Once more the city fathers in their gold frames looked down on fair maidens and brave men dancing gaily on Friday evening when, Cataragui Chapter, I.O.D.E., gave their big Armistice ball in Ontario hall. The vogue for frocks of brilliant hues, deep rose, flame and yellow, with the many sequined gowns, set off by the soft black velvet, flashing with jet or silver, made the ball-room a brilliant scene. Mrs. W. H. Macnee, the regent, wearing a handsome gown of black satin and lace with touches of jet. Mrs. Norman Leslie, the vice regent, in black with gold embroidered overdress, and Mrs. Norman Fraser in black satin with net and sequins, received the crowds of guests. Sympathy Six orchestra played excellently for the dancers and were most generous in their encores. During the evening Mrs. H. C. Nickle and Miss Rhoda Wurtell were busy dispensing the lemonade at the table arranged near the door and at supper Mrs. R. C. Kent, Mrs. Norman Fraser and Mrs. C. S. Kirkpatrick poured coffee. Some of the handsome gowns worn were Mrs. G. Hunter Ogilvie, sequined gown with black net and lovely chrysanthemums. Mrs. R. E. Kent, black net and satin. Mrs. Sandford Calvin, black and silver. Mrs. H. C. Nickle, black net jet and satin. Miss Wurtell, black lace over crimson. Mrs. H. E. Pense, smart pink taffeta frock. Miss Mary Ogilvie, the debutante of the evening, was frocked in palest pink taffeta with draperies of georgette; her flowers were pink roses. Among those present were Lt.-Col. and Mrs. Scroggie, Col. and Mrs. G. H. Ogilvie, Col. and Mrs. H. E. Pense, Major and Mrs. W. Ennis Kidd, Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lyster, Col. and Mrs. W. H. Craig, Capt. and Mrs. George Bawden, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Brynner, Major and Mrs. Grant, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Ryan, Dr. and Mrs. W. A. Jones, Major and Mrs. Leach, Col. and Mrs. Eric Phillips, Mrs. Douglas Anglin, Miss Gildersleeve, Mr. and Mrs. Kinear, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. W. K. Macnee, Capt. and Mrs. Holloway Waddell, Mr. and Mrs. Sandford Calvin, Miss Callaghan, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Kirkpatrick, Capt. and Mrs. J. C. Murdoch, Capt. and Mrs. J. F. Preston, Mr. and Mrs. Dault O'Connor, Mr. and Mrs. d'Esterre, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Robertson, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Penwarden, Col. Wetherpoon, most of the girls and men of the younger set and a number of cadets. About three hundred people were present.

Mrs. Arnott Minnes, received on Friday for the first time since her marriage, in her pretty apartment at "The Winston." A bright fire, shaded lights and lovely pink chrysanthemums, made the drawing-room charmingly home-like. Here Mrs. Minnes received, wearing a lovely frock of white embroidered crepe and a corsage bouquet of opelia roses. Mrs. James Minnes received with her daughter-in-law, gowned in grey canton crepe, with embroideries of steel and jet. In the tea room Mrs. Herbert Steacy poured coffee, and Mrs. W. G. Minnes tea, at the polished table with its exquisite flowers, mauve and yellow 'mums, in a huge silver basket and smaller ones in tiny silver vases among the soft white tulle. The assistants, who were most daintily frocked, were Mrs. Richmond Code, Ottawa, Miss Nora Martin and Miss Nores and Miss Minnes. Crowds of visitors took this opportunity of welcoming this popular Ottawa girl to her husband's boyhood's home.

The students of Queen's are being well entertained by the various church organizations next week. On Monday evening a committee of the workers of St. George's Cathedral and the Anglican Girls' Club of Queen's entertain the students in St. George's Hall. DYED HER DRAPERIES AND A FADED SKIRT

"Diamond Dyes" Package tells Women how to Dye any Old Material.

For fifty-one years millions of women have been using "Diamond Dyes" to add years of wear to worn, faded skirts, waists, coats, stockings, sweaters, coverings, hangings, everything. You too can put new, rich, fadeless colors into your worn garments or draperies even if you have never dyed before. Just buy Diamond Dyes—no other kind—then your material will come out right, because Diamond Dyes are guaranteed not to streak, spot, fade, or run. Tell your druggist whether the material you wish to dye is wool or silk, or whether it is linen, cotton, or mixed goods.

HOW TO MAKE MONEY.

No. 23—Making Children's Dresses.

The making of children's dresses and aprons, together with the remodelling of children's clothes, from those of their elders, was the plan adopted by one woman who found it necessary to become a bread-winner. When she began this work she knew nothing about dress-making, but was a good, plain seamstress. She bought a dozen paper patterns to fit children of various ages and put in a small advertisement in a local newspaper; soon she had all the work she could do. It is not difficult to make little girls' dresses as they do not require as careful fitting as women's clothes. It soon developed that the trade all came in a rush during the spring and autumn months, while in mid-summer and mid-winter the work would be slack. But, by a little thought, she evolved a plan by which her income would be equalized. Whenever a sale of dress goods is advertised, she is on hand early and often gets bargains in remnants which are just the

To-morrow's HOROSCOPE

By Genevieve Kemble

SUNDAY AND MONDAY, NOV. 13-14TH.

Sunday's horoscope is not to be read as encouraging any manner of worldly pursuits. The mind may be disposed toward metaphysical or occult preoccupations—which should be a sustaining force to offset threatened physical and domestic dangers.

Those whose birthday it is have not an auspicious outlook. They should be careful to guard against accident. A child born on this day should be given very early training in self-government.

Monday's astrological chart holds a promise of an important change, removal or journey, which should bring good fortune and success. Excellent opportunity may present itself quite unexpectedly, and it may be embraced with confidence of ultimate satisfaction if only a degree of caution be exercised as to the signing of letters, contracts and agreements.

Those whose birthday it is have the promise of a successful year with unexpected change or travel. A child born on this day may be restless; fond of change, and given to pleasure, unless well-trained early in life, in the fundamental principles of good advertising.

Rinso

Soak the clothes—the dirt rinses away

RINSO is not a cake soap, not a chip soap, not a washing powder, but fine granules of wonderful cleansing power that soak the dirt out of your clothes. Dirt is so thoroughly dissolved that it floats away in either warm or cold rinsing water. This does away with the boiler and wash board—it makes wash-day work truly easy and simple.

Popular Hits on a Modern Phonograph

The Columbia Grafonola is everywhere known as the modern phonograph because of its many exclusive improvements, which make all of its reproductions so real.

Columbia Records are everywhere recognized as absolutely up-to-date because they give you all the popular hits while they are still piping hot.
