AT ROBERT MEEK SCHOOL BAZAAR AT NOTRE DAME

A Successful Tea and Sale in Commemoration of the Eightieth Anniversary of the Was Held on Friday Afternoon.

The Robert Meek School held a successful tea and sale of home-made cooking, candy, fruit, pickles and plain and fancy sewing on Friday afternoon. The tables were tastefully decorated and laden with many good and beautiful things. The ladies enjoyed themselves in the kindergarten room, drawing from the fish-pond and refreshing themselves with ice cream and candy.

Mrs. Rankin, Mrs. Meek and Mrs. Godwin received, and Mrs. McDougall and Mrs. Dunlop poured tea. The following ladies had charge of tables: Mrs. Hart and Mrs. McIlroy, cakes and tarts; Mrs. Cook and Mrs. Ferris, pickles and fruit; Misses Ferris, Kelley, McBroom, Easson, Singleton and Mrs. Gallagher, candy; Mrs. Lowry and Mrs. Hallam, ice cream. The kitchen was in charge of Mrs. Lowry, Mrs. E. Hart and Mrs. Crawford, while Mrs. Angrove, Mrs. Black, Mrs. Prager, Mrs. Asselstine, Mrs. Ferguson, Miss Lovick and Miss McBroom helped to serve. The fish-pond was directed by Mrs. Cain and Mrs. Horstall. The J. M. Greene Music Company loaned a victrola for the occasion. The net proceeds amounted to $180.

SELLING OF EGGS.

Should be Upon the Quality Basis—Educating the People.

The interests of the people as consumers demand that so important an article as eggs should be sold and paid for only upon the quality basis. This convention is forced upon all who buy and pay for eggs as being fresh or new-laid while there is nothing to show that such is the case. The shop keeper who handles the article is not satisfied with present marketing methods, for only by buying from the same person upon whom he can rely is he able to satisfy the demands of his customers. But this source of supply is of necessity limited and the city shop keeper has to sell crated eggs.

The poultry division, live stock branch, of the dominion department of agriculture, has for some years been endeavoring to educate the people and producers alike to the need for a change in the marketing of eggs and, as a part of this effort, E. F. Montgomery of the department has an exhibit in the store window of James Redden and Company, Princess street. Here, eggs are shown in the four grades which it is proposed to establish in the trade by law, but it is up to the people to demand that properly defined trade grades shall be fairly fixed so as to distinguish the packed eggs from the fresh eggs and require a dealer to state whether the eggs he sells are of one or the other. But this has to go farther back to the farmers and poultry raisers who pack the eggs for the market.

The grades proposed are: Specials, eggs of uniform size, weighing 25 ounces to the dozen and over, or 47 pounds net to the 30 dozen case, clean and free from stain, white, firm and clear, yolk dimly visible. Extras: Eggs of good size weighing 24 ounces to the dozen, or 45 pounds to the case, air cell 3-8 inch, white, firm yolk, slightly visible. Pullet extras, firsts, eggs weighing 23 ounces to the dozen, air cell less than 1-2 inch, yolk may be distinctly visible but moving freely. Seconds: Eggs sound in shell, may be watery, with heavy yolks, and all other eggs fit for food.

THANKOFFERING MEETING

Rev. T. W. Savary's Timely Address Upon "The Home."

The annual thank offering meeting of the mothers' council, boys' division, was held in the Y.M.C.A. parlors on Friday afternoon, with the president, Mrs. George Bateman, in the chair. Secretary F. J. Wilson conducted the bible reading and prayer, and Rev. T. W. Savary gave a helpful address on the "Home." The speaker showed what a comfortable feeling the word "home" gives to people, and remarked that it should be a place where love is manifested, and comforts and fine thoughts appreciated. Mention was made of the eternal criticizing of the children. Mr. Savary explaining that fault-finding and scolding were very often the means of driving the young people from home. He emphasized the old home scene, the family fireplace, living room and piano, where the children could not only enjoy the company of their parents, but are privileged to bring their own young friends into the circle. The place of the family altar, representing Christ in the home, the Unseen Guest, was set forth.

