, have consented to stand as candidate for this constituency. I stand for a protective policy, which will provide work for our workmen. Keep our money at home; for support of men who have stood by our country in time of need; for support of sound leadership as we have it in Right Hon. Arthur Meighen. I solicit your vote and influence, and I solicit your vote will be at your service. - A. E. ROSS.

AT CROW LAKE. Church and Sunday School Kept Going Under Difficulties.

Crow Lake, Nov. 7. - The opening of the deer hunting season has been welcomed and some local hunters have already taken advantage of the opportunity. The residents of Crow Lake are glad to know that Harvey Hagan has at last decided to bring his saw mill back to Crow Lake. A number of the boys have returned from their trip west and were welcomed back. A party was held at Mrs. R. Reynolds' on Wednesday evening. All had a nice time. There was also a party at J. Bedore's Hall on Nov. 7.

Snow has made its appearance and the weather looks wintry. A baby boy has come to brighten the home of Mr. and Mrs. Boyd. J. R. Norris has left for Brockville where his father, Thomas Norris, is going through a serious operation. The friends of Duncan McGregor are sorry to hear that he is in a very serious condition in the Hotel Dieu, Kingston. Alfred Patterson, driver, reports very poor prices for cattle on Toronto market. K. McCann and wife are at Crow Lake. Mr. McCann is relieving J. E. Boyd while the latter is taking his holidays. Mrs. Ellwood Harris has left for her home in Copper Cliff. The people here are preparing for a box social on Nov. 11th. Mr. Cantrell, church of England minister from Sharbot Lake, is to hold services on Wednesday evening here in the Union church. All are proud to know that Miss B. Rickaby, the teacher, is going to stay. The Methodist service here last Sunday was well attended. N. B. Topping occupied the pulpit. Sunday school is progressing favorably under the able supervision of J. R. Norris, Crow Lake. People must surely appreciate the efforts made here by some of the residents in keeping the church and Sunday school open under very difficult circumstances; also the kindness of Mr. Cantrell in sparing time to come here and hold services.

Were Coming to Portsmouth. Guelph, Nov. 9. - All efforts to trace the whereabouts of John Bedard, a Frenchman, who succeeded in making his escape from Guelph jail after he and two companions awaiting transportation to Portsmouth penitentiary had beaten up the jailer and turnkey, have so far been unsuccessful.

To The Electors of Kingston and Portsmouth

At the request of many Liberals and Conservatives, and by selection at a very large convention, have consented to stand as candidate for this constituency. I stand for a protective policy, which will provide work for our workmen. Keep our money at home; for support of men who have stood by our country in time of need; for support of sound leadership as we have it in Right Hon. Arthur Meighen. I solicit your vote and influence, and I solicit your vote will be at your service. - A. E. ROSS.