S. T. Lilley gave a short address, explaining what the Y.M.C.A. is doing for the boys. At the present time there are 275 members in the boys' division, with an average attendance of 50 a day; 200 in the gym classes; 41 boys taught to swim; and 40 boys or more attend the meeting every Sunday morning in the "Y."

Miss Christine Diack and Mrs. Patterson gave several solos. O. Lundell, accompanying them on the piano. Refreshments were served by Mrs. F. Hambrook and Mrs. Lilley of the social committee. The proceeds of the thank-offering amounted to $33.

China Sale.

Annie E. McRae will hold a sale of hand-painted china, Wednesday afternoon and evening, at her studio, 94 Earl street.

A great many automobiles that have non-skid tires also need non-skid hands on the wheel.

The sisters of the Congregation de Notre Dame will, on November 21st, commemorate the eightieth anniversary of their coming to Kingston.

One of the features of the week of rejoicing will be a bazaar, that is to be held in the convent, beginning on that date. The ladies of Kingston are very enthusiastic over the event, and have been indefatigable for months past, in their efforts to make it a success. Quantities of beautiful needlework, serviceable as well as ornamental, will be displayed and can be purchased at very low prices. There are dresses of varied materials and of different models for old and young, made with the greatest care by experienced and talented dressmakers, also an abundance of beautiful "lingerie," in fact entire outfits of ladies' and children's clothing. The aprons of all kinds are beautifully made, some plain, all pretty and many to please the most fastidious. There is a quantity of fancywork, embroidery, exquisite bags of rare designs, pretty and dainty articles for the ornamentation of the home—calendars and other dainty objects, artistically designed and executed. The dolls are very pretty; some are even elaborate. There are religious articles, also embroidered scapulars, badges, medallions, etc.

All these things will make very desirable Christmas gifts. The ladies hope that the public will profit of this opportunity to purchase Christmas gifts. The great variety in the display will give a chance to all to be pleased.

The booths will be arranged on the first floor of the convent and the public will have easy access at any time during the day and evenings. In the gymnasium, lunch and supper will be daintily served at moderate rates, and ice cream and candy booths are lavishly provided for.

The children will be pleased to hear that the fish pond will provide gifts for all, that will reward them for their wait. They can also procure all that "dollies" need for Christmas—pretty dresses, elaborate hats and other articles of attire. Cigars will be provided for the gentlemen, who will be cordially welcomed.

The committee for amusements have provided a very fine concert to be given by the school children in the hall, on the evening of the 21st. Local artists have painted some very artistic scenery, which will add much to the appearance of the fine hall, as well as to the quality of the performance. The public will have the opportunity of seeing this for the first time on that evening.

Card parties will be a feature of the entertainments. These will also be held in the hall. The ladies hope to please all who may patronize the bazaar and take this opportunity to extend to them a most hearty welcome.

Death of A Minister.

The death occurred on November 7th at Glenora Methodist parsonage, of Rev. Clifford G. Renouf, following an illness due to typhoid pneumonia. Deceased was thirty years of age, and was pastor on the Cressy circuit. He is survived by his wife and two small children. Deceased had been ill but a short time. He had been engaged on the Cressy circuit for about a year and a half. The funeral took place on Wednesday, Nov. 9th, to the Methodist church at Glenora, interment being made at Cressy cemetery. Rev. Dr. Brown, Picton, officiated, assisted by J. U. Robbins, Wellington, and A. E. McCutcheon, Bloomfield.

Two sisters of the deceased attended the funeral, one coming from Winnipeg, and the other from the States.

The Whig has on view a most unusual growth of fruit in several bunches of raspberries with the blossoms and berries on the stem. These were picked in the garden of J. M. Sharman, 274 University avenue on Friday, Nov. 11th.

There was no session of the police court on Saturday morning.
